

Vista Market Upset 1-0; J's, Labish, Master Teams Post Victories

The Vista Market Class B League leaders were upset 1-0 by Salem Rotary Club in Thursday's junior baseball action, and the defeat dropped the club into a first place tie with the J's. The Market, which had a 3-2 record, lost to the J's, who had a 3-2 record.

Lance Hazelbaker hurled the 1-0 sparkler over Vista, yielding three hits and fanning 14. The loser was Vance Young who yielded the run in the third inning, one that was scored on three errors and a wild pitch. Young and Dave SeRine pitched four-hit ball.

Dick Burkland, Dick Lundgren, Pete Melin and Del Sheldon got the four hits for the Rotary team. Dick Lott, Jim Clark and Derold Hopkins had the three for Vista. Labish had a five-run first inning and scored four more in the second to win in easy fashion. Gene Biggins and Dean Westling each had three hits for the winners, and collected in the two big innings along with Chris Hornsby. Bill Lowery and Warren Zulinski. Ned Daring pitched the win, giving four hits. The four bingles by the losers were gained by Larry Yeoy, Glen Vanderhook (2) and Pete Hanley. Hanley drove in two of the three runs.

Twenty-five bases on balls by the Four Corners pitching aided tremendously in the 15-2 win by Master Service. Rhet Partie, Doug Ritchie and Rex Campbell got the only hits for the winners while Larry Elzel and Chuck Alderman collected the two Four Corners safeties.

USA Decathlon Trials to Open

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Three American contenders for the Olympic Decathlon Championship, a U.S. monopoly since 1932, will be ground out Friday and Saturday in the 10-event AAU test for the athletic jacks-of-all-trades.

Lopez Praises Yank Defense

NEW YORK (AP)—It's not the New York Yankees' power — Mickey Mantle's tape-measure home runs and Yogi Berra's rattling doubles — which keeps Cleveland's Al Lopez awake at nights. It's the Yankee speed and defense, the senior says.

Publix Golf Tourney Moves to Semifinals

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two Californians, a Florida Sailor, and a Memphis businessman Thursday won their way to the semi-finals of the national public links golf tournament.

Prall Downed In PNGA Meet

(Cont. from preceding page) tournament to date, edged Bob Prall of Salem, Ore., 2 and 1. Williams' big moment in the tournament came on the 6th hole in the afternoon after Kidd had driven within 15 feet of the pin.

Williams, 25 and just out of the army after a 15-month stint, sank his 215-yard tee shot with a No. 3 iron for one of two holes-in-one.

Morgan started as low man in his match with Prall who was 3 up after seven holes. A birdie and par 99 Morgan at the next two left him 1 down at the turn. Morgan drew even at the 11th with a par 3 and then Prall won the 13th with a birdie 4. Morgan had the match all squared with a birdie 2 at the 14th and won with pars at the 16th and 17th.

An All-American final was assured in the women's division of the championship when the last two rounds are played at Marine Drive Friday and Saturday. Up till Thursday, the women played at the nearby Point Grey Golf and Country Club.

A grand-slam home run by Hank Bauer off relief pitcher Don Mossi was the big blow. Mossi had just relieved loser Bob Lemon with the bases full. It was Bauer's first grand-slam in an eight-year career.

Johnny Kucks was the winner although he was rocked by a three-run homer by Al Smith in the fourth and was knocked out of the box in the eighth when the Indians pushed over two more runs. Kucks' record is now 12-4. Jimmy Piersall staged a one-man show to lead the Red Sox to victory over Chicago's Jack Harshman. After making a pair of run-saving catches in the fourth and ninth, the Red Sox 17 outfielder came through with a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to win it. Relief pitcher Leo Kiehl got the decision, breaking Harshman's five-game winning streak.

Harshman Tapped Harshman was the whole works for Chicago up until the ninth. It was his eighth inning homer that gave the White Sox a temporary 1-0 lead. The southpaw had a two-hit shutout until the last half of the eighth when pinch hitter Norm Zauchin singled and his relief runner, Billy Klaus, scored on a double by Billy Goodman.

A three-run homer by Bob Niemi was more than enough for White Sox as he fanned five and walked one for his fourth victory against seven defeats and his first shutout of the season. Art Ditmar was charged with his 10th loss.

Bill Hoelt limited the Senators to four hits including Jim Lemon's 12th homer as the Tigers handed Washington its fifth straight defeat. It was Hoelt's 11th triumph against six losses. The Tigers scored two off lefty Bob Wiesler in the first on a pair of walks and singles by Jack Phillips and Al Kaline. Phillips' double helped the Tigers get two more in the fourth.

Sue DeVoe Medford, Ore., 4 and 3. The last Canadian hopefuls were eliminated in Thursday's quarter finals. Carole Jo Kabler, the United States junior women's champion from Sutherland, Ore., defeated Ruth P. Wilson of Vancouver 2 and 1. The western junior champion—JoAnne Gunderson of Seattle—overwhelmed Mrs. W. Knox, Vancouver, 6 and 4.

The other match saw Grace De Moss of Corvallis, Ore., a former tiller, defeat Tacoma's Shirley T. Baty 2 up.

Local Gals Have New Team Name, Sponsor

A new name and sponsor has been found for the Salem Merchants Girls Softball team, it was announced last night. The team is now to be known as the Nameless Food Market club, as it is to be sponsored by that firm.

The girls play Hubbard tonight in a Silver Falls League game at Olinger Field, 6:30 o'clock, and travel to Portland Saturday night for a game with Consolidated Freight, at Westmoreland Field.

Cascade Meats Win 5-0 Tilt

Cal Bonney's two-hit, 13-strike-out pitching led the Cascade Meats to a 5-0 Capital League Softball victory over the Meier & Frank team last night at Phillips Field, the only action of the night.

The Leslie Junior High athletic coach faced 24 men and gave only one walk in seven innings. Wimpy Carver, losing pitcher, got the only hits off Bonney.

Cascade nipped Carver in the fourth when Ray Busby doubled and scored on an error. Four runs came across in the sixth on hits by Tom Warren and Tom Picken and five rousing errors.

In tonight's games Prison Officers play Keizer Electric at 7 o'clock, and the Randle Oil play L & R in another of their City League games at eight. Each team has a 4-4 record.
