Jo Ann Wilcox Is Fall Bride Of Donald J. Mansfield

An afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist Church on September 8 united in marriage Miss Jo Ann Fauneil Wilcox and Donald James Mansfield. The early fall bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilcox, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mansfield.

The Rev. Brooks Moore officiated and Everett Wilcox, brother of the bride, gave Miss Wilcox in marriage. Professor Josef Schelker was the organist and Mrs. Roscoe Sexton sang.

Candlelighters were Miss Patricia Sexton and Robert Wilcox. The bride wore a gown of white lace over satin with long sleeves; scalloped finished neckline and the bouffant floor-length skirt was of lace with inserts of nylon tulle and a nylon tulle overskirt.

A fingertip length veil was held in place by a coronet of mother of pearl sequins and baby pearls. The bride carried a white orchid on a white Bible with cascade of pink bouvardia.

Wearing ice blue crystallette over tulle was the matron of honor, Mrs. Carl Wemel, whose bouquet was a cascade of white Fuji chrysanthemums and red rosebuds. Her gown was fashioned with drop waistline and unpressed pleats in the skirt.

The bridesmaids, Miss Claudia Chapman and Mrs. Richard McMullen, wore similar dresses of sky blue and carried flowers arranged like the matron of honor's.

Debra Dunlop was the flower girl and Dennis Klausen the ring-bearer.

Carl Wemel was the best man and ushers were Joseph Pratt, brother-in-law of the groom, Richard McMullen, and Jerry Dunn, a cousin of the groom.

A blue silk shantung ensemble with pink accessories was worn by the mother of the bride and the groom's mother chose a black ensemble with white accessories. Pink cymbidium orchids were worn by both mothers.

At the reception in the Carriage Room of the church the bride's grandmother, Mrs. B. E. Elliott, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Irma Lynn, poured. Mrs. Everett Wilcox and Mrs. Wayne Wilcox, sisters-in-law of the bride, cut the cake and assisting were the groom's sister, Mrs. Joe Pratt; the groom's aunt, Miss Helen Whitcomb, Mrs. Jerry Dunn, Miss Georgine Dunlop and Miss Grace Wehl.

For their wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the bride changed to a dusty blue printed sheath dress with lined pink coat and the white orchid corsage from her bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Miami where the groom continues his studies at the University of Miami.

Miss Nelke Sets December 1 Date

December 1 has been set as the wedding date for Miss Betty Nelke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nelke, to Richard C. Mitchell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mitchell of Portland.

The bride-elect, whose engagement was announced recently, is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy and is now employed at the state civil defense office. Mr. Mitchell was graduated from Central Catholic High School in Portland and is an air technician, stationed at the Portland Air Base.

A surprise housewarming was given Sunday, September 16, for Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Brooten at their new home, 2270 E. Rural Street. It was a covered-dish supper arranged by members of the Refrigeration Service Engineers Society and Auxiliary.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. How does a home wedding differ from a church wedding?

A. The big difference is that the bride and bridegroom do not take a single step together. He meets her at the point where the service is to be read, and after the ceremony there is no recession. The clergyman withdraws; an usher removes the prayer bench, and the newly-weds merely turn where they stand and receive the good wishes of their guests.

Q. Is it proper to issue invitations to a cocktail party over the telephone?

A. Certainly.

A Collegiate Bride

Mrs. Richard Lynne Boynton (Jean Eileen VanValkenburgh), shown here, and her husband are continuing their studies at Oregon State College. They were married recently in Seattle. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Van Valkenburgh of that city and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vane Boynton of Salem. (Rowland Studio, Seattle).

Amity Wedding Unites Couple

UNIONVALE—The marriage of Miss Imo Mary Rutschman of this community and Jack Green of Monmouth was solemnized at the Amity Baptist Church parsonage with the Rev. R. R. Greenwald officiating Friday September 14, at 3 p.

The bride chose a mauve suit with navy accessories for her wedding. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lehman of Amity stood with the couple, who left immediately for coastal points and visited Crater Lake before returning to their home south of Monmouth where they will reside.

Three Salem Girls Pledged

University of Oregon sororities pledged 69 University coeds during a four-day rushing period for upperclassmen and transfer students.

On the pledge list from Salem are Jane Barlow, pledged by Delta Gamma; Eileen Hanna, pledged by Alpha Delta Pi and Jeanette Siddall, pledged by Delta Zeta.

This special rushing period, used for the first time last year, permits the pledges to move directly into their sorority houses before registration and before formal freshman rush. Freshmen women pledged during the regular rushing periods are required to live in dormitories during their first year on the campus.

To Show Pictures

Mrs. Mary Champ will show pictures of her recent trip to Europe when the American Gold Star Mothers meet Friday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. at her home, 1760 C Street.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. J. D. White and Mrs. Ben Larkins.

All Gold Star parents and friends are invited to attend services at the First Christian Church Sunday, September 23, at 7:30 p.m., in observance of National Gold Star Mothers Sunday.
