Miss Thelma Killinger A Bride

Of interest to the bride's many friends in Salem and Turner is announcement of the marriage of Miss Thelma Jean Killinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Killinger of Milwaukie, formerly of Turner, and Ensign Edward Roethe, US Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roethe of Milwaukie.

The ceremony took place on June 17 at St. Stephens Lutheran Church in Milwaukie with the Rev. Mr. Baseler officiating at the 4 o'clock rites. The church choir sang. Lighting the candles were Donnie Killinger and Johnny Roethe, brothers of the couple.

The bride wore a dress of lace and tulle over satin, the bodice styled with boat neckline edged with pearls and sequins, and insets of Chantilly lace on the skirt, which ended in a train. The veil cascaded from a seed pearl headpiece. She carried white orchids and red roses.

Mrs. Cecil H. Johnson of Salem was honor attendant. She wore a pink crystalette dress with matching headpiece and her flowers were red roses. Miss Mary Carrihers, Miss Evangeline Bierwigen, Miss Carolyn Roethe, and Miss Elsa Christensen were bridesmaids. They wore waltz frocks of blue crystalette with matching headpieces and carried bouquets of deep red roses.

Connie Jane Johnson of Salem was flower girl for her aunt and the twin niece and nephew of the bride, Janice and James Sidwell, Turner, were the ringbearers.

Bob Schneibly of Milwaukie was best man. Ushers were Elmer Keller, Gerald Buhler, Lee Wallace and Tom Gutzler.

The reception was in the church parlors. Mrs. Loyd Sidwell of Turner cut the cake. Mrs. Ralph Killinger of Aumsville and Mrs. Melvin Haynes of Stayton poured.

The couple will live in San Francisco, where Ensign Roethe is stationed.
