

Silverton Girl Weds Arizonan

A late summer bride is Mrs. Ronald E. Vietmeier, the former Doris Joyce Bailey, whose wedding August 30 was an event at the Phoenix Gospel Temple in Phoenix, Ariz.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Omar Bailey of Silverton and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Vietmeier of Scottsdale, Ariz.

The Rev. Ralph Watson of Phoenix performed the eight o'clock ceremony. David H. Banks, a brother-in-law, gave the bride in marriage.

A gown of white Chantilly lace with fitted bodice and tiered net ballerina length skirt was worn by the bride who carried a bouquet of tiny pink rosebuds.

The matron of honor, Mrs. David H. Banks of Phoenix, sister of the bride, wore a baby blue crystal-embroidered ballerina length dress and carried blue tinted daisies.

A niece of the bride, Debra Banks, was flower girl. Best man was Bud Barnett and ushers were John Zobel and Luke Harshman.

At the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. John Peyton, Mrs. John Zobel, Mrs. Ralph Watson, Miss Elsie Auld and Miss Carol Vietmeier assisted.

After a short wedding trip to Grand Canyon, the couple will be at home at 222 W. Curtis, Scottsdale, Ariz. The bride is a graduate of Silverton High School and a former state police department employe in Salem. The groom is in business in Scottsdale.

Masquerade Party for Beauticians

THESE MASKED LADIES are not exactly having themselves a ball. They are students at a cosmetics school in Frankfurt, Germany, and they have applied an ointment to their faces as part of their instruction in the secrets of cosmetics experts. The students receive six months of training before they are permitted to help others on the road to beauty. (AP Wirephoto).

Bride-Elect Feted At Buffet, Shower

Professors Scrabble; Students Wait

By FLOSSY HODGE

Registration day brought an unusual bit of intellectual entertainment to the school as five professors joined in a fast game of Scrabble while students stood in the fee line. Dr. Gail Curry, Dr. Martha Springer, and Professor Donald Breaker were among the contestants battling out the game. No one knows exactly who won, but Dr. Curry was heard crying jubilantly "Double Word Score!"

Red Cook of Grants Pass was elected president of the men of the freshmen class last Monday. At the same time Ginny Grant, from San Mateo, Calif., was chosen as temporary secretary of the class. Cook is a pledge of Beta Theta Pi and Ginny is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi.

A huge cake flaming with 156 candles was presented to Doney Hall's housemother, Mrs. Wissenbach on Tuesday evening in honor of her birthday. Wearing a corsage of tiny purple orchids brought from Hawaii by Lillie Kealoha, the surprised housemother blew out all 156 of the candles in seven breaths.

Duane Erstgaard, a junior law student from Willamette, has been appointed national vice president of the American Law Student Association for his district. Erstgaard, who lives in Salem, will have jurisdiction over the association's twelfth district which covers Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana. An honor student both semesters last year, Erstgaard received his BA in psychology from Willamette.

"Y Roundup" is the theme of the Big Little Sister party which will be an event this coming Sunday from 4:30 to 6 o'clock at the YWCA. Big Little Sister commission chairman Shirley McCauley of Salem assisted by the Y cabinet is in charge of the party.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Poindexter

A stork shower honored Mrs. J. W. Poindexter at her home Monday evening with Mrs. Arnold Meyer and Mrs. Finn Svendsen as hostesses.

Miss Doris Isbell and Miss Zennie Stauffer showed slides of their trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, and bridge was in play during the evening.

Willamette's artist-in-residence, Carl Hall, is currently being exhibited in Bush House. Included in the show are color sketches from a train show which toured the country under auspices of the 8th army this summer.

Six new housemothers are being welcomed on the Willamette campus. Mrs. Garnett Parks is thoroughly enjoying being housemother for the men of Baxter Hall. She just left the U of Alabama where she had been housemother for a group of girls for three years.

Mrs. Mary E. Booth comes to Alpha Chi Omega to assume the duties of housemother after living in Enterprise for 37 years. She has worked with Rainbow Girls and is a member of the Congregational church.

Housemother at Sigma Chi is Mrs. Rachel McWilliams from Glendon Beach, Oregon. The Willamette campus is a familiar thing for Mrs. McWilliams who was housemother for Sigma Chi in '47-'48.

New housemother for Chi Omega is Mrs. Mary Lanagan who hails from San Francisco where she was with Denslow's gift shop in the Fairmont hotel for five years.

Mrs. Ida Wootton who made her home in Salem for 27 years is now housemother for Sigma Alpha Epsilon. She spent three years in Washington, D.C. where her husband was active in the National Headquarters for Selective Service.

Mrs. Jeannette Sawyer is housemother for Pi Beta Phi. Her husband, the late Dr. John L. Sawyer, was pastor of the Zion Lutheran church in The Dalles for two years after spending five years in British Columbia.

Attending were Mesdames William Egan, Burt Moore, Robert May, Willis Shipman, Leonard Bedaul, Curtis Raeker, J. P. Robinette, and Eugene Olson.

Sigma Kappa alumnae scheduled a rummage sale for October 10 at their first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. George LeTourneau Wednesday evening. Mrs. LeTourneau was elected vice president and Miss Donna Anderson was welcomed as a new member by the president, Mrs. Edwin Becker.

Chapter BC, PEO, will hold its first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Burton A. Myers Tuesday, September 25, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. George H. Swift will be co-hostess.
