

Numerous Parties for Visitors, Travelers, Brides-Elect Mark Mid-Summer Social Calendar

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

The mid-summer social whirl is in full swing with a round of parties on the agenda for the coming week. Travelers, visitors and brides-elect are sharing honors at coffees, dinners and patio parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Baldock, who leave in mid-August for Iraq to make their home in Baghdad for the ensuing two years, are being feted at numerous au revoir parties. Tuesday morning Mrs. Paul Hendricks is entertaining with an informal coffee at her Fairmount Hill home for Mrs. Baldock and members of their drama group. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones will be hosts for a supper party on the terrace by the pool at their country home at Brooks in honor of the Baldocks and Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Doorman, who are soon moving to Portland.

Dinner Parties Are Calendars
Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be dinner hosts Thursday night at their Fairmount Hill residence for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Baldock. A few of their intimate friends have been invited to the affair. On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. David Eason and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Scoy of Jefferson are arranging a dinner party in honor of the Baldocks. The affair will be held at the Colonial House with cards in play following at the Eason home. Covers will be placed for 25 guests.

To Welcome Home Travelers
For Wednesday morning is the informal coffee for which Mrs. William J. Braun, Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. C. Lester Newman will be hostesses at the former's North 23rd Street home. The affair is being arranged in compliment to two European travelers, Mrs. Burton A. Myers and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer, who recently returned from extended trips abroad. Bidden to welcome home the travelers are members of their clubs and calling hours are from 10 to 12 o'clock.

Mrs. Ellen Fisher, who returned to the capital in mid-week from a four months' European trip, will be the guest of honor at a welcome home coffee on Wednesday morning when Miss Mary Eyre entertains at her Mill Street home. A few of the traveler's long-time friends have been invited to call between 10 and 12 o'clock.

To Entertain at Coffee
Coffee hostesses Wednesday afternoon will be Mrs. Harry Logan and Mrs. Donald Fisher, who are entertaining a group of their friends at Lipman's Cherry Room between 2:30 and 4:30 o'clock.

Headesses to Fete a Visitor
Mrs. Bert Walker of Kodiak, Alaska, who is spending the summer in Oregon will be the guest of honor at a coffee on Saturday morning for which Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mrs. Carl Steelhammer and Mrs. Maurice Heater will be hostesses. The affair will be held at the Felton residence on Sunrise Avenue with a group of Mrs. Walker's friends bidden to call between 10:30 and 1 o'clock. The Walkers formerly made their home here and she is attending the summer session at Oregon State College.

Fouring will be Mrs. Max Alford and Mrs. Russel Beulger. Assisting about the rooms and in the garden will be Mrs. Gordon Skinner, Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. H. C. Saalfeld, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Ray Rhoads, Mrs. Loring Grier, Mrs. Harry Esch, Mrs. Holly Jackson, Mrs. Kenneth Byers and Mrs. Lee Ohmart.

Rehearsal Dinner Planned
Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Chambers and Miss Dorthea Steusloff will be hosts for the rehearsal dinner honoring Miss Charlotte Alexander and her fiance, Thomas H. Wendel, Friday night at their Acorn Lane home. The marriage of the couple will be an event of Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church.

Family Party for Engaged Duo
Miss Sandra Wolf of Oswego and her fiance, Larry Paulus, will be the guests of honor at a family picnic on Sunday, August 5 when Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mills entertain at their Candalaria Heights home. The duo will be married on August 18 in Portland. Bidden are members of the Paulus and Livesley families. Coming from out-of-town will be the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wolf of Oswego, Guy Sargent and James Sargent of Vancouver, Wash., Dr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Banion, Mrs. Stuart Bush and sons, Asahel and Sam, of Portland.

New Citizens Are Greeted
AUBURN—A duo of little boys are being welcomed into Auburn homes. Felicitations go to Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Morin (Barbara Slater) on the birth of a son, James Richard, born July 20 at the Salem General Hospital. He weighed in at seven pounds and one and a half ounces. There are two brothers, John and Thomas, and a sister, Elizabeth. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Meria of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brewer of Seattle.

Greeting a second son born July 22 at the Salem General Hospital were Mr. and Mrs. Elton C. Spencer (Ella-Mae Bailey). The little boy has been named Jay Dean and he weighed six pounds, fourteen ounces. There is a brother, Elton Lester, and the grandparents are Harry Lester Spencer of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moyer of Portland. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Fred Chamberlain, Gresham, Mrs. John Deickman, Thomas, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey, Costa Mesa, Calif.

The Young Matrons Club will meet for a picnic Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Jean Morrison, 625 N. 13th Street, at 6:30 o'clock. Games will be in play following the picnic.

Married to Navy Officer

A bride of Saturday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal Church was Mrs. Robert James Miller, the former Anita Anne Tanning, daughter of Mrs. Nels Tanning, and Lt. (jg) Robert James Miller, U.S. Navy, son of James D. Miller of Vancouver, Wash. The 2 o'clock rites were performed at St. Episcopal Church by the Rev. George H. Swift.

Miss Marjorie McBride was the vocalist and Miss Ruth Bedford the organist. Bouquets of white gladioluses and blue asters and daisies with ivy banked the altar. Miss Judith Templeton and Miss Jean Hagen, wearing white organdy ballerina frocks over blue, lighted the candles.

The attractive bride was a picture in her bouffant gown of imported, embroidered organdy with tiered skirt terminating in a chapel train. The bodice was fashioned with short sleeves and a V neckline edged in the embroidery. She wore shortie white gloves embroidered in seed pearls. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a tiara of the organdy enhanced with the seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid and backed with ice blue net. Arthur Hagen gave the bride in marriage.

Walk Before the Bride
Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar, wearing ballerina gowns of white embroidered organdy over blue with blue cummerbunds. Their white horsehair braid picture hats were adorned with blue bows and they wore short, white gloves. Their bouquets were of blue daisies and ivy. Miss Dorothy Tanning was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Diane Bulman and Miss Maxine King were the bridesmaids.

John Miller of Los Angeles stood with his brother as best man. Seating the guests were Robert Morrison, Frank Birdsell and Per-Heige Tanning, cousin of the bride.

A blue lace gown with pink accessories was chosen by the bride's mother for the wedding. She pinned a deep pink orchid to her gown. Mrs. Miller wore a coral lace gown with beige accessories and a beige and brown orchid. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Adam Kuzenski, wore a dusty rose lace gown with a deep purple orchid.

A Garden Reception
The newlyweds greeted their guests at a garden reception at the home of the bride's mother on Croisan Creek Road. Mrs. Biarne Tanning, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. W. Claude Bulman poured and Mrs. Betty Templeton cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Joseph Avers, the Misses Bonnie Bulman, Lois Howell, Linda Tanning, cousin of the bride, and Bobbie Doames.

For her wedding trip to Carmel, Calif., the new Mrs. Miller donned a lime green sheath with matching green embroidered coat with white lace hat and white accessories. On returning from California the couple will go to Seattle for the Seafair races.

The couple will live temporarily in Portland until Lt. Miller receives notice of his extended assignment with the navy.

Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Shiffer and children, Julie and Allan, and Dr. and Mrs. Horace McGee and children, Charles and Susan, have returned from a week's sojourn at Crescent Lake.

Miss Anita Tanning is Bride of Lt. Robert Miller on Saturday

White accented with blue was the color scheme for the pretty mid-summer wedding Saturday afternoon uniting in marriage Miss Anita Anne Tanning, daughter of Mrs. Nels Tanning, and Lt. (jg) Robert James Miller, U.S. Navy, son of James D. Miller of Vancouver, Wash. The 2 o'clock rites were performed at St. Episcopal Church by the Rev. George H. Swift.

Richard Smith Takes Bride At St. Paul

A garden reception followed the wedding of Miss Betty Lou Marks and Richard Alan Smith on Saturday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in St. Paul. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Marks of Newberg and Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl James Smith of St. Paul.

The Rev. James Maxwell performed the 2 o'clock ceremony and the reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Of embroidered Swiss organdy was the bridal gown, fashioned with a basque waist, sweetheart neckline, short sleeves, and a bouffant skirt. Her illusion veil was caught with lilies-of-the-valley to a pearl embroidered organdy cap. She carried a silver Rosary and a bouquet of pale pink Frill roses.

Mrs. Grant McCullough Jr. was her sister's honor attendant and the bridesmaids were the Misses Karen Smith, the bridegroom's sister, Shirley Bredsted, Bobbe Rittenhouse and Renee Meyers. They wore identical gowns of bon bon pink embroidered crystallette with scoop Necklines and bouffant skirts. They wore pink floral head-dresses and carried bouquets of pale pink Frill roses and ivy.

Mark Ernst, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer and Pamela Backstrom and Cheryl Brooks were flower girls.

Brother is Best Man
Thomas Edward Smith stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Carl Eugene Smith, also a brother, Samuel Smith, Merle Kirk, Thomas Kirk, Lawrence Rasmussen and Grant McCullough Jr.

The bride's mother wore a coccinelle linen sheath with lace jacket and beige accessories. Mrs. Smith chose a turquoise florentine lace suit with pink accessories for her son's marriage. Their corsages were pink roses.

Mr. Smith, who is a graduate of Columbia Prep and Clarke Junior College in Vancouver, Wash., will continue his studies at the University of Portland this fall.

For her wedding trip to the Wallaw Lake region the new Mrs. Smith wore a mist blue sheer wool ensemble with white accessories. The couple will be at home in Portland at 3301 N.E. 72nd St. after August 15.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary, USWV, will meet for a dessert luncheon and social afternoon at Lipman's Cherry Room on Friday, August 3 at 1:30 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Elhel Kinney and Mrs. Clara Torbet.

Daughters of the American Revolution Past Regents picnic which was scheduled for Monday at Silver Falls has been cancelled.

Son Born to Thomsons

A son, Michael, was born Thursday at Salem Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. David A. Thomson of Portland. Grandparents are Mrs. M. Pederson of Salem and Mrs. and Mrs. Bertram Thomson, former Salem residents, now in New Jersey. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Cassie Privell, Longview, Wash.

Visitors in the capital are Dr. and Mrs. Ladd R. Griffith (Jeanne Hoffman) of Berkeley, Calif., who are guests at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman. Dr. Griffith received his doctorate of philosophy at the University of California this summer. The Griffiths have been visiting in Cory, Colorado with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, and are stopping here for a week enroute back to California.

Visitors Will Leave States

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Buick and sons, Barry and Tony, are leaving today for Vancouver, B. C., where they will sail on Tuesday for their home in Masterton, New Zealand. They have been visiting in the capital the past six weeks at the home of Mrs. Buick's mother, Mrs. Gilbert White, and sister, Miss Mary White.

Miss White is driving the Buicks to British Columbia and will vacation in Victoria for a week before returning home. The Buicks have been entertained at a round of parties by friends in Salem and throughout the state during their visit here.

Spinsters to Give Bridge Benefits

Committees have been named for the Spinsters annual summer bridge benefit parties, which will be held Friday, August 10 in the auditorium at Meier and Frank's.

Cards will be in play both afternoon and evening and refreshments will be served by the Spinsters. Hours are from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

Tickets may be obtained from any Spinster or by calling Mrs. Wallace Carson Jr. All proceeds from the benefits will be used to support the Spinsters philanthropic project this year, mentally retarded children.

Miss Alice Lehman is serving as general chairman of the benefits. Her committees include Miss Colleen Welch, tickets; Miss Catherine McCormack, Miss Sidney Kromer, decorations; Miss Eleanor Oakes, publicity; and Mrs. Wallace Carson Jr., reservations.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heltzel and their two eldest children, Kathi and Tom, are returning today from a week's stay in San Francisco, where Mr. Heltzel attended the annual meeting of the National Association of Railroad and Utility Commissioners.

Charltons Are Dinner Hosts

A summer visitor in the capital is Mrs. John Chenoweth of Fowler, Indiana, who is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Armin Berger. Mrs. Chenoweth formerly resided in Salem and will be remembered by her many friends as Julia R. White.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Charlton were hosts for a picnic supper in the garden of their South 23rd Street home for the pleasure of Mrs. Chenoweth.

Covers were placed for the guest of honor, Mrs. Armin Berger, Miss Ann Berger, Mr. and Mrs. James Teed and the Charltons.

Gamma Phi Picnic
The Hugh Taylor home at 1819 D Street will be the scene of the Gamma Phi Beta picnic Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock. All alumnae and actives are invited to attend the annual affair. The committee arranging the picnic includes Mrs. William H. Coffield, Mrs. Robert Burns and Mrs. Ethan Dale.
