Dr. Poling Will Be BPW Club Speaker

Anticipating the national observance of United Nations Day the Salem Business and Professional Women's Club has chosen the United Nations as its theme for its October 23 meeting, when the group convenes at the Golden Pheasant for a 6:30 dinner.

Dr. Paul Poling will be guest speaker with "Women's Role in the United Nations" for his subject. The program represents joint planning of the education and international relations committees, headed by Mrs. Willow Evans and Mrs. Harmon Yeary. Mrs. Margery Rickard will present special music, a group of piano selections by Gary Frame.

Dr. Derthick to Speak
Dr. Charles Derthick of Willamette University will meet with the Y.W.C.A. discussion group, composed of parents of teenagers, on Monday evening, October 22 at 7:30 p.m. The topic to be considered is "Social Sex Attitudes". A film with that title will be used to present the subject for the consideration of the group. All parents of teenagers are invited to join this group, which will meet at the Y.W.C.A. four more Monday evenings. Further information may be obtained from the group leader, Mrs. Gilbert E. Jones, or from Mrs. Carolyn Cocking of the Y.W.C.A. staff.
