Canned Ham Party Time Specialty

June is a party month. Weddings, graduations and other festivities require special luncheons and dinners. The entertaining hostess, whether she's an experienced or novice cook, welcomes an easy way to entertain graciously.

An excellent and easy-to-prepare choice for the meat on which to plan the menu is a flavorful canned ham. They are available in sizes to suit practically any occasion. The large whole hams vary in size from 6½ to 13 pounds. Smaller partial hams require refrigeration. The 1½ pound ham does not need to be refrigerated and can be stored on the shelf. It is especially convenient for a couple or one living alone.

Because hams do vary greatly in flavor and texture, the wise shopper buys a well-known brand of canned ham which is her assurance of a top quality, firm-textured ham, mildly cured for flavor perfection. Canned hams are an economical buy, too. Since the meat processor has done all of the hard work. The excess fat, skin and bone have all been removed and the hams are fully cooked and cured. Because canned hams are all meat as purchased, you may allow 4 to 6 servings per pound.

Canned hams are equally delicious served hot or cold. Just slice and serve "as is", or for hot ham, heat and then slice, or slice and then heat. For elegant service slice the ham, then heat it in a fruit sauce. Fruit flavors team perfectly with ham, and good fruit and ham combinations include pineapple, peaches, apples and oranges.

Hot Pineapple Clove Sauce on Ham Slices
 3 pounds canned ham
 3 teaspoons prepared mustard
 1 teaspoon cornstarch
 ½ teaspoon ground cloves
 ¼ cup brown sugar, packed
 ¼ cup vinegar
 2½ cups (1 pound 4 ounce can) crushed pineapple
 Cut ham into ¼ inch slices. Place a single layer of ham slices in a shallow pan. Overlap slices only enough to fit into pan. In a saucepan combine mustard, cornstarch, cloves and brown sugar. Stir until smooth. Stir in vinegar and crushed pineapple. Stir and cook until sauce thickens. Pour sauce over slices of ham. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees), for about 20 minutes or until ham is hot. Makes about 30 servings.

Canned Ham
 5 pound canned ham
 1 glass peach jam
 ¼ cup shredded salted almonds
 ¼ cup brown sugar
 Remove ham from can. Scrape off jellied broth. Cut ham into ¼ inch slices. Tie slices together loosely and place in a baking pan. Spread with peach jam. Sprinkle almonds over top, then sprinkle brown sugar over all. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 1½ to 2 hours. If necessary, cover with foil to prevent over-browning. To serve, place ham on platter. Cut string. Makes about 30 servings.

COLORFUL
 Add finely diced green pepper and canned pimiento to corn muffins. Serve with fried chicken.

Lamb Chops in Casserole Dish

Thick lamb chops fixed this way are company food.
BRAISED LAMB CHOPS
 4 lbs. lamb chops, 2" thick
 Bacon strips for larding
 Salt, pepper, flour
 2 tablespoons butter
 1 tablespoon flour
 Bouillon or water
 1 cup cooked mushrooms
 4 truffles, finely chopped
 Flatten chops, lard them with the bacon strips, wrapping them around chops and fastening with toothpicks. Dredge chops with salt, pepper and flour. Sauté them quickly in hot butter. Lift them to a tray. Add the 1 tablespoon flour to butter in pan, blend well, slowly add the bouillon and little salt, to make a sauce. Place chops and sauce in casserole, cover and cook slowly until almost tender. About 15 minutes before meat is done, skim fat from sauce, add mushrooms and truffles (optional). Serve chops and sauce on same platter. Instead of mushrooms and truffles, canned tomatoes may be used and sauce strained. Serves 6.
