

Lois Thompson, Dormer Richert Wed in Dallas

DALLAS—The Grace Memorial Church of Dallas was the setting for the wedding of Miss Lois Yvonne Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Thompson of Fir Villa, and Dormer G. Richert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Toby A. Richert of Dallas, on Friday, September 14. The Rev. H. D. Burkholder officiated. Mrs. Jack McElroy was organist and Miss Eileen Thompson, cousin of the bride, was soloist.

Candlelighters were Merwyn Richert, brother of the groom, and Vernon Heinrichs, cousin of the groom.

For her wedding the bride selected a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin. The bodice had a mandarin collar and a net yoke bordered with sequins and seed pearls. The floor length skirt had tiers of lace on each side. Her fingertip illusion veil was of French lace with a cap of matching lace encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioluses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Pamela Baker was maid of honor and Mrs. Kenneth Bettcher was bridesmaid. Both wore aqua ballerina gowns of taffeta. Sandra Hepper, in a yellow frock, was flower girl.

Donald Richert was his brother's best man and Marvin Rempel was groomsmen.

After a reception in the church social rooms the couple left for a honeymoon to Portland and the Oregon coast. They will make their home in Dallas. The groom is employed at Willamette Valley Plywood Company and the bride is a telephone operator in Salem.

JEFFERSON — Polly Louise Sims, infant daughter of the Ronald Sims, was honor guest at a shower Thursday night. Hostesses were Mrs. Leonard McCaw, Mrs. M. King and Mrs. Gilbert Looney for the party held in the Christian church rooms.

St. Mary's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will meet at the home of Mrs. James L. Payne, 1776 Fir St., Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. S. D. Wiles, Mrs. Charles A. Barclay and Mrs. Peter Geiser.

FOUR CORNERS—Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Phillips were dinner hosts honoring her father, P. T. Deckard, on his birthday. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. John Deckard, John Jr., Linda and Debbie, Janice Phillips and the hosts.
