

Founder's Day Celebration for Alpha Phi

Alpha Phi alumnae will celebrate Founder's Day at a 7:30 o'clock dinner Monday night at the Candaris home of Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett, 2870 Skopli Ave. Mrs. Robert Friess, president, will conduct the Founder's Day ceremony, assisted by Mrs. Chester Lee and Mrs. Evan Rolse.

Alpha Phi was founded in 1872 at Syracuse University, N. Y. There are now 56 chapters, including 3 in Canada.

The alumnae will welcome Mrs. Wallace Brennan, a newcomer to Salem, who until recently has been a member of the national executive board. Plans will be made for the official visit of Mrs. Kenneth Waley of Vancouver, B. C., district governor, on October 12. She will also visit the active chapters at the University of Oregon and Oregon State College.

Mrs. Sydney Kromer, state chairman, will give a report on the international convention she attended as a delegate at Mackinac Island, Mich. in July. Cardiac aid is the national project of Alpha Phi and the Oregon alumnae have furnished money for heart research and have just completed furnishing two children's playrooms

Nancy O'Neil Becomes Bride of Orland Green on Saturday

Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums in the gold and bronze tones provided the setting for the evening ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday uniting in marriage Miss Nancy Jane O'Neil and Orland Kenneth Green. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederick O'Neil and Mr. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orland Winton Green.

Dr. Paul Newton Poling performed the 8 o'clock nuptials. Dave Kennedy was the vocalist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Janice Holland and Miss Bobbie Lou Stanley of Eugene.

Of lace and tulle over satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a bouffant skirt ending in a cathedral train. The skirt was made with a deep flounce, edged in a lace ruffle. Her illusion veil was enhanced with a wide band of Valencia lace. She carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums.

The Bridal Attendants
Mrs. Don Blischke, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jeanette O'Neil, also a sister, and Mrs. James B. Tooze, the bridegroom's sister. They wore gold crystallette ballerina frocks with matching headresses and carried bouquets of bronze daisy chrysanthemums.

Deborah Girard was the flower girl and she wore a gold crystallette frock and carried a miniature nosegay.

Larry Thomas Mathews stood with Mr. Green as best man. Seating the guests were James B. Tooze, Gary Parker, Mel Miller, and Donald Petty of Houston, Texas.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. O'Neil wore an olive green wool crepe dress with brown hat and accessories. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. Green attended her son's marriage in a brown linen and chiffon gown with beaded yoke of beige lace and a beige velvet hat with feather trim. Her flowers were green cymbidium orchids.

Greet Guests at Reception
The newlyweds greeted their guests in the church parlor. Mrs. Thomas Girard of Independence, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Virgil O'Neil poured. Mrs. George Stanley and Mrs. Richard Hurch cut the cake. Assisting were Mesdames Robert Stanley, Eugene, Ben Radcliffe, Dave Kennedy, Mel Miller, Ronald Hardman, Fred Smalley, George Fulton, John Unruh, Howard Olsen, Eunice H. Bynon, Harold Freeman, H. E. Bibelheimer, Misses Phyllis Newland, Hermelene Her-ring, Ronna Hardman and Kay Lindsey.

For the wedding trip the new Mrs. Green donned a black and white check wool tweed sheath dress with black accessories and a beige top coat. After October 20 the couple will be at home in Salem at 788 South 25th St.

Bride at Church Rites

A bride of Saturday night was Mrs. Orland Kenneth Green, the former Nancy Jane O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fredrick O'Neil. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orland Winton Green. The ceremony was performed at the First Presbyterian Church with a reception following. (Higgins-Steffens-Colmer Studio, Portland).
