

Kathleen Hauth Becomes Bride At Nuptial Mass at St. Mary's

MT. ANGEL.—Fall flowers and autumn leaves decorated St. Mary's Catholic Church Saturday morning for the wedding of Miss Kathleen Hauth, daughter of Mrs. Wendel Hauth and the late Mr. Hauth of Mt. Angel, and William Soderberg of Oswego.

The Rev. Edward Spear, OSB, officiated at the 10:30 o'clock nuptial high mass. Miss Helen Keber was at the organ and St. Mary's choir sang with Mrs. Lawrence Kleinschmidt singing the solo.

The bride, in satin and lace, was escorted by her brother, Fred Hauth. The dress was fashioned with a basque lace bodice with high, pointed collar and long sleeves and a full satin skirt, embellished with two narrow lace bands in front and a wide panel of lace in back that extended to the edge of the train. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Preceding the bride were four attendants, wearing ballerin dresses of crystal, the honor attendant in soft blue, the others wearing a shade darker. They wore brief veils matching their gowns and carried nosegays of chrysanthemums in mixed colors.

Sisters Attend Bride
Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Stan Ferrell (Rose Hauth) of Dayton and a younger sister, Miss Marguerite Hauth, and Miss Darlene Gottacker of Woodburn were bridesmaids. The junior bridesmaid was Shirley Deal of Rainier, niece of the bride.

Arthur Soderberg of Oswego stood with his brother as best man and groomsmen were George Grill, Oswego, and Wesley Robinson, Portland. The ushers were Donald Hauth, brother of the bride, and Robert Ochs, Portland.

Mrs. Hauth was attired in a navy suit and hat and pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Soderberg chose a black suit and white accessories for the nuptials. Their corsages were lavender orchids.

The reception and luncheon followed in the dining halls of St. Mary's school. Mrs. Charles Deal of Rainier, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Lawrence McClure of Salem poured. Kay Deal, niece of the bride, passed the guest book, and Miss Marlene Diehl, cousin of the bride, and Miss Arlene Dummer were at the gift table. Serving were Misses Virginia and Stella Hauth, Kay Carol Kleinschmidt, Mary Lou Schmalz and Mary Ann Fitzsimmons.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Soderberg will make their home in Portland, where the groom is employed. For going away the bride selected a pink knit suit, black accessories.

BUTTEVILLE.—November 1 is the next meeting date of the Belle Passi chapter; Daughters of the American Revolution and will be at the home of Mrs. Drexel White. At the last meeting, Mrs. Roy Armstrong of Portland, state regent, was honored with a one o'clock luncheon at the Curator's cottage in Champeoz State Park. She gave a report of the Continental Congress which she attended in Washington, D.C. and also outlined the DAR's activities for the year.
