

Quick Okeh of Ike Platform Aim of GOP

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON 16—Republicans are aiming for a "quickie" platform endorsing the Eisenhower Administration and its works in language calculated to catch the eye of busy voters.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said Sunday that if he and his colleagues can manage it, they will carry a complete, though rough draft of a proposed platform to San Francisco a few days before the GOP nominating convention opens Aug. 20.

Smith has been designated by Sen. Bush (R-Conn.), chairman of the convention platform committee, to draft the foreign policy plank in consultation with Secretary of State Dulles.

Platform Chief
The Democrats meanwhile announced that Rep. McCormack (D-Mass.) again will head their platform committee this year. National Chairman Paul M. Butler said the selection of McCormack for the same job he held in 1952 had been approved by spokesmen for the three announced Democratic presidential candidates.

The leading candidates are Adlai Stevenson, Estes Kefauver and Averell Harriman.

In announcing McCormack's appointment, Butler said:

"I am confident that his leadership and guidance will contribute greatly toward the drafting of a vigorous, constructive and inspiring platform."

Dulles wrote the 1952 Republican foreign policy plank which, among other things, said the Democratic leaders had "no foreign policy," condemned the "containment" policy, contended that the Korean War could have been avoided, and promised that under the republicans the United States would repudiate all commitments contained in secret understandings such as those of Yalta which aid Communist enslavements.

Extensive Redrafting
This and some other pledges that haven't been kept yet seemed likely to force some extensive redrafting in a plank expected to claim that peace has resulted from Republican policies.

Smith made no comment on this, but he said that as far as he is concerned he wants the GOP platform to endorse continued aid to foreign nations on a co-operation or partnership basis.

The Republicans are not for any giveaway program which involves just handouts to other nations," he said. "If I have my way, we are going to endorse a cooperative program, where the nations that receive our aid will work in partnership with us."

Doctor Given Wild Ride byirate Driver

MEXICO CITY 16—Dr. Eduardo Garcia Alvarez, a Mexico city doctor, got a free lift that he didn't appreciate Friday night.

The doctor's car was involved in a minor collision with a station wagon. An argument followed. During the heated discussion, the driver of the station wagon started the vehicle toward the standing doctor. The doctor jumped on the hopper. The driver stepped on the gas and the doctor was hurled on to the hood. He hung on and the station wagon roared away.

A police car, an ambulance and a score of volunteers gave chase in response to the doctor's shouts. After a wild 20-minute ride through some of the city's main streets, the station wagon was hoisted in and the shaky medic was rescued from his hazardous perch.

Eviction Notice Given Postmaster in Idaho Town

KAMIAH, Idaho 16—The Kamiah postmaster had an eviction notice Saturday—pay more rent or get out in 30 days and take your mail with you.

"Land sales," said Postmaster Richard Giber. "Where in heck is the government going to move?"

Said landlord Pete Wolf: "I don't care. I'm leasing the building for a dry goods store. They will pay more than the government."

A postal inspector said the government won't pay more than $1,000 a year rent for the quarters in Kamiah, a town of about 600. Wolf said that isn't enough.

Giber is awaiting word on what to do.

Rescue Fails to Dim Wanderlust

ROSEBURG 16—An 11-year-old boy who was rescued from a high bluff, then spent the night in the open, was found wandering on Roseburg street Saturday.

The boy, LeRoy Archer, whose parents live in North Hollywood, Calif., but who is living with a foster home, was spotted by a motorist Friday on a bluff over Highway 50 near here. Two men dropped a rope to him and pulled him to safety.

The boy promised to return home, but when night came he was missing. Saturday morning, a policeman found him on a street and police returned him to his foster home. Mrs. Deana Stobbe, Sheriff C. Byrd said LeRoy apparently had slept in the open. He was wearing a jacket with a fur collar.
