

Arabs Hold Bible Scrolls For Ransom

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two—possibly more—newly discovered Dead Sea scrolls have been stolen by Arabs and are being held for ransom, a leading authority on the documents said.

Dr. William F. Albright, professor of Semitic languages at the Johns Hopkins University, said in a lecture Wednesday that the discovery of these scrolls had not been previously announced.

He said they were found in the same area near the Dead Sea which has yielded over the past nine years a fabulous find of manuscripts dating to biblical times. The first scrolls were found in jars in a cave a few yards from the headquarters of the Essenes, an historic Jewish sect.

The recently found sheepskin scrolls were stealthily removed from under the noses of their guards by Bedouins — nomadic desert Arabs—Albright said. Studies of other Dead Sea scrolls have convinced scholars there was a much closer relationship between Judaism and early Christianity than previously supposed, Albright said.

Egypt's Boss to Visit Red China

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser is going to visit Communist China. A government spokesman announced the date of the visit would be fixed later.

Nasser's acceptance of the invitation to Peking follows last week's announcement that Egypt and Communist China will establish diplomatic relations. Egypt is the first Arab state to recognize the Peking regime.

Nasser also has a trip to Moscow in the offing.

An Egyptian military mission will visit Red China after recognition is proclaimed formally, and the Cairo press has hinted that Egypt might make an arms deal with the Chinese Communists.

Red China's Premier-Foreign Minister Chow En-lai stopped briefly in Cairo in June, 1964, en route home from the Geneva conference.
