Pickets in Trouble

Arrests Made CHICAGO, Sept. 20—Pickets on line at Swift & Co., nation's largest meat packer, create trouble for police as they prevent arrest of one of their members Thursday. There were sporadic arrests at Chicago's sprawling stockyards as two unions involved in strike threw up picket lines and halted employees of other packers at 14 entrances for gate identification checks. Snow, Already SHERMAN, N. Y., Sept. 20—The calendar said "summer" Thursday as Warren VanDewark and Lyle Warner of the Chautauque County Highway Dept. coldly view their snowy writing on blade of plow they'll be using all too soon. Temperatures in 30s accompanied the Western New York snow flurries. (AP Wirephoto).

Baron and Bride LUGANO, Switzerland, Sept. 20—Baron Heinrich Thyssen, 35, Swiss industrialist, and his bride, the former Fiona Campbell-Walter, 24, London model, wave from car as they leave the Baron's villa here enroute to Italy for honeymoon. It was third marriage for the Baron in 10 years. (AP Wirephoto).

West Wet The eastern half of the nation will have clear to partly cloudy skies Friday except for few snow flurries in lower Lakes region and rain in Minnesota. Rain is also expected from north Pacific coast to Rockies. It will be cool in northern part of U. S. except for warmer weather in Mississippi Valley. (AP Wirephoto Map).
