Ninth Graders Close Junior High Careers

Gaiety and sadness were the mixed ingredients Monday as ninth graders said farewell at both Parrish and Leslie Junior High Schools. In each school the class which enters high school next fall sponsored a farewell assembly with student skills mostly reviewing the year in humorous vein, along with more serious aspects of the farewell. Throughout Salem public schools, Monday was the last day of the school year. At Leslie Junior High, Karen Harris was honored as the class' outstanding girl and Robert Hartman the outstanding boy, at the final assembly. The outstanding music award went to Gloria Schmidt. Honored as straight A students all three years in junior high were Beverly Killam, Judy Erickson, Joan Fast, Nancy Miller and John Allen. At Parrish Junior High special student awards were made last week and outstanding scholarship records will be revealed Wednesday. This year saw "de-emphasis" on

Youth Changes Mind, Enters Innocence Plea

Two Salem youths pleaded guilty Monday to a burglary charge, then one of them changed his mind and was allowed to withdraw his plea. Undecided about his plea was Delmar Lee Frahm, 19, Salem Route 3, Box 622. Circuit Judge Duncan permitted him to withdraw a guilty plea and gave him until Monday to make another. Frahm and Charles LeRoy Armstrong, 18, Oregon City, are accused of breaking into the Gideon Sizel warehouse to steal some beer from a truck parked there. Armstrong waived grand jury hearing and pleaded guilty to the charge. Judge Duncan ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Check Cases Occupy Court; 2 Sentenced

Circuit Judge George Duncan had a busy day Monday with cases involving obtaining money by false pretenses. In one instance Duncan sentenced a man to two years in the state prison, in another six months in the county jail, and a third man's sentencing was delayed pending a pre-sentence investigation. Pete Benjamin Korns, 31, Twin Falls, received the two-year prison sentence. Korns has had several previous arrests on misdemeanor charges, sheriff's deputies said. He was arrested on obtaining money charge May 2. John Matthew Falconer, 28, 1690 N. Capital St., was sentenced to 6 months in the county jail upon his release from the state hospital where he has been since being court committed last January. Judge Duncan ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Marvin Lee Lehner, 21, 2165 S. Cottage St., after he pleaded guilty Tuesday to the charge. Lehner admitted writing a worthless $25 check. He was arrested May 23.

Physical Fitness Meet Bids Sirnio

George J. Sirnio, director of health and physical education, State Department of Education, has received an invitation to take part in the President's Conference on Fitness of American Youth to be held in Annapolis, Md., June 18-19. Rex Putnam, superintendent of Public Instruction, announced Monday.

Sirnio was recently elected president of the national Society of State Directors of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. He will leave by plane on June 17.

Quisenberry Buys 2 Lots

Purchase of two adjoining lots on the southwest corner of Liberty and Division streets was confirmed Monday by Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, following the filing of a deed to the property with Marion County Recorder's office. The land was bought from J. W. Elma Weller for about $57,000, according to the tax stamps affixed to the deed. Quisenberry intimated that he may build on the property, but he insisted he had "no comment to make for publication in the newspapers."

Mrs. Alison Dies; Funeral On Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Vergie Allona Alison, 2485 Mountain View Dr., who died Sunday at the age of 72, will be 2 p.m. Wednesday in Clough-Barrick chapel, the Rev. Robert McIlvanna officiating. They were married in Oklahoma in 1908. After her husband's death, Mrs. Alison moved to Ontario and in 1920 returned to Salem. She was a member of Morning-side Methodist Church. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Vergie Oletha Burton, Newport, and Mrs. Mildred Allona Calaba, Salem; son, Samuel Bryant Alison, and two sisters, Mrs. M. L. Waring and Mrs. Effie Luehrs, all of Salem; two brothers, Elmer Orcutt, Salem, and William C. Orcutt, Molalla; and nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Roses Bloom On Schedule For Showing

By LILLIE L. MADSEN Garden Editor, The Statesman The Willamette Valley just doesn't let you down too much, says George Candeaux, president of the Salem Rose Society, which is completing plans for its annual Rose Show. "Some weeks ago it just looked like there wouldn't be any roses at all this spring. Then it looked like we might have would be very late. We put off our rose show another week. Now it looks like we'll have beautiful flowers for the event—and sometime before," Candeaux said, Monday. Plans are practically completed for the show which will be held June 23-24 in the Meier & Frank store auditorium. The Salem Rose Society is sponsoring the event and taking care of all arrangements of the show. However, according to Candeaux, the show is open for showing to all rose growers regardless of membership in the Rose Society. No one is barred.

Hours of Show Told Entries must be in place by 11 a.m. on opening day of the show as judging starts then. Doors will open to the public 2 p.m. and remain open until 9 p.m. that night. On Saturday, the show will be open from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and members of the society will be present to visit with the show goers. There will be blue, red and white ribbons for the top entries in each of the more than 60 classes in the show and valuable merchandise prizes, donated by Salem business houses for the "Queen of the Show" and runner-up as well as the best exhibits in each division. A. R. Brown is chairman of the show, with Don Smith serving as co-chairman. Committee members handling details of the show are: Staging, Ben Dawson, A. D. Brown, W. G. Krueger, Ollie Schendel, H. W.
