Gov. Smith Won't Try to Boot Langley

PORTLAND (AP) — Gov. Elmo Smith said Friday night he "will not be a party to any attempt to remove (Dist. Atty. William) Langley from office unless he is proven by the courts to be guilty of some crime."

The governor issued his statement as Langley, Chief of Police Jim Purcell Jr. and 27 others were arraigned in Circuit Court here on charges growing out of a grand jury investigation of vice conditions here.

Gov. Smith said Langley "is the duly elected official, and any pressure attempts to remove him from office because he is accused would be a contravention of the wishes of the people who elected him."

The district attorney is charged with malfeasance in office and conspiracy to permit gambling.

Meanwhile, Langley was served Friday night with a warrant charging assault and battery against a newspaper photographer, Allen deLay.

OUT ON SECOND STRIKE

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Charles McAuley was not so fortunate the second time a train struck him. He was killed by a train in the Northern Pacific Railway tunnel 30 miles east of Missoula. Authorities said he had been hit by a train once before, near Drummond.

Fourth Student To Enter College Set for Degree

ALAMOSA, Colo. (AP) — The fourth student to register at Adams State College when it opened in 1925 will receive her bachelor of arts degree Sunday.

The determined student is Mrs. Eleanor Percival of Hooper, Colo.

After her original enrollment, Mrs. Percival remained in school a year until she married. After that she raised three children. Her husband died three years ago and she resumed work on her degree then. She will teach in Corcoran, Calif., next year.

Holt Daughter Ill in Korea

EUGENE (AP) — A Creswell girl who has helped her father carry out a mercy airlift for Korean-American war orphans, is ill in Korea with hepatitis.

Her parents said Barbara Holt, 19, contacted the liver infection in Seoul while helping her father arrange American homes for the orphans. Mr. and Mrs. Holt said they are not alarmed about her condition.

Holt returned from the Far East earlier this week with another group of children for foster parents in the United States. He suffered a heart attack en route and is resting at his home.

Idaho Primary Could Make, Break Pair

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Idaho votes Tuesday in a primary election that could make or break the futures of two of its most colorful and controversial political figures.

There are contests to be decided in the nominations for senator and one seat in Congress, two Supreme Court vacancies to be filled, and scores of seats at stake in the State Legislature and county court houses.

But the chief interest centers on the fight for the U. S. Senate seat, where the Republicans will choose from five candidates and the Democrats from four.

Second Term

With the Republicans, it's a question of whether Sen. Herman Welker, a frequent critic of the Eisenhower administration, is to return to the Senate for a second six-year term.

The Democrats will decide whether to go again with Glen Taylor of Pocatello, whose stormy career includes six tries for the Senate, one of them successful, and a campaign for the vice presidency on a third party ticket in 1948.

Welker's rivals include John Sanborn, 71, who served two terms in Congress; Dr. Ray J. Davis, a botany professor from Idaho State College; William S. Holden of Idaho Falls, Welker's sharpest critic; and Mark L. Streeter of Shelley, a newcomer to politics who has talked about the "Streeter no-tax plan", an idea to finance government by printing more money.

Opposition Listed

Taylor, who ran for vice president with Henry Wallace on the Progressive Party ticket in 1948, is opposed by Claude Burtenshaw, a Ricks College political science professor; Alvin McCormack, a Lewiston farmer, and Frank Church, 32, a Boise lawyer.

Rep. Gracie Pfost (D-Idaho) is unopposed in the primary in her bid for another term in Congress from the First District. Louise Shadduck, a former Coeur d'Alene newspaperwoman and assistant to Sen. Dworshak (R-Idaho) is unopposed for the GOP nomination.

Area Entries Place High in Gladioli Show

PORTLAND (AP) — Salem area entries placed high in two events of the Gladiolus show held here Saturday.

The award for best container, a basket of Sierra Snow, went to Weeks Gladiolus Gardens, Salem. It also won a special All-America award for a Royal Stewart, one of two varieties introduced this year by the All-America Gladiolus Selections organization.

Peggy White of Silverton entered the best three-spike bloom, displayed by Pacific Sunset Gardens, Silverton.

The best garden club entry was shown by the Town and Country Garden Club, Waterloo, Ore. (Linn County).

Artist, Seven Others Die in 2 Car Crashes

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP)—Eight persons were killed Saturday night in two separate car accidents in this fashionable eastern Long Island resort area. One of those dead was identified as Jackson Pollock, a modern abstract painter.

Four other persons were taken to the Southampton Hospital where two were reported in critical condition. The smashup tied up traffic for miles on two roads crowded by weekend motorists.

Six of those killed died on Montauk Road, four miles west of here, when a westbound car went out of control and smashed headon into an oncoming automobile. Pollock was killed in another crash when his car hit an embankment.

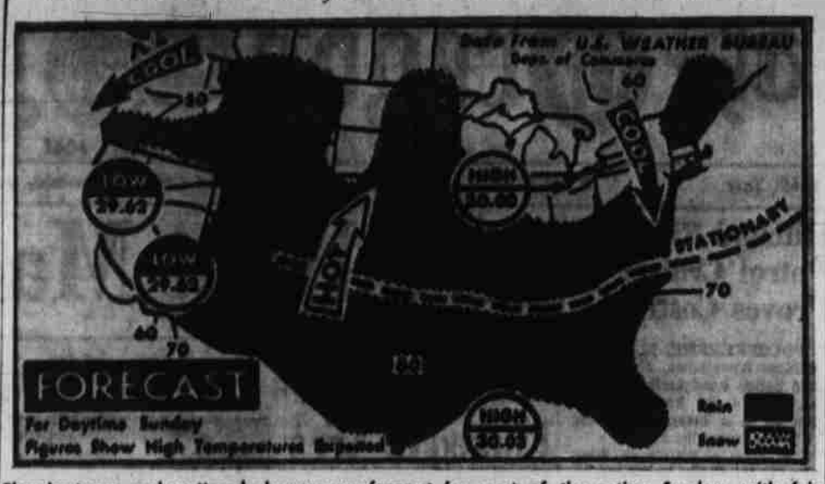
Oregon GOP Unit Plans for Convention

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oregon GOP officials were making final plans Saturday for meetings prior to the Republican National Convention opening in San Francisco Aug. 20.

Jess Gard, Republican national committeeman for Oregon, said state members of the national committee and convention committees will leave for San Francisco early in the week to attend the sessions, scheduled to begin Wednesday.

Thunderstorms, Showers Due Across U.S.



Thunderstorms and scattered showers are forecast for most of the nation Sunday, with fair skies predicted only for a band from southern New England through the Great Lakes, part of the Dakotas, Washington, California and Nevada. Temperatures are expected to remain relatively unchanged through Sunday. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

New U.S. Trial For Red Party Handed Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Subversive Activities Control Board which ruled in 1953 that the U.S. Communist party was a tool of Moscow, Saturday refused it a "new trial."

SACB rejected the party's demand for a full-scale reopening of long drawn out proceedings which ended with the board requiring the party to register with the Justice Department, list its members and give an annual financial accounting.

Adopting one of the two alternatives given it by the Supreme Court last April, the board decided to expunge the testimony of three government witnesses—Paul Crouch, Manning Johnson and Harvey Matusow.

New Determination

This course made it unnecessary for the board to hold still further hearings. But it will still have to make a new determination of the Communist party's status.

The Supreme Court, saying it wanted to make sure, the board did not rely upon "tainted" evidence, told the SACB it could either disregard the testimony of Crouch, Johnson and Matusow or give Communist party attorneys an opportunity to try to discredit it.

MODERN PHONES

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Hand-cranked telephones are marvels of modern communication in some of the jungle areas of West Africa. So when Miss Aletha Fuller left for her mission post at Joinkrama, Nigeria, she took six more. Three of the hand-cranked telephones earlier were installed at the Southern Baptist Mission Hospital there. The six she took with her were a gift from the Taylor County Telephone Cooperative. The agency no longer uses that type.

2 Burglaries Investigated At City Stores

Investigation of a bungled burglary attempt at two Salem jewelry stores Friday night continued Saturday but no burglary charges had been filed.

Police reported Friday that attempts had been made to cut windows at Pomeroy & Keene Jewelers, 379 States St., and the Jewel Box, 443 State St. Windows at both firms were scratched, apparently with a glass cutter, but no serious cuts were made, officers said.

Tape had been placed on windows at both stores, probably to reduce noise when the glass broke.

Two men were picked up at the Jewel Box about 10 p.m. Friday and charged with vagrancy. Police said one of the men admitted the attempted burglaries. The men were supplied with two rolls of adhesive tape and a glass cutter at the time of the arrest, reports showed.

BUTANE TANK STOLEN

A five-gallon butane tank valued at $10 was taken from her front yard Saturday evening, Mrs. Hazel Elliott, 2340 Claude St., reported to city police.

Hodge Guilty Plea Due in Illinois Fraud

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)— An attorney for Orville E. Hodge said Saturday night the ousted state auditor will plead guilty Monday to charges growing out of a million dollar check cashing scandal in his office.

Arthur M. Fitzgerald, Hodge's chief lawyer, made the statement to reporters.

He said Hodge will appear in Circuit Court Monday morning, plead guilty and "take his sentence." Fitzgerald did not elaborate.

State's Atty. George P. Coutrakon of Sangamon County was not available for comment immediately.

He has said he will oppose any immediate sentencing and wants to present "the whole argument of the state and the testimony of witnesses in aggrevation of the charges."

There have been repeated conversations between Fitzgerald and Coutrakon relative to the possibility of Hodge changing his previous plea of innocent to guilty.

Fitzgerald only Friday said, "I'd like to have a guilty plea, but I'm not going to dispose of it on any terms but my own."

Earlier, Saturday, Coutrakon and Fitzgerald both acknowledged they had another telephone conversation about the case—which, both said, ended with Fitzgerald hanging up on the prosecutor. Neither revealed details of the talk.

Hodge is charged in Sangamon County on 46 indictments of embezzlement, forgery and confidence game and is free on $100,000 bond.

Pen Walls No Wife Barrier

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Even in prison, Abilio Pires couldn't escape his wife.

Pires, whose home was in Moncao in northern Portugal, served a prison term here for trying to leave the country without permission. Shortly after his release, he died.

Now his wife, Aurora, has been sentenced to 28 years at hard labor.

The local court found that on regular visits while he was behind bars she brought him homemade dishes dosed with rat poison and bottles of beer laced with acid.

Three Die in Idaho Crash

SANDPOINT, Idaho (AP) — Three persons died in a one-car highway crash near here early Saturday. An automobile missed a curve, plunged down an embankment and landed upside down.

Roy A. Hagler, 21, and Roy Jennes, 17, were killed outright. Vernon Dawson, 20, died in a hospital two hours later. All the victims lived in Clark Fork, Idaho.
