

75 Enlisted In Services During June

The U.S. Air Force in Salem led the city's three other recruiting offices with 36 enlistments during June, only three less than the combined enlistments in the other armed forces branches.

Second place during June went to the Navy with 21 enlistments, followed by the Marines with 12 and the Army with 6.

Thirty of the 36 men who joined the Air Force entered without previous military experience. They are: David A. Baker, Ronald J. DeHut, William E. Hilliker, Robert L. Lord, Donald W. Pigsley, William H. O. Roberts, Carl D. Watkins, David J. Wilson and Gaylord L. Wood, all of Salem; Frederick P. Brown, Turner, and Lanny L. Fredricks, Stayton.

Monmouth Men Sign
Robert S. Agard, Kenneth W. Bastion and DeWayne M. Bremer, all of Independence; Charles E. Jacobsen, Monmouth; Larry L. Westling and Gordon A. Zastoupil, both of Silverton; Alvert L. Meissner, Mt. Angel; Larry E. Harr, Fred G. Hultgren and David A. Nelson, all of Newberg.

Clifford E. Engle and Kenneth C. Hadley, Jr., both of McMinnville; Raymond E. Lee, Dundee; William B. McNary and Reed L. Vincent, both of Hubbard; Eldred O. Trout, Jr., Woodburn; Garry D. Oliver, Cascade; Carl M. Schmele, Lebanon; and Glenn E. Wright, Albany. Donovan C. Croxton and David R. Sharratt, both of Salem, and George K. McGreer of Monmouth, entered as aviation cadets, while James E. Roth, Salem; Gene E. Stanton, Logsdon, and Lyle G. Noah, Albany, joined the Air Force with previous military experience.

Wave Among Recruits
One of the Navy's 21 recruits is a "WAVE," Darden J. Woodruff of Williams. All other naval enlistments were men: Curtis M. Martin, and Henry E. Abderhalden, both of Newberg; Dennis M. McCord, Carlton; Daniel M. Hackett and Lawrence A. Remillard, both of Mt. Angel.

Donald W. Hall, Woodburn; Lawrence A. Chitwood, Independence; Mac C. Joines, Valselt; Daniel I. Gescher, Aumsville; Leroy E. Welter, Stayton; Everett L. Hamilton, Sheridan; Derle H. Olson, Oceanlake; Wayne A. Hunter, DePoe Bay; and James I. Poole, Mill City.

Salem men who joined the Navy include John I. Harzer, James O. Blakeley, Glenn S. Plau, Gene W. Andal and John A. Keseley.

Join Marine Corps
The following Salem area enlistments were recorded by the Marine Corps: Richard Jesse Tate, Robert Logan Brenis and Robert Lee Foster, all of Independence; Gary Brock Gogle, Richard Dale Grim, and Gail Michael Etzel, all of Salem; Jon Francis Roscoe and Paul Weyand, both of McMinnville; James Arthur Naff, Monmouth; Robert Mervin Berry, Lebanon; Philip Edward Myers, Turner; and Kyrion Albert Child, Lyons.

U.S. Army recruits during June included Richard D. Friesen, Dallas, who signed for military police duty, and five others for regular Army enlistments: Brownie Larry Atkinson, Jon Dennis Wilson, Kenneth Leroy Mathews, and Clayton Melvin Chocktoot, all of Woodburn; and Herbert Ivan Klassen, Independence.

Club for Snake Turns Out to Be Snake Too

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Albert Aleman, a Missouri Pacific railroad worker, spotted a coiled copperhead snake in the right of way Monday.

Looking around for a stick with which to slay the reptile he saw a stout one nearby. He picked it up and the "stick" bit him.

It was another copperhead. Aleman was treated and released from nearby community hospital.
