Paratrooper Wings Won In Germany

Bad Tolz, Germany—Major Charles J. Benge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Benge, 910 Jefferson St., Dallas, Ore., received his paratrooper wings after completing a three-week course in Germany recently. Major Benge, commander of the 2nd Battalion's headquarters of the 4th Infantry Division's 12th Regiment, entered the Army in 1940.

Fort Riley, Kan.—Two Mid-Valley men recently participated in an annual field training test with the 1st Infantry Division's 18th Regiment at Fort Riley, Kan.

They are Lawrence H. Hansen, son of Otto B. Hansen, Route 2, Aurora, Ore., and David G. Standley, son of Don Standley, 40 Pine St., Lebanon, Ore. Both are Army Specialists Third Class.

Hansen, a gunner, entered the Army in August, 1954, after graduating from Canby Union High School in 1953. Standley, also a gunner, entered the service November, 1953. He attended Willamette University.

Fl. Still, Okla.—A Dallas, Ore., man won first place in the 77th Field Artillery Group's recent Civilian Vehicle Race at Ft. Still.

The top honor went to 24-year-old Pvt. Loren D. Lange, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lange, Dallas, Ore.

Lange attended Los Angeles City College before entering the Army in October. He is a cannoneer in Battery C of the 55th Field Artillery Battalion. His wife, Mrs. Doris Lange, lives in Lawton, Okla.

Norfolk, Va.—Wilbur L. Brockway of 380 Tryon Ave., Salem, Ore., was at the Naval Receiving Station in Norfolk to await transfer to the U.S.S. Currituck. Teleman First Class Brockway is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Brockway and husband of Mrs. Roberta G. Brockway, all of 380 Tryon Ave., Salem, Ore.

San Diego, Calif.—William R. Stout, fireman apprentice, U.S.N., of 4296 Monroe Ave., Salem, Ore., is currently attending the naval electronics mate school at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. The course covers the repair, maintenance and operation of modern naval electrical equipment.

Naha, Okinawa—Marine Cpl. James E. Friese, son of Mrs. Mildred Friese of 1335 N. 23rd St., Salem, Ore., and husband of the former Miss Jean A. Luke, 110 Chase Ave., participated with more than 1,000 members of the 3rd Marine Division's Artillery Regiment in a public parade on the Island of Okinawa as part of Armed Forces Day observances.

Germany—Specialist Third Class Roland E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Anderson, 449 S. Front St., Woodburn, Ore., recently participated in battalion field tests with units of the 9th Infantry Division in Germany.

Anderson, a graduate of Woodburn High School, is a driver with the 47th Infantry Regiment. He entered the Army in October, 1954.

JAPAN TO STUDY ATOM

TOKYO — Japan's atomic energy commission has decided tentatively to build a $4,761,111 national isotope center within three years near Tokyo. The center would study ways to use radioactive rays.
