Rock Creek Church Pioneer Day Slated

Statesman News Service

WOODBURN—Sixth annual Pioneer Day observance at Rock Creek Church, northwest of Woodburn, will be held Sunday.

Events will include 11 a.m. church services, a no-host luncheon in the churchyard and a program at 2 p.m.

The Rev. Pierre Smith of Marquam, retired Methodist minister, will deliver the morning sermon and Roy Hewitt, Salem attorney, is scheduled to give the principal address at the afternoon program.

The oldest man and woman present will be honored by Mrs. Leslie Gibson, Canby route 2, who is chairman of the day's observance.

The Harold Ackley family of Needy district will present music during the afternoon and group singing will be directed by Edwin Eymann of Rural Den.

The Rock Creek Cemetery Association will furnish coffee for the dinner.

The historic church is reached from Woodburn by proceeding east five miles on the Molalla Road to Brenner's Corner, then north a mile to the crossroads, then east one-fourth mile.

Vows Recited By 11 Women At Mt. Angel

Statesman News Service

MT. ANGEL—Eleven young women made religious vows at the annual profession ceremony at the Benedictine Queen of Angels convent at Mt. Angel Wednesday.

Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland officiated at the pontifical high mass and received the vows. The Rev. Albert Bauman of Mt. Angel Abbey delivered the sermon.

Sister Mary Rose (Eva Kossler), Woodburn, and Sister Mary Adelle (Barbara Mansfield), Carlton, pronounced their final vows.

Making their first vows and receiving their religious names were Margaret Hennessey, Portland, Idaho; Anne Niedermeier, Portland; Sister Mary Maureen; Bernadette Gamble, Junction City; Sister Helen Marie; Ruth Schmecker, Gervais; Sister Mary Pauline; and Patricia Francisco, Silverton.

Sister Mary Joseph, J. J. Berning and Marilyn Schwab, Mt. Angel; Dorothy Jones, Portland; and Annette Henschel, Rupert, Idaho, were invested in the Benedictine habit.

Artist Joins College Staff At Mt. Angel

Statesman News Service

MT. ANGEL—New to the faculty of Mt. Angel Women's College for the coming year will be Miss Genevieve Willson of San Leandro, Calif., art instructor.

Miss Willson received her B.A. degree in art at Dominican College, San Rafael, Calif., and has done graduate work in art and education at California College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland, and San Jose State College, and in Mexico.

Art courses to be taught by Miss Willson this fall will include basic design, color and composition, and elementary school art. She will also hold evening classes in crafts and art appreciation.

The new instructor is a member of the Pacific Arts Association and the California Teachers' Association and has taught in the San Leandro Unified School District for three years. At present, she is setting up a craft shop for metal work and pottery at the Women's College.

Webb Favored For Marquam Postmastership

Statesman News Service

MARQUAM—Appointment of C. Ray Webb as postmaster at Marquam has been recommended by Congressman Walter Norblad.

Webb owns and manages the general store here in which the postoffice is located and has been in charge of the office as replacement since Mrs. Doby D. Duffy resigned on Sept. 1, 1935.

Marquam is a fourth-class postoffice and the postmaster's annual salary is $1,550.

Centennial Bethel-Aurora Trip Slated

Statesman News Service

AURORA—Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Bower of Bethel, Me., are contemplating a trip here to bring greetings from Bethel to Aurora during this community's Centennial celebration July 20-22.

Bethel was the starting place for those who left the midwest to start the Aurora colony a century ago, and names of the two communities are linked in history.

Bower, who plans to make the trip from Bethel, is a cousin of Jonas and Clara Will of Aurora.

A group from Aurora visited the Portland Beavers ball park Thursday night in colony attire to publicize the centennial event.

Rosie Roler, 61, Succumbs At Woodburn

Statesman News Service

WOODBURN—Mrs. Rosie Josephine Roler died at a hospital here Thursday following a long illness. She was 61.

Mrs. Roler came to Woodburn in 1936 from Dickinson, N. D., where she was born on Aug. 17, 1894. She lived at 548 Settlement Ave. for many years.

Surviving are seven sons, Joseph, Louis and David, all at Bend, Robert and Clifford at Portland, Charles at Albany and Leonard at Hebo; five daughters, Mrs. Lillian Franchuk, Dickinson, N. D.; Elsie Silano, Springfield, N. D.; Mrs. Julia Endrigg, Gervais; Mrs. Carmen Gurley, Portland; also one brother and one sister in North Dakota and 25 grandchildren.

Recitation of the rosary will be at the Ring-Cornwell Chapel at 8 p.m. Sunday and requiem mass at 9:30 a.m. Monday at St. Luke's Catholic Church here. Interment will be at St. Luke's Cemetery.

Services Set For Former Dallas Coach

Statesman News Service

DALLAS—Services for Oscar Ernest (Andy) Anderson, 68, former Dallas High School coach, will be at the Episcopal Church here at 10 a.m. Monday with the Rev. M. R. Schewitz officiating.

The Carl B. Fenton Post, American Legion, will participate in committal services at 1 p.m. at Willamette National Cemetery, Portland. Burial here is in charge of arrangements.

Anderson died Wednesday following a coronary attack. He was born May 16, 1868, at Valley City, N. D., and was married to Mildred Petrie on July 20, 1921, at Park Rapids, Minn. They moved to Dallas in 1939.

Anderson was a member of the Episcopal Church, Carl B. Fenton Legion Post and Friendship Lodge 6, IOOF.

Surviving are his wife at Dallas, and a sister, Mrs. Hilda Beck, New Westminster, B. C.

New Albany Councilman

Statesman News Service

ALBANY—Appointment of Floyd Hopeman to the Albany City Council was announced Thursday.

Hopeman, a dairy distributor, replaces Harold Agnew as councilman from the second ward. Agnew moved outside the city limits.

Also announced Wednesday was the appointment of Elton Disher to the city planning and zoning commission, succeeding S. M. Shelton, who resigned.
