

Commencement Festivities Are Calendared for Coming Week

By JERRYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

Commencement festivities for both college and high school students highlight the social calendar at the end of the school year. Following the baccalaureate services for Willamette University seniors today President and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be hosts for an informal open house at their Fairmount Hill residence. Bidden to call after 4:30 o'clock are members of the senior class and their parents.

Dr. Richard Petrie will greet the guests at the door. The hosts will receive informally in the living room. Assisting about the rooms will be Dean and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mader, Mrs. J. H. Ryan, Jerry Whipple and Dr. Howard Runkel.

Mrs. Jerry Whipple will invite guests into the dining room. Mrs. Howard Runkel and Mrs. Maurice Brennen will preside at the coffee urns. Mrs. Richard Petrie is in charge of the dining room and serving will be the new members of Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary. Miss Daisy Lim of Medan, Indonesia, who has just completed her sophomore year on the campus, will play background music on the piano during the afternoon.

Luncheon for Trustees Wives

The trustees wives of Willamette University will be honored at a luncheon for which Mrs. Smith will be hostess at her home on Saturday, June 2. This is an annual affair given by Mrs. Smith. Following the commencement on June 3, Dr. and Mrs. Smith will entertain at dinner in compliment to the speaker, honorary degree candidates and their wives.

Alumni Banquet and Class Reunions

Several events are planned for the alumni during the commencement weekend. The annual alumni banquet will be held at the Marion Hotel on June 2. At noon the same day several class reunion luncheons are scheduled.

The class of 1936 will be honored at an informal get-together following the banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Jones on Jefferson Street. Assisting as co-host will be Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Manning of Portland. The class luncheon will be held at the Marion Hotel at noon. All members of the class, whether they graduated or not, their wives or husbands are invited to attend both the luncheon and party at the Jones home.

Security Alumnae Breakfast

The Pi Beta Phi alumnae, Oregon Gamma chapter will hold their annual commencement breakfast Sunday morning, June 3 at the Senator Hotel at 9 a.m.

Willamette University Delta Phi alumnae, who were members between 1920 and 1945, will gather for a commencement breakfast on June 3 at the Golden Pheasant at 9 a.m. Those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Albert Cohen or Mrs. Verner Sackett for reservations by June 1.

A Graduation Tea at Hoffman's

Miss Carol Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hoffman, who is graduating from South Salem High School on June 5, has sent out invitations to a graduation tea for which she will be hostess on Saturday, June 2. The affair will be held at the Candalaria home of the Hoffmans on Boice Street. Bidden are all seniors girls of South Salem and a few of Miss Hoffman's North Salem friends. Calling hours are from 1 to 4 o'clock.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. Maynard Shiffer and Mrs. Richard Berry. Serving will be the Misses Marceine Mulkey, Joan Kleinke, Linda Steele, Georgianna Criswell, Janice Hall and Kathy Deoney.

Golden Wedding For Couple

Celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Van Cleave. They were married in Portland May 23, 1906. They both grew up around Molalla and Monitor and came to Salem vicinly soon after their marriage. They lived for many years in Middle Grove community, moving a few years ago to Rosedale.

They have two sons, Melvin, living in Middle Grove, and Kenneth at Rosedale. They have eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. All but one grandson, Dale Van Cleave, who is in the U.S. service stationed at Okinawa, and a great-grandchild who is a baby, were present for a family dinner party at China City in South Salem on Wednesday night.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans will meet for a dessert luncheon and social afternoon at Lipman's Cherry Room Friday, June 1 at 1:30 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Blanche Walcher and Mrs. Edith Bane.

Married at St. Vincent's

A bride of Saturday morning was Mrs. August V. Harris, the former Betty Lucille Looney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Looney. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Harris. The ceremony took place at St. Vincent dePaul Catholic Church. (Artz Studio).

Miss Betty Looney Is Married To August Harris on Saturday

Miss Betty Lucille Looney became the bride of August V. Harris at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass Saturday morning at St. Vincent dePaul Catholic Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Looney and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Harris, all of Brooks.

The Rev. John Reedy officiated at the ceremony before a setting of pink and white peonies. Mrs. Ernest Krell was the vocalist and Wayne Meusey the organist. The altar boys were Paul and Michael Kovash of Woodburn, cousins of the groom.

For her wedding the bride wore a bouffant floor length gown of white nylon embroidered organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with a portrait neckline outlined in organza cutout flowers. She wore short, white gloves and her chapel length illusion veil was caught to an organza headdress enhanced with a nylon ruffle. She carried a white Bible marked with a yellow throated white orchid.

Walk Before the Bride

Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar wearing white lace sheath gowns over ice green taffeta. They wore green net headdresses, short, white gloves and carried crescents of Vanda orchids. Mrs. Robert Davis was the matron of honor and Miss Irene Harris and Mrs. Roy Christianson the bridesmaids.

Dale Looney, the bride's brother, served as best man and ushers were William Looney, John Harris and Leo Meirs.

A blue faille suit with white accessories and corsage of Vanda orchids was worn by the bride's mother. Mrs. Harris chose a navy blue linen suit with pink accessories and corsage of Vanda orchids.

Reception Follows

A reception followed in the church dining room. Pouring were Mrs. O. J. Williams and Mrs. Jack R. Taggart. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Orval Johnson, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Frances Diel, aunt of the groom. Assisting were the Misses Kathy Powell, Carolyn Haselbacher, Judy Harris, Bonnie Jean Lester, Susan Johnson, Mrs. Sylvester Kottre, Mrs. Sam C. Looney, Mrs. Tom Hynes and Mrs. Leo Buchel.

The newlyweds have gone south on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride donned a green sheath dress with white accessories. The couple will be at home on Route 1, Brooks after June 10.

Past Regents Club of Chemeketa Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will be entertained at a 1 o'clock no-host luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Edna Mings. Mrs. David Looney will present the program, "The Declaration of Independence."

Miss Ricketts Names Bridal Attendants

Miss Jo Ann Ricketts, who will be married to Dr. Joseph Gerald Toole of Oakland, Calif. on June 9, is announcing plans for her wedding this weekend. Miss Ricketts, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Ricketts, will receive her degree from Oregon State College on June 3. Dr. Toole is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Toole of Klamath Falls.

The ceremony will take place at the First Congregational Church at 3 o'clock with Dr. Julian Keiser officiating. Jerry Christopherson will be the vocalist and Thomas E. Roberts will be the organist.

Miss Ricketts has asked her sister, Mrs. William G. Frost of Portland, to be her honor matron. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Bruce Shurtleff (Patricia Healy) of Berkeley, Calif., Mrs. Jerry McCallister (Roberta Sjoding), Mrs. Byrr Watson and Miss Patricia Paine. Terry Michels will be the flower girl.

William Toole will serve as best man for his brother and ushers include Bruce Shurtleff, William Frost, John Ricketts, brother of the bride-elect, Richard Brust and Miles Edwards.

The wedding reception will be held in the church parlors. The couple will live in Oakland, Calif., where Dr. Toole is taking his internship.
