Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. What is the chairman's function at a public dinner or banquet?
A. He sits at the center of the speakers' table. After the dessert he rises, addresses a few pleasant remarks to the company at large, and then introduces the first speaker. When that speaker has finished, the chairman comments on the speech and then introduces the next speaker. The guest of honor, who is seated at the chairman's right, is the last to speak.

Q. If a girl attends a cocktail party, and does not drink, what should she do when one is offered to her?
A. She may refuse graciously with a "No, thank you." Of course, a girl who does not drink should not be attending a cocktail party.

Camp Fire Group Completes Ranks

The Yukpa Chappa Camp Fire group climaxed a year's activities with recognition for three different ranks completed at the Salem Grand Council Fire Saturday evening. Lynda Johns received Trail Seeker rank, Dana Bradley her Wood Gatherer rank, and the Fire Maker requirements were attained by Diane Schweigert, Sharon Jensen, Carolee Johns, Becky Taylor, and their leader, Mrs. Orville Johns.

Friday evening the girls prepared and served dinner at the Orville Johns home. They planned and purchased the dinner as part of their Fire Maker rank requirements.
