

Travelers, Civic Events Highlight Social News...

Statesman's HOME
Panorama
 Women ... Music ... Fashions ... Features
 (Sec. 3) Statesman, Salem, Ore., Sunday, Oct. 7, 1956

Bound ... for Europe and South Africa, left to right, are Dr. Mary B. Purvine, Mrs. Paul Jaquet of Victor Point and Miss Dorathea Steusloff, who leave by plane for Copenhagen via the polar flight on October 15. Mrs. Jaquet will tour Europe with her son, Bill Jessup, returning home in late November. Dr. Purvine and Miss Steusloff will travel briefly in Europe, going on to Africa and the game country, the Belgian Congo and as far south as Capetown. They will return to the states by ship the end of December.

A South American ... trip is on the schedule for Mr. and Mrs. Duane Gibson, who leave Thursday. Their main destination is Curitiba, where they will make an extended visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hansell Jr. The Gibsons will visit in Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires and Lima, Peru, before returning to the states in February. They will go by ship to South America, but will make the return trip by plane.

(All photos by Kennell-Ellis Studio)

Flying ... to the Far East this month will be Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Lebold. Their main stops will be Hawaii, Japan, Formosa, Hong Kong and the Philippines, where Dr. Lebold will attend surgical clinics of the International College of Surgeons. They will return to Tokyo for a month to visit their son and daughter-in-law, the Robert Lebolds.

Busy ... with plans for the opening concert of the Portland Symphony Orchestra in Salem on October 16 are the above board and committee members of the Salem Symphony Society, the sponsoring group. Left to right are Mrs. Stuart Lancefield, Marvin Roth, new board members, Mrs. George Schwarz, chairman of ticket sales, Donald Gleckler, also a new board member, and Mrs. Frank Burlingham, who is serving on the publicity committee.

Discussing ... one of the Beethoven selections to be played at the opening concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra on October 16 are Theodore deLooze and Carl Ritchie, at the right, who are beginning their second term on the board of the Salem Symphony Society. Three concerts will be given this year by the Portland Symphony at the Willamette University Fine Arts Auditorium.

A one-night ... only benefit performance of "Private Lives" by the Pentacle Theatre players will be sponsored by the Salem Memorial Hospital Auxiliary on Friday, October 12 at the Fine Arts Auditorium at Willamette University. Pictured at the left are Mrs. James C. Stone and Mrs. James G. Watts, co-chairmen of the benefit show for the auxiliary, Mrs. Willis Ross, center, who takes the female lead in "Private Lives", and Robert Putnam, the director.

