News of Special Church Activities in Salem and the Valley

Churches Continue Summer Emphasis On Youth Schools

Churches in Salem and throughout the Willamette Valley are this week continuing their emphasis on youth training in many Vacation Bible Schools and related teaching programs.

A new development in this field has been a "Christian Night Club" program adopted by Salem's First Baptist Church for junior high and senior high youth. About 35 already have enrolled in the nightly program.

The "night club" subjects include Bible, music appreciation, memory and missions. The Junior High members have special handicraft work.

Working on the evening staff are: Mrs. Chester Hedberg, Miss Alice Humphreys, David Bosell, the Rev. Ben Owen, Norman Mann, Douglas Coe and the Rev. Stan Irvine.

The Day Vacation Bible School, under the directorship of Mrs. Garland Read, has reported a total enrollment of 275 in ages from 5 through 11. The school will continue through the coming week.

Episcopalians Start Daily Vacation Bible School will start at 9:15 a.m. Monday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church and will continue two weeks. Hours are 9:15 to 11:30 a.m.

Department chairmen for the teaching staff are Mrs. Charles Hefty, pre-school; Mrs. A. E. Rean, primary; Mrs. Lauren Gale, junior Mrs. W. G. Burrows will be nurse.

Court Street Date Set Court Street Christian Church has announced it will conduct a Daily Vacation Bible School July 23 through Aug. 3, with Opal Zell as general superintendent.

Staff leaders will include Violet Moore, junior department; Marjorie Goodman, primary; Edith Bates, beginners.

School at St. Mark's St. Mark's Lutheran Bible School will open its doors Monday morning at 9 o'clock. All sessions will be conducted in the church and Sunday school departments, under the direction of Mrs. Arnold Olson.

General theme of the entire two weeks of study is "God's Children Pray." A staff of nearly 50 teachers and helpers has

Father's Day Chief Topic At Silverton

SILVERTON — Father's Day will take the top spot in a number of Silverton church programs Sunday.

At Immanuel Lutheran church, Sunday school classes will pause for the day, with a special Father's Day program planned. There will be special music and other numbers. Fathers of the Sunday school children are especially invited.

Two brothers, both seminary students, will speak at two Silverton churches.

At Immanuel Lutheran, Ray Lester will give the morning sermon and at Trinity church, Robert Lester will conduct the service. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lester, Silverton, and are attending Luther Theological Seminary at St. Paul, Minn.

'Providence Day' Sunday at Historic Church Near Scio

SCIO—Providence Day will be observed Sunday, with Palmer Brown, librarian of Multnomah School of the Bible in Portland, speaking at both morning and afternoon sessions. He formerly worked in connection with BOLA in California.

Services will be at the little rural Providence church founded by Joab Powell eight miles southeast of Scio.

On this one Sunday of the year at Providence, Sunday school is held at 10 a.m. and the church service to 11. At the close of the morning service a covered dish dinner will be held, with the Sunday School providing free coffee and punch.

The afternoon service will open with congregational singing at 2 o'clock. Besides Reverend Brown's message and music by a quartet from the First Baptist Church in Albany there will be some time given for reminiscences of the more than 100 years that Providence has served this community.

United Lutheran Rally on Sunday At Camp Colton

Lutherans of United Lutheran Churches from Oregon and Southern Washington will converge on Camp Colton, the Lutheran Summer Bible Camp near Colton, Sunday afternoon for an all-Lutheran rally preceding the formal opening of the Bible camp for the summer season.

A special program has been prepared by the young people who have attended Camp Colton in the past. Salem churches taking part in the camp rally include St. Mark's Lutheran, Faith Lutheran and Good Shepherd Lutheran.

Families of the churches are invited to visit the camp and share in a picnic supper served by the Lutheran Brotherhood, Virgil Mason, Salem, in charge of serving arrangements.

Rev. Durden Guest Speaker

Ceremonies Sunday for New Church

The Congregation of Trinity Methodist Church at Four Corners will participate in ground-breaking ceremonies Sunday immediately following the 8:30 worship service.

The two-story building to be constructed this summer will extend directly behind the present building and is to be 90 by 40 feet. It will serve as additional educational space and will provide rooms for scouts, a multi-purpose room, church school office, and will increase the size of the present kitchen.

Dr. George G. Roseberry, superintendent of the Salem district of the Methodist Church, will turn the first shovel of dirt. Leonard Judson, chairman of the building committee, and I. H. White, past chairman, will assist in the service.

The Rev. Joe Andrew Harding, pastor, said construction would begin Tuesday with E. C. Bailey, a member of the congregation, as foreman. Lyle Bartholomew, architect, designed the building.

QUARTET SCHEDULED The Peace in the Valley Quartet of Hubbard will sing at Immanuel Baptist Church in Salem Sunday evening at 8:30 and 7:30, the Rev. Ralph H. S. Wolverson, pastor, has announced.
