Weekend Fishing Outlook Listed by Commish

The Oregon State Game Commission Thursday released its weekly report on fishing conditions for the weekend in the state. The report, on the northwest, southwest, central, northeast and southeast portions of Oregon is as follows:

NORTHWEST

Tidewater angling in the Tillamook, Nestucca, and Salmon river area has improved for sea - run cutthroat, and some early run fall jack salmon are in. Upstream on Nestucca and Wilson rivers, angling is fair to good for planted cutthroat. Lake Lytle and Spring lake are fair for planted cutthroat. Jetty angling has been spotty. The Zigzag river and its tributaries are expected to provide fair angling. Trillium lake (Salmon river) has recently been stocked and should offer fair angling. Trout fishing on the Clackamas has been fair to good. High rock lakes are becoming accessible; good fishing is expected.

SOUTHWEST

Trout angling in lower and upper Umpqua river areas is generally slow. The North Umpqua is quite roily from construction and logging activities. A few summer steelhead are being caught in steamboat area, but success is slow. Angling for chinook and silver salmon at Winchester bay is generally good. Herring are plentiful in bay. Salmon angling on Coos Bay bar has been good to excellent, depending upon the winds and fog. Striped bass angling is fair to good between McCullough bridge and Railroad bridge, fair up Coos river on kelp worms or sand shrimp. Trout fishing on the upper Rogue is poor because of adverse water conditions created by heavy thunder showers. The water is clearing, and fishing is expected to return to the fair to good level this week-end. Lake fishing is best with good catches coming out of the Seven, Sky, and Blue lake basin canyon in the Cascades. Salmon fishing is beginning to pick up on lower Rogue river. A few fish are being taken by boat and shore casters. Weather permitting, offshore salmon fishing fair to good.

CENTRAL

Crescent lake has produced good angling for kokanee and rainbow. A few lake trout are being caught at Odell lake by trolling. Davis lake has been fair and Gold lake very good for fly fishing. Fishing at Summit lake is slow. Trolling at Wickiup is improving, and some fair catches have been made the last week. North and South Twin

Adcock Gets 8 RBI's as Braves Win

Cassady Signs Lion Contract

Ohio State Back Highest-Paid Rook

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Amid flashbulbs, food and fanfare, two-time All-America Halfback Howard (Hopalong) Cassady signed a two-year pact with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League Thursday.

Terms were not announced officially, but the best guess — and it really isn't a guess — was that the red-haired, freckled game-breaker was assured $14,500 for each season. No bonus was involved.

Nick Kerbawy, general manager of the Lions, said the contract made Cassady the highest paid rookie of the current campaign.

To which Ohio State Coach W. W. (Woody) Hayes retorted:

Words of Praise

"I don't know what you're paying him. But it isn't enough. No matter how high you've gone, it's the best money you've every spent."

Cassady played four years under Hayes. He scored 37 touchdowns in 36 games and gained 2,491 yards in 416 carries for a 5.5-yard average, to lead the Buckeyes through an unbeaten 1954 campaign and the 1955 Rose Bowl, and to their second straight Big Ten title last fall. He was named male "athlete of the year" for 1955 by the Associated Press.

Back From Tour

Cassady, at his playing weight of 177 after a six-week Oriental tour with the Ohio State baseball team, said he was "satisfied and lucky to be with the Lions.

"I'll play my best, and I know we have a great coach in Buddy Parker. If I can be half as good as Doak Walker, I'll be happy."

Walker, former Southern Methodist star, retired this year after six seasons as the Lions standout halfback.

Portland Nips Twinks, 6-5

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Portland shaded Hollywood Thursday night, 6-5, as Tom Saffell scored in the ninth on Luis Marquez' single. Ez O'Donnell, Hollywood's ace relief pitcher, had his seven game winning streak broken. Ray Shore was the winning hurler.

The Beavers got off to a three run lead in the first inning. Tom Saffell and Dick Young singled. Arroyo trapped Saffell after fielding Luis Marquez' grounder, but Umpire Gordon Ford waved Saffell home after Arroyo grabbed him during the rundown. Dick Smith bobbled Bob Borkowski's roller, then threw wildly past R. C. Stevens at first as Young scored. Ed Mickelson grounded into a double play and Marquez scored.

Elsewhere in the PCL, Los Angeles topped San Francisco 9-8, Sacramento defeated Seattle 6-1, and San Diego walloped Vancouver 17-2.

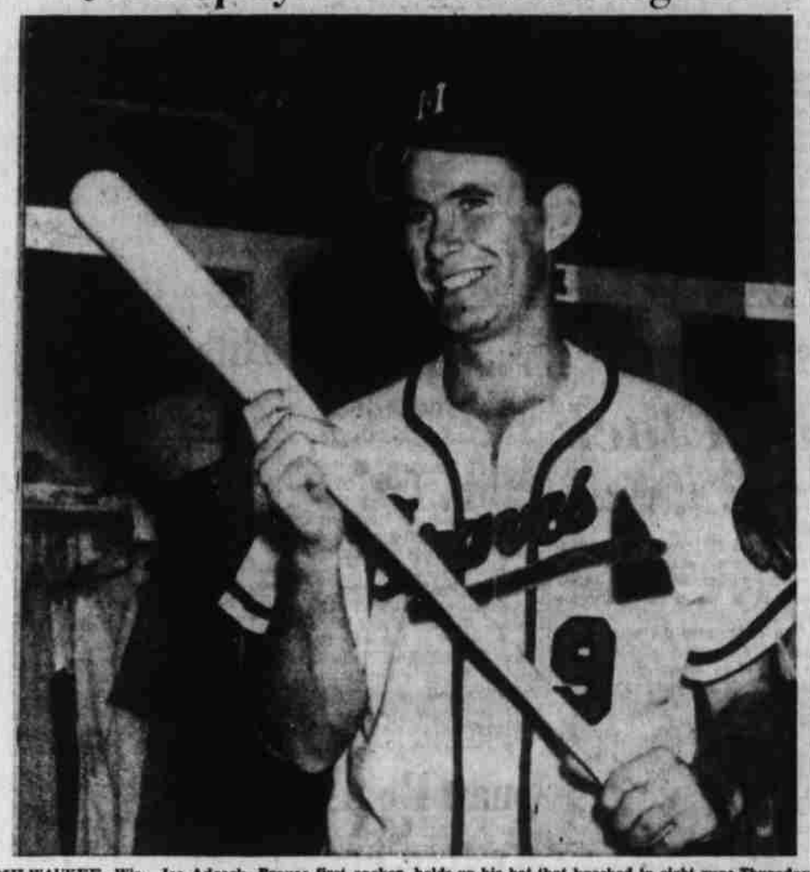
Joe Displays His Run-Producing Bat



MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Joe Adcock, Braves first sacker, holds up his bat that knocked in eight runs Thursday against the New York Giants. One of his hits was a grand slam homer in the first inning, his second in six days. He homered again later in the game. The eight RBI's by Adcock makes him tops in that category (in a single game) in the National League thus far this season. The Braves won, 13-3. (AP Wirephoto.)

Hits Include 2 Home Runs

Yanks Regain Form To Paste Detroit

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Adcock, Milwaukee's power guy, became the first major leaguer to drive in eight runs in one game this season as the Braves retained their two-game lead in the National League with a 13-3 decision over the New York Giants. Second place Cincinnati smacked third place Brooklyn 7-2.

Adcock got the job done with two home runs, one a grand-slamer, a double and a single as Milwaukee made it nine out of 10.

The Redlegs, winning on Gus Bell's sixth-inning home run, pushed the Dodgers six games out of the lead.

The Chicago Cubs, with three home runs, beat the Philadelphia Phillies 4-3 in 10 innings on Dee Fondy's two-out homer. St. Louis and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

Yanks Regain Form

In the American League, the New York Yankees got back in business with a 7-3 decision over Detroit. The Tigers had ended the league leaders' winning streak at 11 games with a doubleheader sweep Wednesday.

Wally Burnette, former Yankee farmhand, went all the way on a seven-hitter as the Kansas City A's cooled off the Boston Red Sox 8-4 with Harry Simpson driving in four runs and Vic Power three.

Adcock, one of the principals in the brawl with pitcher Ruben Gomez in the series opener with the Giants Tuesday night, smashed his 18th homer and second grand-slammer in seven games as the Braves shelled Jim Hearn in a five-run first inning. Big Joe singled home a run in the fourth, then crashed his 10th home run in the last 13 games in the sixth with two on.

Warren Spahn won his ninth, giving eight hits and striking out four. Hearn is 3-10.

Cubs, Phils Hit Homers

Jim King and Walt Moryn also homered for the Cubs, with Moryn tying it at 3 all in the ninth after Gran Hamner had homered in the top of the frame

1st Christians Top Kay; Two Tilts Tonight

First Christian won their first game of the second half in the Capital Softball League Thursday night at Phillips Field by trimming Kay Woolen Mill, 6-3.

Eldon Farlow gave up five hits to pitch the victory. Loser Pete Cauble gave up only three hits but was otherwise wild.

First Christian got all their hits and runs in the second inning. Four walks, a wild pitch, a passed ball, singles by Morris Baker and Eldon Farlow and a bases-loaded triple by Richard accounted for the runs.

George Huggins sacrificed to bring in Kay's first run. George Nuss singled and scored on Al Alley's double for another and the final tally came in the fifth off hits by Gordon Domagalla, Huggins and Cauble.

A doubleheader is slated for Friday night. The City League feature, L&R vs. Randle Oil, will follow a Capital League game between Western Paper Converting and National Guard, which starts at 7 p.m.

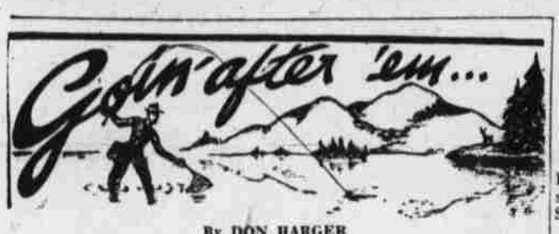
Senators Take Series Finale 4 to 3



By DON HARGER

Costal salmon fishing is taking the spot light away from the trout fishing for the time being and most salmon moochers are bagging limits of chinook or silvers. The fishing is rated tops from Newport all the way down the coast to Coos Bay. Winds have moderated for the most part and anglers are finding it possible to get over the bars and into the sea at most of the salmon spots. The salmon are running up to 36 lbs., which is the largest we have had reported to us at this time. Silvers are running up to 12 lbs., which is heavy enough for this time of the season. . . One important fishery which is being overlooked by many anglers during July and August along the coast is the jack salmon fishing in the upper tidal waters of some of the rivers. Very few anglers seem to be aware that jack salmon are in the rivers at this time of year and the fish is left unmolested for the summer. The summer jack salmon is an eager fish for a salmon egg cluster and a few anglers delight in fishing for him with fly rod, light weights, and small clusters. The light tackle affords plenty of sport for the jack salmon angler as the jack is one of the scrappiest little fish that swims.

Don Harger

They'll Be in Northern Coastal Streams

You are apt to find the jack at this time of year in most of the streams on the northern Oregon coast. At least in those streams with a fairly good water flow. They will lie in the deeper pools in tide water and they are also most cooperative at times when it comes to taking a small cluster of eggs

The summer jack salmon will take up the slack during the hot months of July and August when the trout fishing falls off to a low level. For those who care not for the open sea and salmon, may we suggest the jack salmon. . .

The Siletz offered some fair sea-run cutthroat fishing for a short time earlier this month. The run of fish went on up river fast however, and little has been heard of the critters since. We have been asked a few times recently about the sea-run cut and why they are not in our streams as they were a few years ago. Some wonder if there are any of the choice fish left or if they are all fished out.

Well, for one thing there certainly are not as many sea-run cutthroat in our coastal streams as there used to be but it is not just a simple matter of having caught them all. Streams and water conditions have changed drastically during the past few

Walsh Wins 6th as Salems Snatch Series 7-3; Spokane Games Next

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

The Salem Senators choked off a ninth inning rally by the Eugene Emeralds in the finale of their 10-game Northwest League Baseball series last night at Waters Field, won the contest 4-3 and departed for Spokane where they oppose the loop leaders tonight.

Thus the long stand with the newly found "cousins" is over, with Uncle Hugh Luby's lads taking seven of the 10 games. They had some sweating to do before getting No. 7, as Cliff Dapper's Ems burst forth with a two-run rally in the ninth inning, and had the tieing tally at second base and the winning run at first when big Bill Walsh finally got things under control.

Walsh was after his sixth victory in this one, and had it by a 4-1 count going into the ninth. Things got right rough when Bob Gauthier singled, pinch-hitter Gene Marinacci doubled and Cully Deck blooped another single to center to score Gauthier.

Luby Stands Pat

Luby went to the mound for a conference with the 230-pound righthander, as he had Lefty Jerry Cade, the hero of Wednesday's 2-1 conquest of the Ems heating up in the bull pen. The grandstand wolves were bellering for Walsh's departure, but Luby went along with him.

The big guy settled down to fan pinch-hitter Dapper for the first out. Then Jack Keller drove a bouncer to third that Gene Laursen couldn't handle, and another tally was in. Carl Hutzler flied easily to Jack Dunn in center, however, and Bill Eastburn grounded to Ray Webster at short for a force play, ending the struggle.

The first run off Walsh, in the first inning, was unearned. A walk, stolen base, Manny Lacosta's infield hit and Webster's throwing error did it.

Hodges the Victim

Lefty Berlyn Hodges, a 1955 nemesis for the Senators, was the loser. He flipped through the Salems for three innings before running into a 3-run mess in the fourth, when a pair of walks—the only two Hodges issued—and rousing triples by Russ Rosburg and Frank Szekula put the runs across. Rosburg, who has now lofted his batting average to .310 tripled in one of the tallies, and after Ron King had walked, Szekula drove in the other two.

What turned out to be the winning run came in the seventh. King started things with a single and Szekula beat out a bunt when first base was left uncovered. Hodges then got two out. Mel Krause as next up hit a high, twisting pop back of first, one that had Jay Dean and Jack Keller chasing after it. For a moment it looked as if Dean would gather it in, but he over-ran it and the ball dropped in for a scratch bingle, scoring Szekula from second base. Big Dean, all 6-feet, 5-inches of him, made a desperate dive for the elusive ball but just missed it.

Walsh whiffed seven and walked only two. Hodges fanned just two, as many as he walked. Big Bill's record is now 6-1, while Hodges is even at 7-7. Krause with three hits and both Rosburg and Szekula with two led the Salems at bat. Dean, Keller, Deck and Manny Lacosta each had two for Eugene.

Notes: The crowd for the finale numbered 1,192, and for the four-night portion of the long series here, the attendance total was a whopping good 6,474. There'll be no wolves at the Senators' door if that keeps up . . . The Senators could have gone into first place last night had Spokane lost to Tri-City. As it is, the series at Spokane should be a gem, for Jos Rossi's outfit is in front of the Senators only by a whisker.

Spokane Keeps Lead in NWL

Braves Bow, 8-5; Bears Top Chiefs

KENNEWICK (AP) — The Spokane Indians kept atop the Northwest League's second half standings Thursday night with an 8-5 victory over the Tri-City Braves, their third win of the four-game series.

The key blow was Jerry Jackson's three-run homer for Spokane in the seventh inning off reliefer Dave Kostenuk. The Indians got to starter Vern Kindsfather for two runs in the second on Chet Hammoto's single, two more in the third on a walk and doubles by Ron Jackson and Ron Carlon, and a solo run in the fifth on George Huffman's double and Jim Sampson's single.

Tri-City got its first run in the sixth off southpaw Max Weekly on Don Pries' double, and four more in the eighth on doubles by Pries and Bill Girdley and a homer by Duane Helbig.

In another NWL game, Yakima's Bears took the rubber game of a five-game series with Wenatchee by shoving across four runs in the top of the ninth to win, 8-4.

The winning run was singled home by Dick Neal.

Vets Have Gone 'Big Time' . . .

Many New Drivers Set For Midget Race Card

Midget auto racing fans who have been denied the sport here since May of 1955, but who will be presented with a full card featuring the roaring runts at Hollywood Bowl Saturday night, will see many new drivers at the controls of the wee buzz-buggies.

Now gone are the former "big boys" of the midgets—such drivers as "Barefoot Bob" Gregg, Shorty Templeman, Len Sutton and other onetime favorites. They've gone "big time" in auto racing and are no longer in the Northwest.

A few of the remembered vets will be back Saturday night, however, and they include Gordy Youngstrom, "Pogo" Lundquist, Chuck Tontz, "Wild Bill" Hyde, Smokey Blake and Cliff Spaulding. In fact, Tontz is the 1955 Oregon midget racing champion for Ford-powdered cars, and the Fords will be here en masse Saturday. No longer permitted to race on Oregon tracks are the Offenhauser-powered machines.

GORDY YOUNGSTROM

Promoter Ron Ail of Valley Sports announced Thursday that he'd have cars and drivers not only from Oregon points Saturday night, but also from Vancouver, Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., and Vancouver, B. C. Since the midgets are slated for weekend appearances at Portland, numerous cars were available for the Saturday nighter here.

Listed from Canada are Paul Pold, Bob Simpson, Grant King and Gimmie Wong, the latter a Chinese driver. From Washington are Dick Dehl, Don Lawrence, Youngstrom, Lundquist, Blake, Earl Brothers, Danny Graves and Johnny Ellis. And from Oregon points are Don Guth, Dick Pace, Donnie Nelson, Hyde, Bill Mehnar, Jack Corley, Gene Swain, Tontz, Spaulding and Dave Bell.

Time trials for the card start at 7:45 p.m. Trophy dash, heat races and main events follow. The track record of 15.48 seconds was made in 1948 by Gregg in an Ofefnhauser, and Ail has $100 in cash waiting for the pilot who can better it Saturday night.

Poison Fills Devil's Lake

DELAKE, Ore. (AP) —Nearby Devil's Lake was poisoned by the Oregon Game Commission Thursday in preparation for re-stocking with trout and salmon.

Rotenone was dumped into the 684-acre lake from game commission boats under the supervision of Les Zumwalt, Corvallis.

A few hours later more than 50 boats were on the lake scooping up the fish which floated to the surface. Officials said it will be two or three days before all the poisoned fish come to the surface.
