

Junior-Senior Proms Climax School Year . . .

Statesman's HOME
Panorama
Women . . . Music . . . Fashions . . . Features

(Sec. 3)—Statesman, Salem, Oregon, May 27, 1956

Checking . . . over their dance programs before leaving for the South Salem High Junior-Senior Prom Saturday night are, left to right, Ron Maddy, Miss Nancy Snider, Miss Patricia Whelan and Dick Gabriel. Miss Snider will also be attending the North Salem Prom next weekend as her "steady" is a North Salem senior. The high school proms are always the social highlight of the year and climax school days for the seniors.

A corsage . . . for Miss Lesley Cline presented to her by Julian Thruston, above, on arriving to escort her to the South Salem Junior-Senior Prom Saturday night. The Oriental motif was used in the decorations with Bill DeSouze and his orchestra playing for dancing in the school gymnasium.

Two seniors . . . who will be attending the North Salem High Junior-Senior prom on June 2 are Miss Debbie Lamb and Miss Judy Byers, pictured at the right. The prom will bring to a close their school days at North Salem with graduation slated for June 5.

Wearing . . . pretty pastel dance frocks for the North Salem Junior-Senior Prom (at the left) to be held June 2 in the school gymnasium is this quartet of senior girls pictured, left to right, Miss Judie Hume, Miss Jill Cummings, Miss Joyce Stetler and Miss Sandie Hill.

(All Photos by Kennell-Ellis Studio)

A group . . . of South Salem High School seniors pictured just before departing for the annual Junior-Senior Prom Saturday night included, left to right, Frank Shafer, Miss Barbara Boniface, Miss Nancy Denton and Jim Allen.

Dancing . . . at the North Salem Junior-Senior Prom next Saturday evening in the school gymnasium will be this trio of senior girls, left to right, Miss Pamela Clayton, Miss Shirley Wilcox and Miss Ronie Carlisle.