Bus Rider
Files Suit
After Wreck

One of five passengers injured when a city bus collided with a car almost two years ago filed a $2,073 injury suit Thursday in Union Circuit Court against City Transit Lines and the car owners.

In her complaint, Mrs. Eleanor Everly, whose address at the time of the accident was 2670 Longview St., charges negligence by both the bus company and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin R. Starr, 2546 Lorain Lane. The suit is for injuries allegedly received by Mrs. Everly while a passenger in a bus that collided with the Starr car, which the complaint says was driven by Mrs. Starr.

The accident occurred Oct. 22, 1954, at the intersection of South Commercial and Boice streets. Mrs. Everly is asking for $50,000 general damages for injuries, and $2,073 for doctor and hospital bills. She contended in the complaint that the injuries aggravated an existing cancerous condition.

Death Claims
City Resident

Samuel Holmes, 72, of 655 Union St., died Thursday afternoon following an apparent heart attack about 12:15 p.m. in the 400 block of Center St., city police reported. Holmes was rushed to Salem General Hospital but was dead on arrival there. Officers said Holmes had a medical history of heart trouble.

Surviving is a niece, Mrs. Mildred Stockwell, San Francisco. Holmes' body was taken to the Howell-Edwards funeral home.
