Ike's Geneva House Declared Monument

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 20 (AP)—President Eisenhower's "Little White House" during the Big Four summit conference of 1955 has been declared a historic monument by the Geneva cantonal government.

The mansion, built in 1723 in the best 18th century French style, once was the home of Horace-Benedict de Saussure, one of the first Alpinists to climb Mt. Blanc. It was loaned to the President for the summit conference by its present owner, industrialist Andre Firmenich.

CALL FOR BIDS

Sealed bids will be received by the Marion County Court, Room 110, Court House, Salem, Oregon, until 10:00 A. M., Friday, October 5, 1956, on the purchase of one (1) 1956, or later model, two-door sedan and trade in of one (1) 1952 Dodge 3-passenger coupe on said purchase, and then will be publicly opened and read.

Specifications may be obtained from the office of the Marion County Court.

The trade-in model may be inspected by appointment with the Marion County Juvenile Department.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of 10% of the bid price.

The County reserves the right to reject any and all bids, or accept that bid in the best interest of Marion County.

*Classified ads will be run in both papers to give advertisers the advantages of the tremendous combined circulations.

When an ad is ordered three or six times and a Sunday issue is included (for example Friday, Saturday, Sunday) the lower Sunday rates apply because only The Statesman publishes Sundays.

Classified ads will start in the morning Oregon Statesman, conclude in the evening Capital Journal—but ads will be accepted for Sunday Statesman only.

The deadline for classified ads is 1:00 p.m. the day before publication except for Sunday when deadline is 5:30 p.m. Friday. Emergency ads and small line ads received after 1:00 p.m. weekdays and until 12 noon Saturday for Sunday may be placed in the "Too Late to Classify" column.

Ads for Monday papers must be in by 5 p.m. Saturday.

The Statesman-Journal Newspapers reserve the right to reject questionable advertising; it further reserves the right to place all advertising under the proper classification.

The Statesman-Journal Newspapers assume no financial responsibility for errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns and in cases where this paper is at fault will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical mistake occurs.

A "Blind" Ad—an ad containing a Statesman-Journal Newspapers box number for an address—is for the protection of the advertisers and must therefore be answered by letter. The Statesman-Journal Newspapers are not at liberty to divulge information as to the identity of an advertiser using a "Blind" ad.

THIS NEWSPAPER STRIVES to protect its readers against fraud, deception or injuries. Readers are cautioned to make NO PAYMENTS to get a position advertised in the help wanted columns. All help wanted ads MUST SPECIFY THE NATURE OF THE WORK. Sales help wanted ads must state if the pay is in the form of salary, commissions, guarantee or include firm name. Bona fide offers of employment with pay belong to the "Help Wanted" columns.

Ads in other columns which require investment in stocks, samples, equipment or cash bond should be thoroughly investigated before paying out any money. Advertisers requiring a cash investment for samples or merchandise, sales aids, etc., must so specify in their ads.

Kindly report any exception to this rule to the classified advertising manager.
