

Stalin Tank Arrives in Egypt

Heavy Weapon CAIRO, Egypt—This picture received from Cairo by radio Monday, is the first closeup of one of the tanks acquired by Egypt under the arms deal with Czechoslovakia. It is a Russian-made Stalin tank. (AP Wirephoto).

Grounded DECATUR, Ill.—Worms were on the menu for breakfast and this baby robin made the most of it. Bird was found in back yard of the William Munch home here. Their daughter, Mary, 8, has been feeding the young one since and it's doing very well. (AP Wirephoto).

Hug for Papa-San SEATTLE — Kiyoko Hatt, who doesn't understand English but knows her new name, will be Esther Elizabeth Clinton, had a big hug Monday for her new father, Joseph Clinton, of Bellingham, Mass. Clinton, who has three sons, arranged the adoption of the 4-year-old Japanese orphan girl white stationed in the Orient last year. (AP Wirephoto).

School Days YAKIMA, Wash.—School days were happily recalled by Col. A. W. Johnson of Los Angeles who slid down the bannister of Yakima High School, something he'd always wanted to do, when he returned for the 44th reunion of the class of 1912. (AP Wirephoto).

Adenauer Honored NEW HAVEN, Conn.—German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer (left) acclaimed by Yale president A. Whitney Griswold as a man who has revived Germany's "productive genius" received honorary law doctorate. (AP Wirephoto).

Rain Moves East NEW YORK—Rain is forecast Tuesday in the Lakes region, central Mississippi Valley, central Plains, in the deep South from the Atlantic to Arizona and in the Cascades. It will be warmer in the Northeast and cooler in the northern Plains (AP Wirephoto Map).
