Travelers Are Leaving For Europe

By B. NORBERG
DALLAS—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Whitworth are sailing for Europe this week to be gone through the month of August. On Monday they will leave Portland by plane for New York where they will board a liner for Southampton, England. Following a guided tour through England they will tour Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, western Germany, Austria, Italy and France. The Whitworths plan to return to Dallas September 1. Half around the world for a visit with her son and family is on schedule for Mrs. William Retzer, formerly of Dallas, now making her home in Walla Walla, Wash. Mrs. Retzer is leaving for New York July 15. From there a flying trip to Switzerland will reunite her with Major and Mrs. Karl Retzer and children Bill, Mike and Jere. Major Retzer is with an air rescue group at the U.S. air base near Tripoli in North Africa. His family and mother will spend a month vacationing in the alpine country, then the senior Mrs. Retzer will spend some time in the Karl Retzer home in Tripoli. Mrs. Karl Retzer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crider of Dallas. Vacationing in Reno after the Fourth of July holiday were Mr. and Mrs. John Fully. They arrived home this past Monday, being one of the first carloads of travelers through Mt. Lassen national park following the opening of the highway after winter snow closure. Visit from Oklahoma Oklahoma visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Willson are her mother, brother and family and sister. They are Mrs. O. L. Brandenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brandenburg and children, Robert and Debbie, and Mrs. Richard L. Murray and daughter, Susan, all of Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Richardson, in Dallas for ten days is Jim Stewart of San Bruno, California. This is his first trip home since he went to California five years ago. Mrs. Juanita Clark is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanders, in Fort Smith, Arkansas, and other relatives in Huntsville, Alabama, until early August. She made the trip east by plane and will return in time to attend a workshop on conducting student councils at Oregon State college. Mrs. Clark is a junior high teacher in the Dallas school system.

Miss Mylrea Mulcahy Reveals Betrothal to Air Force Man

Taking the romantic spotlight today is Miss Mylrea Mulcahy, daughter of Mrs. Clarence J. Mulcahy, whose engagement to Airman 2/C Clinton C. Hanhi, son of Mrs. Ann G. Latvala of Seattle, is being announced. The wedding date has been set for Saturday, September 8 at the First Christian Church. Miss Mulcahy is a graduate of Salem schools and attended Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. She is now with the Department of Motor Vehicle, state of Oregon. Mr. Hanhi attended Salem schools and graduated from Kelo High School. He is now stationed at Gettysburg, South Dakota, with the U.S. Air Force.

Visitors Guests at Wharton Home

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace S. Wharton have been entertaining a number of visitors at their country home the past month. Arriving first were Mrs. Wharton's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Scott of Washington, D.C., who remained for several weeks. Miss Lillian Mita Warn of Portland also spent a week with the Whartons. Mr. Wharton's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Shirley of Encinitas, Calif., came north for a visit and were accompanied by Mrs. Beas Cook and Mrs. Bess Bowles, also of Encinitas. Expected here later in the month for a visit at the Wharton home will be Mr. and Mrs. Morton Hager of San Francisco. Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Stiefeld, Dr. and Mrs. John Ross and Dr. and Mrs. Otto Kraushaar, accompanied by their children, are returning today from a sojourn at Crescent Lake.

Collection at Bush House

The Bridge, one of Joe Shelley's watercolors, now on display at the Bush House, Salem Art Museum. Mr. Shelley, professor of art at the University of Utah, has a variety of colored inks also on exhibit, including landscapes, ballets and several with an Oriental influence. The public is invited to view this collection at the Bush House any day, except Monday.

Benefit Dessert At Smedley Home

Mrs. H. E. Smedley, Mrs. Robert Stutzman, Mrs. Charles Rook and Mrs. Paul Riffey will be hostesses for a benefit dessert supper on Thursday evening, July 19 at the Smedley home at 1884 Evergreen Ave. Calling hours are from 6:30 to 9 p.m. During the evening Miss Joan Koken will display her many treasures acquired while living in India for two years. All members of Ainsworth Social Club and their friends are cordially invited to call.

Statesman, Salem, Ore., Sun., July 15, '36 (Sec. III)-15

The leading feminine role of Linda Seton in the Portland Civic Theatre's "Holiday" will be portrayed by former Salem actress, Dolores Gottfried Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gottfried of Salem. Dolores recently won critical acclaim for her performance as "Margot Wendice" in "Dial 'M' For Murder" on the main stage of the Portland Civic Theatre. The Highland Women's club will be hostess for the Polk County Federation of Rural Women's Clubs annual picnic to be held at Helmick Park on Wednesday, July 18. A covered dish dinner is planned for noon with a business meeting following. Guests speaker will be Miss Margaret Perry of Monmouth, who was chosen "Teacher of the Year" for 1935.
