

Medford Mother at Son's Side

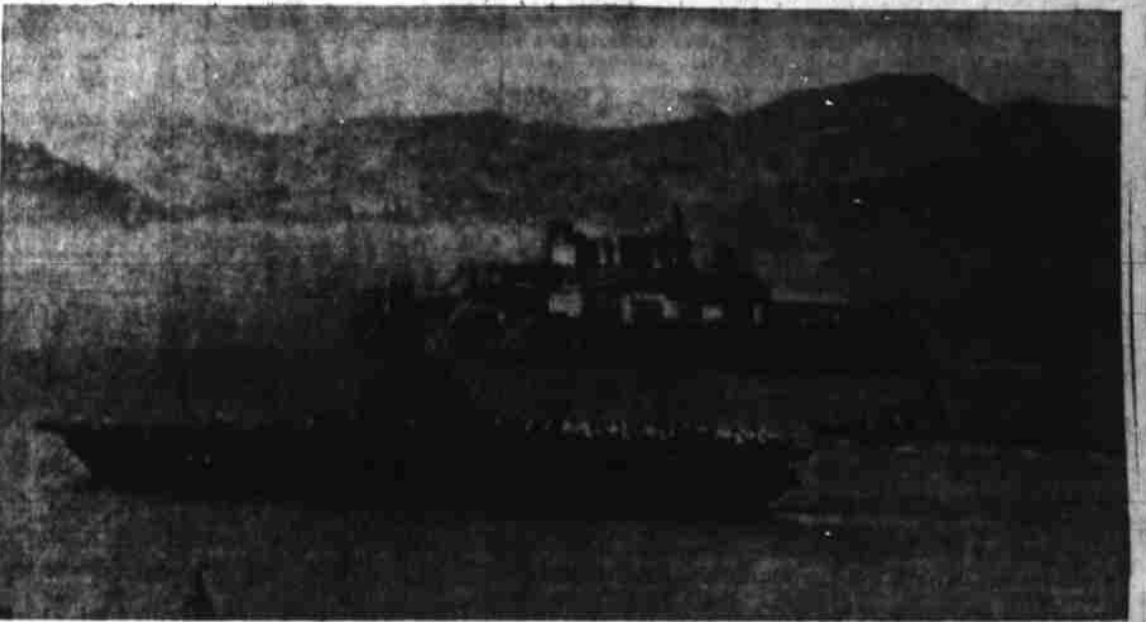

Marilyn's Next? NEW YORK—Playwright Arthur Miller, whose name has been linked romantically with screen star Marilyn Monroe, prepares to leave Idlewild airport by car after arrival from Reno, Nevada, where he received a divorce from his wife of 15 years Monday. Miller declined to say whether he will wed Miss Monroe, who is in the New York area preparing for a trip to London. (AP Wirephoto).

Injured Scout MEDFORD—Bruce Blachly, 13, Boy Scout injured in fall from cliff on hiking trip west of here, is ministered to by his mother and Dr. Thomas C. Bolton after boy was flown to hospital here. (AP Wirephoto).

Near 100 LOUISVILLE—Mrs. Nancy Arthusia Robey is more impressed by the fact her 100th birthday will be on July 4 than by her longevity. "They'll wave the flag," she said. (AP Wirephoto).

Liberty Ends SAN FRANCISCO—The U. S. Navy aircraft carrier Boxer and the destroyer Mackenzie, elements of the Navy's First Fleet that interrupted Pacific maneuvers for week end liberty in the Bay area, steam past Alcatraz, the federal penitentiary in San Francisco Bay Monday enroute to the Pacific to resume the maneuvers. The Boxer and Mackenzie were among the fleet's 31 vessels which spent two days in the area. (AP Wirephoto).

Oregon Bound LOS ANGELES — Dr. Robert Pierce, founder and president of World Vision, Inc., holds Lee Bong Soo, 2, in his arms at Los Angeles International airport upon his arrival Tuesday from Tokyo with 17 Korean-American orphans to be adopted by American families. Lee will be adopted by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Holmes of Junction City, Ore., who will change his name to Larry Lester Holmes. World Vision, Inc., with headquarters in Portland, Ore., arranged for the mass adoption of the children. (AP Wirephoto).

Joins Family LOS ANGELES — Cowboy star Ray Rogers and his actress wife, Dale Evans, welcome the newest member of their family, Lee in Ae, 3½, a Korean-American orphan who arrived here Tuesday with 16 other children for adoption by American families. On hand to meet little Lee were four of the Rogers' other six children. Left to right: Lynda, Miss Evans, Lee, Rogers, Cheryl, Marion, and Dedie (foreground, back to camera). The mass adoptions were sponsored by World Vision, Inc., of Portland, Ore. (AP Wirephoto).

Rain Along Gulf NEW YORK—Showers are expected Wednesday in the Great Lakes area, upper Mississippi valley, central and southern Plains and southern Rockies; thundershowers in parts of southeast, Gulf coast area and state of Washington. It will be warm over eastern third of country and cooler in upper Mississippi valley. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Locked Up MINNEAPOLIS—Elizabeth Lockhart, cleaning woman in the suburban Southport State Bank, was locked in a back room by a masked gunman who escaped with about $65,000 Tuesday. She is shown here telling her story to investigators. (AP Wirephoto).

