

Mt. Everest Conquest Claimed

Swiss Climbers BERN—These Swiss mountain climbers, shown in Bern in January, Monday were reported to have made two ascents to the top of Mt. Everest, the world's highest. They also were said to have conquered neighboring Lhotse I, the top of which never before had been reached. Announcement was made by the Nepalese government in Katmandu. From left are Wolfgang Buchl, Ernst Schmidt, expedition leader; Albert Eddler, Hans Rudolf vonGuten, Ernst Reiss, Adolf Reist, Jurg Marjet and Fritz Luchinger. (AP Wirephoto via radio from London).

Good Scout LONDON—Princess Margaret, wearing uniform of the Girl Guide organization, displays keen interest as she stands at the saluting platform on Dunstall Park racecourse, Wolverhampton, England, Saturday. The Princess flew from London to inspect 8,000 Girl Guides and Brownies of the Staffordshire area. (AP Wirephoto).

Gets Job WASHINGTON—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson was told Tuesday by President Eisenhower to put the new farm program into operation as quickly as possible. (AP Wirephoto).

Flood Victims INDIANAPOLIS—Floodwaters from the wife and children were rescued in a boat paddled by Arthur rain swollen White River were steering-wheel-depth on car at left when George Board, left, his night, and families began moving home. (AP Wirephoto).

Teen-Ager Voters COVINGTON, Ky.—Voting for teen-agers in Kentucky became legal for the first time in history here Tuesday, and here 18-year-old Billy Whittle gets ready to pull the lever of a voting machine in the state's primary election. (AP Wirephoto).

103-Year-Old Voter JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Will H. Harris, who claims to be 103-years-old, is assisted by precinct inspector Mrs. Lena Marconi after walking 1 1/2 miles to cast his ballot in Florida's second primary Tuesday. (AP Wirephoto).

Slain MOSCOW—Mir Dzhafar Bagirov, former prime minister of the Soviet republic of Azerbaijan, has been executed for treason. (AP Wirephoto).

Rain in Eastern U. S. NEW YORK—Rain and continued warm weather is forecast for Wednesday for vast area from southern Rockies to Appalachians, New England and Florida. Rain is also predicted for west coast ranges and higher sections of central Plateau. It will be cooler in northern Lakes and Rockies areas; warmer in Northwest Pacific states. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Lost SAN FRANCISCO—Dr. Robert Franklin Johnson, 28-year-old intern at San Francisco Hospital, is the object of a search Tuesday in Yosemite National Park by rangers and mountaineers. He has been missing since Sunday. (AP Wirephoto).

