

465 to Finish Work At Parrish Junior High

Completion of junior high school work is scheduled for some 465 boys and girls at Parrish Junior High according to a list announced Tuesday by Principal Robert H. Dow.

A total of 480 were graduated in 1955. Because of de-emphasis of ninth grade completion by the Salem School Board, commencement exercises will not be held in the junior high schools for the first time this year. # Winner

Double winner of scholastic grants for graduate study is John Bone, (above) Salem senior at Willamette University.

Willamette U. Senior Wins Law Grant

John Bone, senior at Willamette University has been awarded a full tuition scholarship to the New York University School of Law next year. Bone, a political science major, is the second W.U. student picked this year to attend the New York school on a scholarship. Dan Dearborn has attended Willamette on a four-year Rotary scholarship. In addition to his tuition award from NYU, Bone received on Tuesday the Mary L. Collins Graduate scholarship, amounting to $600. This local award is presented annually to a male graduate to do first year graduate work. Three candidates were nominated by the vote of the students, the faculty selecting Bone recipient of the scholarship. A graduate of North Salem high school, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bone, 1325 Baker St.

LIONS EAT 40 PERSONS

KAMPALA, Uganda — Lions have eaten 40 persons recently in the Ankole district of this British East African colony, a game department official said Tuesday. The government has decided to hire a white hunter to try to exterminate the man-eaters.

Leslie to Fete 436 Graduates With Party, Farewell Assembly

Leslie Junior High School will fete its 436 ninth graders who are completing junior high school this year with an "Aloha" party June 1 and a farewell assembly the following Monday.

The largest class to be graduated from Leslie, it will gather at the gymnasium for the farewell party featuring dancing movies and games. The final assembly is scheduled in the auditorium at which the outstanding boy and girl will be named, and scholarships, merit and music awards presented. A skit depicting the highlights of the class in its junior high years is also scheduled.

Because no graduation exercises are scheduled for the school this year, ninth graders will receive report cards and certificates of completion Wednesday, June 4. The list of graduates, announced Tuesday by Principal Earl Hampton, are:
