Here we follow up on more recipes from the cookbook, Around the World in Eight Dishes, written and illustrated by Lesley Branch for "Young America". It's a book which has good reading for young cooks as well as useable recipes for adults.

There are a number of recipes from Scandinavia, but this one from Finland attracted us.

Kalastilokko (Finland)

4 Pork chops	2 eggs
2 fresh herring	2 cups milk
4 medium potatoes	1 tablespoon flour
4 onions	Salt and pepper

Butter

Split herrings and remove backbone. Cut off heads and tails. Peel and slice potatoes and onions rather thin. Place a layer of potatoes and one of onions in the bottom of a buttered casserole. Add 2 pork chops and 2 half herrings on these. Add rest of ingredients in layers, with onion and potato on top. Dot with butter and bake at 350 degrees for about an hour. Then beat eggs with milk and flour and seasonings and pour over the mixture in casserole. Bake another 1/2 hour at 350 degrees.

Another pig dish comes from Spain, this time it is a heavenly dessert — and no pork:

Little Pigs of Heaven (From Spain)

1/2 cup sugar	2 small bars chocolate
1 cup warm water	1 cup boiling water
6 egg yolks	1 teaspoon vanilla

Boil sugar and warm water fast until a thick syrup is produced, and when a spoon is dipped in, a long thread results. Remove from fire and set aside to cool. Beat yolks of eggs and when syrup cools, add eggs slowly to it, stirring constantly. (Do not use hot syrup.) Put this mixture into custard cups, put in sauceman of water halfway up sides of cups. Cook until dessert is firm, allow to cool. Turn out of dishes by running a warmed knife around sides. Serve with the chocolate sauce made by dissolving sweet chocolate in the boiling water and adding vanilla. Regular candy bars with nuts might be used.

A Portuguese fisherman's favorite is this:

Fisherman's Lemons (From Portugal)

4 big lemons	1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 cup cooked chicken	1 hard-cooked egg
2 tablespoons mayonnaise	Radicchio or radishes

Cut lemons in half, squeeze out juice and remove pulp. Combine fish, mayonnaise and lemon juice, fill lemon cups with this and sprinkle hard-cooked egg on top. Garnish with radishes or radicchio. To serve, cut a little off each lemon so it will stand upright. Serve several halves per person.

This chicken dish comes from Saudi-Arabia:

Foudja Djedid (Saudi-Arabia)

4 large cooking apples	12 cloves
1/2 cup cooked chicken	Ginger
Salt and pepper	Pinch of cinnamon
1/2 cup breadcrumbs	Brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter	Butter

Core apples, scoop out some of the apple so a large hole is left in the middle. Chop chicken, add crumbs and seasonings. Fill apples with mixture, topping with some dabs of butter and brown sugar. Put into a baking dish with boiling water. Bake at 350 degrees for about half hour until apples are done. Be careful that they don't burst during last part of cooking. Serves 4.
