Miss Anita Wilde Married to Joseph Schaefer at St. Mary's

Mt. Angel, Miss Anita Marie Wilde, whose wedding to Joseph Schaefer Saturday morning, was one of the social events of the early Fall, walked up the aisle of St. Mary's Catholic church with her father, who gave her in marriage. The bride is the eldest of the six daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Wilde of Mt. Angel and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arthur Schaefer and the late Mr. Schaefer of Route 1, Molalla.

The Rev. Edward Spear, OSB read the double ring vows and was celebrant at the 10 o'clock nuptial high mass, for which Joseph Schwab and Vincent Hammer, cousins of the bride, served. Miss Helen Keber was the organist, and St. Mary's choir, of which the bride was a member, sang the mass. Mrs. Al Schroeder and her daughter, Louise, of Salem sang. The bride wore traditional gown of bridal satin enhanced with hand-clipped Rosepoint lace. Scalloped lace and seed pearls outlined the portrait neckline of the long-sleeved lace bodice and rosepoint formed a pleatum over the front of the full satin skirt and cascaded into a long court train. A crown of seed pearls and lace cap held the double finger veil illusion.

She carried a mother of pearl missal, gift of her only brother, Charles, which was topped with a white orchid. For sentiment, she carried a white pearl rosary, first communion gift from her godmother, Mrs. Alvin Saultfield, and a lace handkerchief which was given to her by her aunt, Mrs. Clyde Lindsey, Oakdale, California. The Female Attendants - Miss Ruth Wilde in emerald green crystalettes was her sister's honor attendant and Mrs. Tony Pfeiffer, Silverton, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Carol Wachter, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids and wore light gold crystalettes. Also wearing gold was the junior bridesmaid, Diane Wilde, sister of the bride. All the attendant's dresses were designed with sabrina necklines and a deep V in the back, Empire waistlines and full intermission length skirts. They wore coronets of matching velvet leaves and carried basket bouquets filled with gold Fujie chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The best man was Donald Schaefer, Woodburn, brother of the groom, and Norman Toepfer of Woodburn. The ushers were Joseph L. Wachter, uncle of the bride, and Joseph Berni, cousin of the groom.

The bride's mother chose a winter green dress with leaf trim and matching jacket. She wore a corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Schaefer chose a light blue suit with navy accessories and lavender orchid corsage. Dinner, Reception Followed in St. Mary's dining hall. Mrs. Edward Schaefer was hostess and Mrs. Joseph Wachter greeted the guests.

Cutting the three-tiered pillared wedding cake were Mrs. Saultfield and the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Don Schaefer. At the coffee urns were Mrs. L. A. DeDoux and Miss Mae Schaefer, aunts of the bride and groom, assisted by Judy Wachter, cousin of the bride.

Assisting were the Misses Kathleen Owings, Miss Carol Eder, Carol Erpelding, Toni Williams, Jeannette Wolf, Mary Beth Eberle, Ruth Eder.

Arlene Fesster, Rita Hauth, Laura Schmitz, Donna Jean Wilde, Marie Platz, Marlene Diehl, and Mrs. Richard Basl. After a honeymoon to California, the newlyweds will be at home on the groom's farm, Route 1, Molalla. For traveling the bride selected a winter pink sheath dress, matching hat and accessories and a black cashmere coat.

Caribbean Slides to Be Shown at Dinner Meeting

The October dinner meeting of the Salem Christian Business & Professional Women's Council will meet Tuesday, October 3, at 6:15 p.m. at the Marion Hotel. Beth Aebischer, area representative for the council, will show color slides of her recent trip to the Caribbean. She visited the Bahamas, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, and Haiti in April this year with a Christian group sponsored by the Boca Raton Bible Conference of Florida. Her pictures reveal the life of our neighbors to the South and also the work of the missionaries there.

Special music will be brought by the Teacher's Trio—Elinor Burton, Jackie Davis, and Verna Kellar. Miss Burton will also sing several solo numbers.

The special feature will be presented by Mrs. Jessup of Salem who will display her collection of colored glass ware which includes amber, amethyst and cranberry types of pressed glass.

All women are invited and reservations should be called in to Mrs. C. B. Abbott, or Mrs. Swartzley, by Sunday.

Recent Graduates

First fall meeting of the Recent Graduates Group of AAUW will be held Monday night at the home of Mrs. Dale A. Fitch, 4250 Shoreline Drive, at 8 p. m. The meeting will be a social gathering, including instruction in playing bridge for those desiring it and a discussion of the group's plans for the year. Those interested in attending are asked to call the chairman, Mrs. Richard Yocum, or Mrs. Fitch before the meeting.

Episcopal All-Parish Dinner Set

Outstanding event of the season for Episcopal church members will be the all-parish dinner on Wednesday night. The affair, sponsored by all organizations of the church, will be held in the parish hall at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are available at the church office and may be obtained the evening of the dinner. Those wishing reservations may call the church office.
