One of the larger events of the coming week will be the Salem Junior Woman's Club benefit fashion show in the Oregon Room at Meier and Frank's Monday night. Left to right, above, are Mrs. Maurice Cohen and Mrs. Robert Gordon, co-chairmen of the event, and Mrs. Wilson Wilt and Mrs. Elmer Winegar, two of the junior club models. Autumn in Oregon is the theme of the show.

New officers and board members of the YWCA were recently elected at the annual membership meeting. Serving as president of the YWCA board for the ensuing year will be Mrs. Donald L. Rasmussen. Pictured above, left to right, are Mrs. John Groom, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, new board members to serve for a three year term, and Mrs. Rasmussen.

Visitors in the capital are Mrs. R. G. Johnson, of Tehran, Iran, her daughter, Mrs. Fred Erickson and children, Paula and Ricky, of Charleston, S. C. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. C. E. Illidge. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will leave this week to return to Iran by way of Australia and India. Mr. Johnson is in charge of the agriculture program for the U. S. Government in Iran.

Gray Ladies from the Marion County Chapter, American Red Cross are in the limelight this week as they are sponsoring a silver tea on Thursday at the Fairmount Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woody. Purpose of the tea is to interest women in the Gray Lady program and to provide funds to further their projects at the Oregon State Hospital. Pictured above, left to right, are Mrs. Otis E. Van Blaricom, co-chairman of the tea, Mrs. Horace McGee, chairman, and Mrs. Woody, at whose home the tea will be held.

At the right are Mrs. Robert Needham, chairman of the Gray Ladies for the Marion County Chapter, American Red Cross, and Mrs. John Debacon, psychiatric instructor and director of volunteers at the Oregon State Hospital.

Residing in Salem for the ensuing year is Mrs. J. B. B. Trussell Jr., pictured in the oval at the right. Mrs. Trussell, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Philip Allison, is living here with her sons, Brandy and James, while Lieutenant Colonel Trussell is in Korea with the army. Mrs. Trussell was welcomed at a tea for which Mrs. Allison was hostess on Tuesday.

Two other new YW board members elected for a three year term are at the left, Mrs. Del Milne and Mrs. Stanley Butler. Mrs. William Bush, who was elected for a two year term, was unable to be present for the picture. Board members are responsible for carrying on the many activities and functions of the YWCA.
