Married at Early July Ceremony

A bride of July 8 was Mrs. Kaye Duncan Brand, the former Sharon LaVonne Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Robertson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brand. The ceremony took place at the First Congregational Church. The newlyweds will live in Eugene. (McEwan Studio.)

Miss Deanna Kinzer Weds Mr. Taylor

Exchanging their vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony at the First Methodist Church Saturday evening were Miss Deanna Beth Kinzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinzer, and Marvin Leroy Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Taylor. The Rev. Brooks Moore performed the 8 o'clock nuptials before a setting of white gladiolus and blue Majestic daisies.

Melvin Beck was the vocalist and Prof. Josef Schoeber was the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Zan Kinzer and Miss Annette Amel.

Of ice blue taffeta was the bridal gown fashioned with a portrait neckline, short sleeves and fitted bodice of Chantilly lace. The contour skirt was designed with panels of the lace on either side terminating in a chapel train. A matching lace headpiece enhanced with seed pearls held in place her nylon illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white gladiolus with streamers of stephanotis.

Slater is Honor Attendant Miss Zan Kinzer was her sister's honor maid and Miss Annette Amel the bridesmaid. They wore white crystal dresses with lace insets and finished with a bow in-back. Their bouquets were of white gladiolus blooms centered with blue bachelor buttons and satin bows.

Donald Lannigan was best man for Mr. Taylor and ushers were Elmer Taylor and Grayson Alexander, cousins of the bridegroom. Melvin Taylor was groomsmen for his brother's wedding.

A ping linen sheath with pink and white accessories was chosen by the bride's mother. Her flowers were white roses and carnations. Mrs. Taylor wore a green sheer print with white accessories and corsage of pink roses and carnations.

Reception in Carrier Room A reception was held in the Carrier Room, Mrs. E. J. Church, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the dining room. Pouring were Mrs. R. E. Burns of Milos, N.D., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Melvin Taylor. Cutting the cake were Mrs. R. L. Hugelmann of Klamath Falls, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Philip Keefer, Lebanon, sister of the bridegroom. Assisting were Miss Mikell and Miss Teri Kinzer, sisters of the bride, Miss Leah and Miss Diana Church, the bride's cousins, and Miss Carole Cummings.

For going away the bride wore a pink knit suit with white angora trim and white accessories. After a honeymoon along the Oregon coast the couple will be at home in Salem.

Bridge players are invited to take advantage of the supervised play every Wednesday evening at the YWCA. Mrs. William Newmyer directs the playing which begins at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited. No YWCA membership is required and a small charge is made for the evening.

Bride at First Methodist

A bride of Saturday night was Mrs. Marvin Leroy Taylor, the former Deanna Beth Kinzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinzer. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Taylor. The ceremony took place at the First Methodist Church. (Steimonts Studio.)

Salem Teacher Takes Bride at Portland Rites on Saturday

A number of Salem and Willamette University friends were in Portland Saturday night for the wedding of Miss Mary Catherine Reeh, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Merrill J. Reeh of Portland, and Donald Warner Empey of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Warner Empey, formerly of Springfield, who are living in Salem for the summer.

The 4 o'clock nuptials were performed at Westminster Presbyterian Church by Dr. Leonard Odiorne. Dean Lieber was the vocalist. Miss Mary Swanson and Miss Carole Pfaff, wearing ballerina frocks in shades of pink and rose nylon chiffon, lighted the tapers.

For her wedding the bride selected a full length satin gown fashioned with a court train, portrait neckline and torso waist with bodice of Alencon lace. Her pure silk illusion veil was train length and cascaded from a coronet of matching lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white fluer d'amour centered with a white orchid.

Precede the Bride Six attendants preceded the bride to the altar wearing ballerina dresses of shaded orchid and lilac nylon chiffon and carrying bouquets of pink begonias. Miss Phyllis Pearson of Portland was the maid of honor, Miss Georiana Reeh, sister of the bride, the junior attendant, Miss Laura Pearson, Ann Notson, Portland, Anne Ludvig, Vancouver, Wash., and Sharon Laverly of Cottage Grove, formerly of Salem, the bridesmaids.

Teresa Louise Ralston was the flower girl. Gary W. Empey stood with his brother as best man. Seating the guests were Corwin Horton, Fred Lincoln Jr., Darwin Kerber, Douglas Wall, and Richard Wilkins.

Mrs. Reeh selected a rose beige re-embroidered lace gown with matching accessories and corsage of pink orchids. Mrs. Empey chose an ecru lace gown with beige and yellow accessories. Her corsage was of bronze orchids.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Great Hall at Westminster. The bride's attendants as well as those assisting at the reception were her Phi Beta Phi sorority sisters from Willamette. The ushers were the bridegroom's Phi Delta Theta fraternity brothers.

For her wedding trip to San Francisco, Carmel, and Santa Barbara the new Mrs. Empey

A Surprise Birthday Party

Mrs. C. A. Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker were hosts for a surprise patio party Saturday night in honor of Mr. Schaefer's birthday. The affair was held at the Schaefer's Morning home on Strong Road. A late supper was served following an informal evening.

Wishing Mr. Schaefer a happy birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wiles, Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Bodmer, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sandstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warner of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevenson, and from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheidger, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fickhard, former Salem residents, and the hosts.

AUBURN—Felicitations go to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shippey (Doris Gronna) on the birth of a daughter July 7, at the Salem General Hospital. The little girl weighed eight pounds, ten ounces and has been named Susan Evonne. There is a sister, Sharon, and two brothers, Michael and Jerry. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hall of Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Shippey of Four Corners. A great-grandmother is Mrs. Viola Shippey of Willamiam.

donned a black and white checked silk taffeta ensemble with white accessories. The couple will be at home in Salem at 1563 Court Street after August 10.

Mr. Empey is on the faculty at South Salem High School and his bride will be teaching at Four Corners this year.
