32 Seniors in Selling Program

By LOUIS PARKER
Participating in North Salem High's retail selling program this year are 32 seniors. These students take senior English, American problems and a period of retail selling in the morning. Each student gets on-the-job training in the afternoon, working outside of school.

Only seniors who are at least 16 years of age are eligible for the program. The course is designed to give training opportunity for students not planning to go to college. The employer of each student acts as a faculty member while the student is under his supervision and the student is graded on personal appearance, habits, attitude, dependability, punctuality and ability to get along with others.

Two Charges Filed on Man In Dallas Case

DALLAS, Ore., Oct. 29—Criminal charges were filed here today against Lloyd Eugene Enfield, 24, who was arrested Saturday at Milwaukie by state police and held for Polk County authorities on a bad check charge.

The new charges are obtaining property under false pretenses and obtaining money under false pretenses. The complaints were signed by a Chevrolet dealer here. Bail was set at $5,000 on each charge by Justice of Peace Kenneth Shetterly.

Enfield was arraigned before Shetterly today and asked for a preliminary hearing on the money count and for additional time to decide whether he wanted a preliminary hearing on the property charge. Both requests were granted.

District Atty. Walter Foster said the charges arose after Enfield executed a bill of sale on an auto he didn't own and then traded the car in for a new 1957 model. Foster said that Enfield then wrote a post-dated $300 check and gave it to his brother-in-law to buy back the original car. The two men were in the new car when Enfield was arrested in Milwaukie.

Enfield also was arraigned today before Justice of Peace W. A. Wiese. Independence, on the original warrant charging obtaining money under false pretenses. The complaint, signed by a Falls City merchant, involved a bad check. Wiese set bail at $1,000 and scheduled a preliminary hearing for next Monday at 10 a.m.

Foster said that Enfield, who was using an alias of William E. Nolan, was an escapee from Washington State Penitentiary at Walla Walla. The Polk County sheriff's office was informed today that a hold from Walla Walla where he was serving a sentence for grand larceny, would be filed.

Ex-Resident Of City Dies

Gaines F. Hampton, 52, a former resident of Salem, died Monday at Los Angeles, according to information received here.

A resident of El Monte, Calif., since leaving Salem about two years ago, Hampton had been hospitalized after suffering a heart attack a month ago. He was in bridge construction work while living here.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Jeannette Hampton, El Monte, Calif.; and a daughter, Mrs. William (Betty) Sales, Salem, who was enroute south by plane at time of her father's death.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

New Teachers to View Offices of Salem District

Approximately 80 teachers new to the Salem District public schools this year will visit the school system's administrative headquarters Wednesday afternoon to familiarize themselves with the consultants, business officers and other personnel there.

The inspection at 3:30 p.m. will be followed by an informal coffee time for the teacher group.

School administrative offices are in the system's office building at Ferry and 13th Streets.

MAN HOSPITALIZED

Ralph Damm, 56, Brownsville, suffered what was believed to be a heart attack about 10 p.m. Monday at the Salem Elks Club. First aid men reported. The man was taken to Salem Memorial Hospital, where he was reported "resting comfortably."

To Speak

Ambrose Brownell, Milwaukee, district governor of Rotary International, who will address Salem Rotary Club Wednesday.

District Chief To Address Rotary Club

Ambrose Brownell, Milwaukee, district governor of Rotary International, will speak at the Salem Rotary Club's Wednesday noon meeting at the Hotel Marion.

Brownell, who heads 53 clubs in Oregon and Southern Washington, also will confer on Rotary administration and service activities with President Paul Bale and Secretary Hugh Morrow of the Salem organization.

Brownell is a member and past president of the Oregon City club and was named district governor for 1956-57 at Rotary's 47th annual convention in Philadelphia last June.

Six Treated For Injuries In Accidents

Six persons still were under treatment Monday at Salem Memorial Hospital for injuries received in two highway accidents in the area Sunday. Not seriously hurt, all were reported in "good" condition by attendants.

Mark Gehlar, 774 Cascade Dr., among those injured in a head-on crash on Pringle Road, was released from the hospital Monday. Others hurt in that crash and still hospitalized include Mrs. Paula Gehlar, 774 Cascade Dr.; her daughter, Daphne, 12; Earl Drake Brown, 15; Turner; and Kenneth Eugene Lemmons, 21, Atlanta, Ga.

Still hospitalized from a two-car crash against a traffic post on Marion Street bridge were Mrs. Dorothy Williams, 1114 3rd St., and Jack Eiswerth, 17, of 810 Missouri Ave.

Fir-Tex Firm Purchased by Kaiser Outfit

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 29—Kaiser Gypsum Co., subsidiary of Permanente Cement Co., today announced the purchase of the physical assets of Fir-Tex Insulating Board Corp. in a multi-million dollar transaction.

The deal includes the principal Fir-Tex plant at St. Helens, Ore., more than 16,000 acres of timberland in Oregon and Washington and Western Insulated Products Corp., a subsidiary.

Claude E. Harper, vice president and general manager of Kaiser Gypsum, said Fir-Tex will become the company's insulating board division.

Fir-Tex facilities include 14 major buildings on 175 acres on Scappoose Bay of the Columbia River, about 29 miles northwest of Portland.

The sale was made by Blyth & Co. investment bankers, and is a portion of that firm's recent acquisition for 100 million dollars of the holdings of Dant & Russell Corp. of Portland.

Bar Pilot Rescued After Ocean Fall

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 29—Bar pilot L. L. Slover of Aberdeen fell into the Pacific Ocean tonight as the tanker Minnesota was off Grays Harbor, the Coast Guard reported.

Slover was picked up about 20 minutes later by the pilot boat Mercury. The Mercury reported Slover was suffering from shock and exposure. He was to be taken to an Aberdeen hospital.

CARS DAMAGED

Two cars received moderate damage about 5 p.m. Monday in a collision in the 3200 block of N. Portland Road, city police said. Drivers were listed as Walter Henry Nester, Portland, and Darrell Henry Tennis, Pratum.
