Solons Bag 6-0, 7-5 Wins Over Spokane; Third Mix Set Tonight

By AL LIGHTNEF Statesman Sports Editor

The town Senators got both wins in their Northwest League doubleheader with the Spokane Indians last night at Waters Field, and came within a whisker of blanking the Tribe in both tussles. The scores were 6-0, as Big Bill Walsh flipped a five-hitter in the 7-inning opener, and 7.5. as Andy (The Bear) George did a tremendous job for 81/2 innings only to see his defenses go to pot, helping five enemy runs cross the plate in the final inning.

Up until the weird outbreak, which became so when the Senators made three glaring errors, the

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Until Tuesday night, the Brooklyn Dodgers were the only team in the majors which had avoided a shutout this season.

But 39-year-old Murry Dickson, the most aged starting pitcher in the majors, snapped that claim by tossing a nifty 3-hitter against the Brooks for the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-0.

Dickson also was the last pitcher to shut out the Dodgers in Ebbets Field. He did it Aug. 22, 1954 and the score then was the same, 6-0
