

Miss Margaret Miller, Bride Of William Drips at Church Nuptials, Reception Follows

By JEROME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor
At a beautiful all white wedding Saturday night at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Miss Margaret LaVern Miller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vern Wayne Miller, became the bride of William E. Drips, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Drips of Welches. The Rev. George H. Swift performed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

Mrs. Bruce Spaulding of Portland was the vocalist and Mrs. James Todd the organist. Bouquets of white peonies and delphinium were arranged at either side of the chancel rail with white bouquets on the altar. Larry McCargar and Tom Dunham were the acolytes.

The attractive, brunette bride selected a lovely gown of white embroidered tulle over panels of accordion pleated tulle for her wedding. The bouffant skirt extended into a chapel train and the bodice was designed with short sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. A Juliet cap of matching embroidered tulle held in place her finger-ring illusion veil. She carried a cascade of stephanotis centered with a white orchid and wore short, white gloves.

The bride attendants
Five pretty attendants preceded the bride to the altar including her four sisters. Miss Joan Marie Miller was the maid of honor, the Misses Julie Miller, Nancy Miller and Robin McAllister of Portland, the bridesmaids, and Miss Marilyn Miller, the junior attendant. They all wore identical waltz gowns of white tulle with large boat shaped necklines, short sleeves and white sashes with large bows. Their hats matched their dresses and they carried baskets of white Esther Reed daisies with garnet roses for a touch of color.

Alex Byler stood with Mr. Drips as best man and seating the several hundred guests were Don Morrison, John Misko, Miles Edwards, Edward Murphy, Richard Reinhart and Dwight Quisenberry, the bride's cousin.

Mrs. Miller selected a broadcath sheath gown of starlight blue with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Drips chose a wedgewood lace gown with pink-rosebud corsage for her son's nuptials.

Reception at Miller Home
The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception at the Fairmount Hill home of the bride's parents. Pouring were Mesdames C. M. Miller of Eugene, the bride's grandmother, Herbert L. Stiff, William E. Welch of Welches and A. T. Morgan of Santa Cruz, Calif.

Cutting the cake were Miss Marie Breitenstein, Mesdames P. D. Quisenberry, Robert Wilmsen and Ray Miller of Eugene. Greeting guests at the door were Mrs. Urlin S. Page and Mrs. Owen G. Miller. Hosts were Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Power and Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren. Assisting were Mesdames William E. Deeny, Miles Edwards, Edward Murphy, Robert Wilson, Misses Norma Hamilton, Carolyn Parker, Marsha Lolland, Sylvia Ozols, Ann Blatchford, Ethel Reeves, Barbara Peterson, Patricia and Kathleen Deeny.

For traveling the new Mrs. Drips changed to a blue linen sheath ensemble with blue and white tweed coat and white accessories. After July 10 the couple will be at home on Marquam Hill, Portland, where Mr. Drips is attending the University of Oregon Medical School.

Newlyweds Leave For Honolulu

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Walter Franklin Buck are flying to the Hawaiian Islands on their honeymoon. The bride, the former Shirley Helen Brown, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Brown of Aurora and Mr. Buck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Olson of Newberg.

The couple's marriage took place Saturday morning at St. Luke's Catholic Church in Woodburn with the Rev. John Larkin officiating at the 9:30 o'clock nuptial mass. Vocalists were Wayne Meusey and Mrs. Ernest Krefl.

Imported French chantilly lace and nylon tulle was the bridal gown, fashioned with re-embroidered lace at the scoop neckline and as the skirt, which extended into a deep tulle flounce and chapel train. The lace was sprinkled with pearls and sequins. A crown of tulle lilies centered with brilliant lilies held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a crescent bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a diamond studded cross, a gift of the bridegroom.

Seven attendants walked before the bride all wearing powder blue crystalline ballerina dresses with scoop necklines and bustle bows. They wore blue flowered mother-of-pearl headbands and carried bouquets of blue Marguerite daisies.

Attendants Wear Blue
Mrs. Wayne Trachsel was her sister's honor matron and the Misses Georgianne Pavlicek, Carol Kuensting, Shirley Berhorst, Mrs. Gene Smith, Mrs. Tony Wisniewski and Mrs. Lindy Phillips were the bridesmaids. Jenny Phillips was the flower girl and Eddie Magg the ring bearer.

Gene Smith served as best man for Mr. Buck and ushers were Tom Brown, Wayne Trachsel, Tony Wisniewski, Garth Edner, Walter Spavog, Lindy Phillips, Roy Buck, Don Eppers, Fred Herring and Don Brunner.

Mrs. Brown wore a smoke blue lace gown over rose taffeta and Mrs. Olson chose a taupe rose gown with lace bodice and bud jacket. Their corsages were white orchids.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Marion Hotel in Salem at noon and a reception followed in the afternoon at the country home of the bride's parents near Aurora.

For her honeymoon the new Mrs. Buck changed to a slate blue taw silk suit with white accessories. After July 15 the couple will be at home on Route 1, Woodburn.

Horace Beldin Takes Bride In East

From New York comes details of the marriage of a Salem man, Horace Otis Beldin, who took as his bride, Miss Eugenia Cerilli of East Syracuse, on Saturday morning. The ceremony took place at St. Matthew's Church in East Syracuse with the Rev. Father Costello officiating at the 10 o'clock rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cerilli of East Syracuse and Mr. Beldin is the son of Mrs. J. P. Smart of Salem, who flew East for the nuptials.

For her wedding the bride selected a floor length gown of Alencon lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. The basque waist was made with a scalloped portrait neckline and cap sleeves. The French apron style bouffant skirt was edged with a pleated nylon duster ruffle. Her French illusion veil was caught to a seed pearl and Alencon lace scalloped crown. She carried a cascade of glamelias and stephanotis.

Bride's Only Attendant
Mrs. Frank Lawton was the bride's only attendant and she wore a floor length gown of mint green nylon tulle over taffeta and carried a cascade of glamelias.

Frank Lawton stood with Mr. Beldin as best man and ushers were Alex Cerilli, the bride's brother, and William Spinelli.

Mrs. Cerilli chose an afternoon gown of grey lace over pink taffeta for her daughter's nuptials and Mrs. Smart wore a rose-pink silk taffeta gown for her son's marriage. Their corsages were lily-of-the-valley and white orchids.

A wedding breakfast was held at Enrico's in Syracuse following the ceremony.

Following a honeymoon trip to New England the newlyweds will be at home in Syracuse. During July the couple will be in Chautauque, N. Y., where Mr. Beldin will be assistant instructor in improvement of learning at the Chautauque Center of Syracuse University. In the fall he will resume his position as assistant instructor in the education department at Syracuse University, where he is studying for his doctorate.
