

President Signs $33 Billion Road Construction Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, described as highly pleased, signed the $33 billion highway construction bill Friday.

It is estimated that when the program gets fully under way, up to 600,000 persons will be worked on the roads during summer-time peak periods, with hundreds of thousands of others laboring to contribute materials and equipment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Funds appropriated for Oregon in the $33 billion highway fund for the first year include $1,862,208 for primary, secondary and urban highways and $13,575,755 for the interstate system.

Hay, Truck Burn at Lyons

LYONS—Three tons of hay and the truck in which it was being hauled were consumed by fire Friday afternoon a short distance southwest of Lyons on the Jordan Road.

Hay, Truck Burn at Lyons

The hay was owned by James Tombs of Lyons. The truck in which the newly purchased hay was being hauled from Jefferson was owned and driven by Glen Rogers Jr. of Stayton. Both hay and truck were a total loss, Lyons firemen said.

Entered Pen on Stretcher, Leaves Walking

Otto Cahill (right) left prison walls behind him with only one backward glance after spending two weeks of a year sentence behind them. The former Lincoln County Justice of peace who was convicted of converting $750 of public funds to his own use was freed of $10,000 bond pending an appeal of his case to the U.S. Supreme Court. With him was his attorney R. Richard Anderson of Newport. (Statesman photo)
