

63-Year-Old Cuts Aerial Caper

Back to Earth WINDSOR, Ont.—Shoeless and escorted by two policemen, Norman (Yerky) Hawarth, 63, is led off to jail after spending an hour swinging and cutting capers 400 feet up the 650-foot CKLW television tower. When he was finished with his capers, he returned to earth unaided and uninjured. He gave no reason for his ascent. (AP Wirephoto).

Testifies WASHINGTON—Robert B. MacLeish, who quit abruptly late Tuesday as head of the agriculture department's Farmers Home Administration, blows out a cloud of cigarette smoke as he testifies Wednesday before the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee. (AP Wirephoto).

Quad Calfs ATHENS, Ga.—These quadruplet calves, born to a mixed breed cow on the nearby farm of J. M. Dixon, are just about as exclusive as anything you'll ever see among cattle. Dr. W. F. McLendon, professor at the University of Georgia Veterinary School, says quadruplet birth occurs once in about 14 million times among cattle. Sight-seers from Athens inspect the newcomers. Tells WASHINGTON—Mrs. Kathryn Carter of Bozeman, Mont., former employe of the Farmers Home Agency in Montana, tells the Senate Civil Service committee hearing in Washington Monday that Robert B. MacLeish, administrator of the farm agency, became "highly inebriated" at a Montana state meeting. (AP Wirephoto).

Egypt Parades Tanks CAIRO, Egypt—A Communist-produced tank, one of a parade of military vehicles received from Red sources, rolls by Cairo viewers during Wednesday's four-hour procession of Egyptian military strength. The parade, reviewed by Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and his guests, including visiting Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov, climaxed the three-day celebration of the final withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal zone. To Split $319,444 SPOKANE—Mrs. Lucille Boyd Gallegos, 30, and her 17-year-old orphan brother, Richard Boyd, will each get $159,722 for mineral rights on land they own on Spokane Indian Reservation north of here. Dawn Mining Co. was high bidder on land near Midnite Uranium Mine in northeastern Washington. (AP Wirephoto).

Thunder in Rockies Some thunderstorms are expected for Wednesday night from the northern Rockies to the Tennessee Valley as a warm front pushes up from the Gulf to meet colder northern air. Temperatures are expected to rise in the northeast and northwest, with colder readings in Montana and little change elsewhere. (AP Wirephoto).

Booked NEW YORK—William J. Cleary, left, 21, and Robert D. Burns, 21, both of Waltham, Mass., look anything but happy as they are booked on kidnapping charges, accused of abducting and robbing a banker's son in Cambridge, Mass., and driving him to New York. (AP Wirephoto).
