

Bride of Saturday

Miss Kathleen Walden Bride of Arden Eby at Church Nuptials

Miss Kathleen Walden and Arden Thomas Eby exchanged their marriage vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday night at the Calvary Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walden and Mr. Eby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eby, all of Molalla. The Rev. W. Berkeley Ormond officiated at the rites before a setting of white and dusty rose chrysanthemums flanked by dusty rose candles.

Ronald Craven was the vocalist and Mrs. Craven was the organist. Miss Patty Walden, sister of the bride, and Miss Jeannie Eby, sister of the bridegroom, lighted the tapers.

Of white satin and lace was the bridal gown, fashioned with panels of lace applique and a chapel train, which was made by the bride's mother. Her illusion fingertip veil was caught to a pillbox headdress trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a Bethel Bible marked with a white orchid.

The bride's four attendants wore dusty rose crystalline dresses made with empire waists and full skirts. They wore crowns of baby chrysanthemums and carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums. Miss Carol Stark was the honor maid and Mrs. Wayne Goode, Mrs. Roy Schiewe and Miss Jeannie Bowers were the bridesmaids. Pamela Walden, sister of the bride, was flower girl and Michael Eby, the bridegroom's brother was ring bearer.

Twin Brother is Best Man
Arnold Eby served as best man for his twin brother. Ushers were Ronald Schoenborn, Loren Wroldstad and Fred Sandgren.

Mrs. Walden selected a navy blue gown with dusty rose hat and gloves and corsage of roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Eby attended the nuptials in a dusty rose lace gown with white hat and gloves and corsage of pink roses.

The reception was held in the fireplace room. Pouring were Mrs. Richard Jackson, the bride's sister, Mrs. H. O. Walden and Mrs. Charlie Stoller, the bride's aunts. Mrs. Emil Westerlund and Mrs. E. Rees John, aunts of the bride, cut the cake. Assisting were Mesdames Malcolm Reeler, Richard Pearson, Arnold Eby, Misses Eunice Peckenpaugh, Paula Bangs, Angela Hartman and Joyce Highly.

For going away the new Mrs. Eby donned a shadow plaid empire dress with red top coat and winter white accessories. The couple will be at home at 1062 Howard Street following their honeymoon along the Oregon coast.

Something happened in the store the other day to convince me it doesn't do any good to give advice. Each of us has to learn from bitter experience.

This young couple came in, and she asked to see what was new in our fall fashions. I sensed immediately they were newly-married because he didn't know enough to go off in a corner to sit quietly, the way any well-trained old married hand would. Instead, he plunked down beside her and started a string of wisecracks about women's taste in shoes.

She never said a word, but I noticed the more sarcastic he became the more shoes she tried on. I felt sorry for the guy so, while his wife was in front of the mirror admiring a particularly beautiful pair of shoes, I said friendly-like, "Take a tip, fellow, let up on the needling." I guess he thought I was afraid he would queer my sale. He laughed, and it wasn't a bit friendly.

Well, he went on teasing. Then he made this remark about how intelligent men were about their shoes, how they'd sooner go barefoot than be caught dead in some new-fangled fashion. That did it. His bride's pretty blue eyes glared over with ice. Using just those icy blue eyes and nodding her head in approval, she selected four pairs of shoes, then stood up. He followed suit, pleased as punch. He hadn't heard her say a word about taking any of the shoes, so he figured he'd won.

When he saw me wrapping the four boxes, he looked surprised. "Now show the man how intelligent you are," his wife said with acid sweetness. "Show him you can sign your name to a check for $50.75."

Right then that newly-wed husband won my lasting admiration. In a single second he graduated from the ranks of novices to join all us professionals — he never uttered another peep, just timidly drew out his checkbook, silently wrote the check. As they left the store (he was carrying the shoes) I heard her say, "You'd rather go barefoot, anyway, wouldn't you, dear?"

Mrs. Charles L. Layport and Mrs. Harold Jory will entertain members of Chapter BC, PEO Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. at the former's Chemeketa Street home.

MAKES YOU LOOK YOUNGER

Firms Tissue, Lifts Contours, Clears and Tones Complexion

Right in front of your eyes, while you watch it happen in your mirror, years will seem to slip away from your face, lines and wrinkles give way to a new, firm look, dry, flaking skin appears moist, dewy - fresh and younger. Do you have tell-tale sagging tissues, a drooping chin-line, discouraging flabby contours that obliterate the clean, fine outlines of your lower face? Do you see the warning signals of these ugly things approaching? Do you realize that Time reveals its secrets first at your throat?

Don't just dread looking older... don't look older than you must... DO something about it... and do it NOW. Use Aralinn according to directions, see for yourself how tired, drooping muscles will respond. Stimulated circulation brings back the radiant coloring of girlhood, the dull sallow skin that makes so many women look older than their years will glow in a way that makes eyes seem brighter, teeth whiter, clothes more becoming. Made by an exclusive, secret formula, based on long scientific research, tested, tried and proved astonishing in its results, Marie Earle's Aralinn combines emollients and astringents by a unique process. It comes in two types, No. 1 for Dry Skins, No. 2 for Oily Skins.

Spend just 15 minutes a day using Aralinn according to directions, and say good-by to "expression lines" and wrinkles.

but... among the nice things about travel are the people you meet and the lives you dip into. Recently my plane seatmate was a young woman, called in the middle of the night to 90 miles out of Anchorage from Minnesota by a hysterical brother. All she knew was that something had happened to her sister-in-law. She would find out when she arrived at Anchorage where she was to meet an unknown man who would take her to her brother. I will never know.
