Legion Chief Denies Tale of 'Blacklister'

(Earlier story page 19, sec. 2) WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was told Wednesday that the American Legion set up a system under which Legion posts around the country got an explanation from Hollywood if they accused any film figures of having Communist ties. James F. O'Neil, a former national commander of the legion and publisher of its monthly magazine, outlined the setup at a public hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He did this in disputing earlier testimony by John Cogley, editor of a Fund for the Republic "Report on Blacklisting," that he was a "clearance man" who helped some entertainers who had been blacklisted for suspected Communist associations.

Liquor Threat To Power of Khrushchev

LONDON (AP)—British newspapers said Wednesday Soviet Communist Party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev may be on the verge of drinking himself clear out of the Kremlin. The speculation was prompted by reports that Khrushchev became fuddled with drink and made a speech insulting most of his non-Communist guests at an aviation day dinner in Moscow June 25. Among the guests was Gen. Nathan B. Twining, U. S. Air Force chief of staff.

Survivors include his widow, Marie; three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Mathis, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Dorothy Swanson, Portland; Mrs. Shirley Jahn, Salem; and four sons, Norris, USAF, and Jean, James and Richard, all of Silverton. Funeral arrangements are in care of the Ekman funeral home.

Check Missing From Milk Bottle

A check for $1.92, left to pay the milkman, was taken from a milk bottle, Mrs. Alvin B. Stewart, 233 Culver Lane, was told city police. Mrs. Stewart said she put the check in an envelope and stuck the envelope in the bottle. Tuesday morning the check was missing but the bottle was still there. A check revealed that the milkman hadn't called. Mrs. Stewart notified police and stopped payment on the check.

Ike Signs New Water Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday signed a bill designed to help some water users in reclamation projects who unintentionally acquired too much land. In such projects, a single owner may receive water only for 100 acres. Therefore a bank which acquired additional land by foreclosing a loan or an individual who acquired such land by inheritance, was in danger of having his water cut off immediately. The new law provides for temporary water supply up to five years in such cases to allow time for adjustment.

Welfare Bills Demanded by ADA Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) said Wednesday Congress this year has shown "lack of concern for the general welfare" and called on the Democratic leadership to do something about it. ADA's national executive committee aired its complaints in a letter to Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas and House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.). The organization urged Johnson and Rayburn to keep Congress in session until mid-August if necessary to act on 11 major bills which it termed "essential to the public welfare." Eight of these were cited Tuesday by President Eisenhower as "priority" measures.

Red-faced police released him. (AP Wirephoto.)

Ike Treatment Discussion Leads Solons Far Afield During Interior Aide Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.) said Wednesday Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele has informed him that medical authorities differ on the safety of a blood anti-coagulant used in treating President Eisenhower. Neuberger said he asked Scheele for scientific opinion on the safety of the medicine—dicumarol—without mentioning it has been administered to Eisenhower since his heart attack last September. Scheele's reply, entered by Neuberger in the record of the Senate Interior Committee, cited one medical book published in 1954 which said patients treated with dicumarol "may have minor, major or fatal hemorrhage," even when it is administered by experts.

Point System For License Suspension Hit

OLYMPIA (AP)—A resolution hitting at the state's point system for suspending driver licenses was approved by the convention of the State Federation of Labor after a brief floor fight Wednesday. The resolution, submitted by the State Assn. of Motor Coach Employees, censured the accumulative point system as discriminatory when used to suspend licenses of truck and bus drivers and others who have to drive vehicles to earn a living. Sponsors maintained that a man's driving habits while behind the wheel of his personal car should not be counted against him in his capacity as a commercial driver. They called for legislation to separate a man's commercial driving record from his private driving record.

Man Loses In Fire Fight, Drops Dead

MACKINAW CITY, Mich. (AP)—All alone, Stanley Zuras, 60, fought a fire which swept through his motel Tuesday while firemen waited helplessly a few hundred yards away for a train to pull away from a crossing. When he saw the fire was out of control, Zuras ran outside, keeled over and died of a heart attack. Later, when the Pennsylvania Railroad express train had moved on, firemen drove across the tracks and put out the fire. The interior of the 12-unit frame motel was destroyed. Firemen said an explosion of undetermined origin touched off the blaze.

Marilyn, Mate Face Possible Day in Court

ROXBURY, Conn. (AP)—Playwright Arthur Miller and his actress bride, Marilyn Monroe, have been summoned to appear as witnesses in the Roxbury Justice Court July 23. They are scheduled to fly to England Friday, the 13th, and there has been no announcement of a change in plans. Miss Monroe is going to make a picture in England with Sir Laurence Olivier. Frederick Greenberg, a New Haven lawyer, said he wanted Miller and Miss Monroe to appear as witnesses for a motorist charged with negligent homicide in connection with a fatal automobile accident witnessed by them the day before their marriage.

Purse Thief Gets Passport

A purse-snatcher escaped with a bag containing the passport of a German girl here late Wednesday evening, city police reported. Police said a man grabbed Reinhard Schmidbauer's purse about 10:30 p.m. as she was walking north on Church Street near the Post Office building.
