Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. My mother-in-law persists in asking the price of everything my husband and I buy for our home. Is there anything I can do about this?
A. Probably the best way to handle this situation is to become extremely forgetful of prices.
Q. Would it be all right for a girl to borrow the wedding dress of a married friend for use at her wedding?
A. If the friend offers the dress to her, it would be all right. But it certainly would be a big breach of etiquette to ask to use the dress.

Miss Smalley To Marry in September

A change in the wedding plans of Miss Eleanor Jean Smalley and her fiancé, Delbert Bolton, is announced by Miss Smalley of the Oregon State Employees Association. Formerly scheduled for November, the date has been changed to Saturday, September 1.

The reason for the change is due to Mr. Bolton's leaving to accept a position with Boeing Aircraft, Seattle, where the young couple will make their home.

As previously stated, the wedding will take place in McMinnville, the home of Miss Smalley's parents, at the First Baptist Church.

Hedden-Sneed Reunion Held

MACLEAY—Seventy-eight members of the Hedden-Sneed families held a reunion Sunday at the Burson home on Culver Road. The group decided to make this an annual affair.

A basket dinner was served. Guy Richards of Forest Grove gave the invocation and Keith Rhodes of Lebanon acted as chairman.

Mrs. V. E. Burson was elected chairman for the next year and Mrs. Clarence Greig, secretary. P. A. Beaman of Grants Pass was the oldest member present and Terry Burson of Salem was the youngest. Relatives came from Grants Pass, Gold Hill, Eugene, Springfield, Silverton, Mullino, Lebanon, Forest Grove, Portland and Salem, and from Everett, Raymond, Mt. Vernon, West Port and Aberdeen, Washington.
