Engagements On Campus Announced

A poem and a Life magazine pictorial announced to members the engagement of Penny Lilles and Gaar Edwards to members of the Pi Beta Phi house last Wednesday.

Miss Lilles, a junior psychology major, was recently appointed co-director for Varsity Varieties. She has been active on drama department committees and is also a member of the Student Body elections committee.

Edwards formerly attended Oregon State College where he was affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta. He is now engaged in pre-dental studies at Reed College.

The wedding is planned for a year from this June.

A cardinal red candle encircled by an engagement ring was passed to her sorority sisters and blown out by Clarine Woolery who later introduced her fiancé, Bert Harp.

Miss Woolery is a senior drama major from Salem. A member of Chi Omega, she served as president of that organization. She is also a member of Theta Alpha Phi, international drama honorary.

Harp attended Salem schools and OCE and is now employed by the state of Oregon.

A telegram in the form of the announcement of a scholarship was the method for announcing the wedding date of Joanne Terhark and Dave Finley.

Miss Terhark, a senior psychology major, is past president of Pi Beta Phi. She is also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Cap and Gown, Psi Chi, and Kappa Delta Pi.

Finley, former president of the ASWU, is a member of Beta Theta Pi. A senior political science major, he holds membership in Theta Alpha Phi, Pi Gamma Mu, and Omicron Delta Kappa.

The wedding is planned for August 5 in Portland, and the couple will live in California next year, where Finley will continue his studies at Stanford University.

Stayton Couple Married At Large Wedding Saturday

White bows tied with little white bells marked the pews at the Stayton Church of the Immaculate Conception Saturday morning when Miss Lanit Marie Boedigeheimer became the bride of Gerald Victor Kintz. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boedigeheimer, Stayton, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Roman Kintz, also of Stayton.

The Rev. Mathew Jonas performed the 10 o'clock nuptials while Miss Josephine Brand played the organ. Nestor Van Handel and John Brand sang.

The bride wore a floor length gown of imported lace over satin with scoop neckline and bodice extending in apron effect over the skirt which fell in full tiers of nylon tulle extending in a chapel train. Her nylon tulle veil was held in place with cap embroidered in sequins and pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis and white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Darlene Boedigeheimer, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina length princess style dress of powder blue crystal and carried white chrysanthemums centered with pastel yellow. Clad in matching dresses were the bridesmaids: Miss Ila Jean Boedigeheimer, sister of the bride, Mrs. Clement Lulay, sister of the groom, and Miss Sharon Meyerhofer.

Also dressed like the maid of honor was another sister of the bride, Miss Carol Boedigeheimer, the junior attendant.

Verl Dean Boedigeheimer, brother of the bride, was best man and groomsmen were Glen Minden, Clement Lulay and James Frichtl.

A navy blue sheath dress with pink accessories and corsage of pink orchids were worn by the mother of the bride, and the groom's mother chose a watermelon pink suit dress with black and white accessories and corsage of white orchids.

At the reception in the parish hall after the ceremony, Mrs. Albert Boedigeheimer and Mrs. Irvin Boedigeheimer cut the cake. Mrs. Harvey Keudell poured coffee and Mrs. George Frichtl served punch. Assisting were: Mesdames Fred Fery, Alva Fery, Louie Freres, Clara Boedigeheimer, Louie Gistler, Ann DeJardin, Mary Meyerhofer, Mary Weller, Joe Piser, and the Misses Lela Boedigeheimer, Beverly Miller, Carole Frank, Doris Minden, Rose Foltz, Joyce Foltz, Carol Ann Schumacher, Maralee Miller, Diane Prodrabsky, Jeanette Foltz, and Janice Jungwirth.

For their wedding trip to California and Nevada the bride wore a light blue tweed summer suit with black and white accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. After their return the couple will live at Stayton.

Two roses and a poem announced the engagement of Coralie Roseberry and Pete Van Horn to members of the Alpha Chi Omega house last week.

Miss Roseberry is a junior home economics major and a member of the choir.

A member of Phi Delta Theta, Van Horn is a sophomore in the economics department and is also a member of the choir. He was a soloist for Varsity Varieties his freshman year.

The wedding is planned for a year from this summer.

Miss Madsen to Be Married in Hillsboro June 16

SILVERTON — Relatives and friends here are receiving invitations for the wedding of Miss Loretta Bell Madsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Madsen, Hillsboro, to Joseph Milton Smith Jr., Portland, set for Saturday, June 16 at 8 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hillsboro.
