STUDENTS WORK
TOKYO (U) - Japanese school children love summer vacation just as American children do. But 56 of them worked part of their holiday to get enough money to pay for the expenses of five needy fellow students on the annual class excursion to the ancient cities of Kyoto and Nara. Instructor Haruya Toyama has figured that the money will be made by the time school opens next month.

Robert Riggs Takes Bride at Nuptials

Of interest to the bridegroom's friends is the marriage of Miss Virginia Rae Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansen of Longview, Wash., and Robert Colburn Riggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Riggs of Salem, which took place on August 12 at the First Baptist Church in Longview. Dr. H. C. Price of Portland performed the afternoon ceremony. Thomas Tavener was the vocalist and Miss Sandra Brown the organist.

The bride's gown was fashioned of rose patterned lace and nylon tulle with tulle skirt banded in lace. Handcut lace edged the neckline and iridescent sequins were embroidered on the bodice. Her fingertip length veil fell from a headpiece of rose patterned lace embroidered in sequins. She carried a cascade of roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Princess style gowns of turquoise embroidered taffeta, with ballerina skirts were worn by the attendants. They carried baskets of Esther Reed daisies and roses.

Sister Honor Attendant
Miss Jackie Hansen, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Tavener of Albany, Miss Helen Hopkins of Lewiston, Idaho, and Miss Nannette Monk of Portland, a cousin of the bride. The flower girls were Karen Marie Hansen, a cousin of the bride and Carol Holman, Gregg Riggs, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ringbearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hansen chose a lavender and white printed nylon gown and Mrs. Riggs was in navy blue. Their corsages were gold orchids.

Dave Riggs, of Salem, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Thomas Nash of Salem, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Jerome Kenagy, Albany, and Charles McClelland Jr., Salem.

Reception Follows Rites
The wedding reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Thomas Nash of Salem was among those assisting at the bride's table.

For her wedding trip to Crater Lake and along the Oregon coast, the new Mrs. Riggs donned a white line dress embroidered in beige with beige hat and brown accessories.

The couple will make their home in Seattle, where both will be teaching this winter.

Among the out-of-town guests at the ceremony were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William English of Salem.

YOUTH CRIME UP
NEW YORK (U) - New York police, alarmed by a 41.3 per cent increase in juvenile delinquency this year, have asked 254 cities in the United States, its territories and Canada for advice on how to fight youth crime.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE
Q. If the wedding is to be so small that engraved invitations are considered unnecessary, how should the invitations be sent?
A. Personally - written invitations may be sent by the bride-elect.
Q. Is a businessman privileged to tell his secretary that she overdoes, or uses too-bright makeup?
A. He may tell her that she is too distracting to other employees, and that he would appreciate it if she would tone down her dress and makeup.
