Joe Smiths To Help Adlai Raise Money

By ED CREAGH
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson got together with Joe Smith—in person—today, in the interest of raising seven million dollars for the Democratic campaign.
 The presidential nominee appeared at a news conference with Joseph Edward Smith, former mayor of Oakland, Calif., to kick off two financial drives—a house-to-house canvass for donations Oct. 15 and a night of fund-raising dinners in big cities Oct. 30.
 Oakland's Joe Smith was named honorary chairman of the Oct. 15 "Dollars for Democrats" day.
 Fifteen local chairmen also were appointed. They all are named Joe Smith.
 The Democrats thus stepped up their already extensive use of the incident at the Republican National Convention when a delegate was ordered out for attempting to put the name of a mythical "Joe Smith" into nomination against Vice President Nixon.
 Matthew McCloskey, Democratic National Committee treasurer, told today's news conference the party now has around $50,000 in its treasury. This would be only about 25 per cent of the cost of a single nationwide television broadcast. The cash-on-hand figure did not include, however, contributions already pledged or expected.
 National Chairman Paul M. Butler said the Democrats already have contracted for 1 1/2 million dollars worth of TV times and have another $1,300,000 worth under consideration.

Man Stabbed; Ex-Wife of Marquis Held

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—A blonde divorced wife of a French marquis, accused of stabbing a young Park Avenue man with a letter opener, was continued at liberty in $1,000 bail today for grand jury action on a felonious assault charge.
 William Grey, 26, of 410 Park Ave., testified at a hearing before magistrate Ludwig Glowa that Mrs. Irene de la Begasiere, 40, wounded him after hearing him talk on a telephone with another woman.
 Asst. Dist. Atty. Carl A. Vergari, explaining he was exploring for a motive, asked Grey whether he had been intimate with Mrs. de la Begasiere.
 "Yes, infrequently."
 "Yes, I was, infrequently," Grey said.
 Grey said he had known Mrs. de la Begasiere for about a year before attending a cocktail party with about 200 other guests at her apartment.
 He said after the other guests had left, he asked to use her telephone. He said she consented.
 Grey was talking on the phone with a woman when Mrs. de la Begasiere broke into the conversation and began calling the other woman names, he testified.
 Assaulted Him
 He said Mrs. de la Begasiere then assaulted him, holding a letter opener and trying to scratch his face.
 Mrs. de la Begasiere previously had told police that Grey fell on the letter opener while she was trying to scare him away.

Verdict Seals Doom in Lad's Cancer Fight

ATLANTA, Sept. 18 (AP)—The fate of Johnny Pair, 5, apparently was decided today, as far as his parents are concerned.
 Mrs. Bessie Pair, his mother, placed him in a day nursery so she could work and announced her hands are tied against an operation that might save his life.
 She said Arnold Pair, Johnny's father, from whom she is divorced, gave her a final and unequivocal "no" last night to prospects of an operation. She said he told her: "My answer is no and I don't want to talk to anyone else about it."
 Only Chance
 Doctors reaffirmed that Johnny's only chance to survive a cancer of his remaining right eye is to sacrifice his sight to an operation that might stop the malignancy. They also admit the operation, which would plunge the boy into total darkness, might not save his life.
 Mrs. Pair, too upset to discuss it, announced through her sister, Mrs. Lurline Doyles, she wanted to thank all of the people who have sent cards, letters, gifts, and offers of their own eyes to Johnny since his plight was publicized.
 Depends on Love
 "I'll stay with him as much as possible, make him as happy as I can, and depend on the Lord for guidance and help," she said.
 Mrs. Doyles said Mrs. Pair had to go to work, even though she was heartbroken, to support her children. She has two older children by a previous marriage.
