Alerted by 'Alert'

Beauty Fidgets LONG BEACH, Calif.—Shapely Marina Orschel of Berlin, competing in the Miss Universe contest as Miss Germany, produced a breathless moment during Thursday night's semi-final judging when her shoulder straps slipped (left) during the evening gown phase of the competition. She calmly returned the straps as the contestants turned again to face the audience. Half an hour later, facing the judges in the bathing suit competition, she nervously checked her foot position, modestly tugged at the bottom of her suit. She was among 15 named for the finals a few minutes later. (AP Wirephoto.)

Sleepy Time DALLAS, Tex.—Blondie, the pet African lioness owned by Charles Hipp of Graham, Tex., throws an affectionate paw around Peggy Martin, as she relaxes between planes at Love Field. (AP Wirephoto.)

Cooler in Northwest Rain is forecast for Saturday in eastern third of U.S., in Northwest, the Sierras and southern tier of states. Warmer weather will move into upper Mississippi Valley and most of the Great Plains, while cooler weather is predicted for the Northwest and the eastern section of Ohio Valley. (AP Wirephoto.)

Play Safe While You Drive!

Keep alert—chew gum

Avoid traffic jitters and driving drowsiness. Chew gum while you're behind the wheel. Chewing helps relieve strain and tension—helps keep you feeling fresh and alert for safer driving. Chew any brand of gum you like but chew while you drive. Naturally, we recommend refreshing, delicious Wrigley's Spearmint Gum—for lively, satisfying flavor and real chewing enjoyment. AK108
