

Valley Briefs

Four Corners—Fire damaged wiring in a tractor which Otto Pefennig was filling with gasoline at 355 S. Elma St. at 11 a.m. Saturday, according to Four Corners Fire Chief Waldo Miller. The chief said prompt arrival of fire equipment, which had to travel only four blocks, probably prevented the blaze from spreading to nearby buildings.

Gervais—Tuesday at 8 p.m. is the meeting of the Sacred Heart Mothers' Club in the old school building. Refreshments will be served by Mesdames William Uppendahl, Frank Adelman, Junior and Paul Kelling.

Silverton—Charles Berhorst, 17, injured Friday night while playing with the Silverton High School football team, was reported "improving" Saturday and was expected to leave the hospital Sunday, his physician said. The youth incurred no fractures. He lives at Sublimity.

Fruitland—Four-H awards will be presented at the Fruitland Parent-Teacher Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday. The club will discuss a suggestion that the area join a rural fire protection district. Movies will be shown for children.

Bridgeport—Dolls from the Dallas Fire Department will be fitted with wardrobes at the meeting of the Bridgeport Women's Club on Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lester Derksen. Because the club treasurer, Mrs. Paul Rueszberger, and her husband and two children will be moving to Salt Creek shortly, an election of officers has been called.

North Howell—The North Howell 4-H Club will meet at the Harold Dunn home Tuesday at 7 p.m. There will be election of officers. James Jackson is the club leader, and Everett Hay is assistant leader.

Brooks—Pupils of Brooks school will have several days vacation from classes during November. School will be dismissed Nov. 12 due to Veterans Day falling on Sunday. Thanksgiving vacation will include Nov. 22 and Nov. 23, also Nov. 25, which is In-service Day for all rural school teachers.

Stayton—The International Relations League of Stayton High School is presenting a variety show in the high school gymnasium the evening of November 21 at 7:30. All proceeds will go to the Foreign Exchange Student fund.

Zena—A no-host dinner will be held at Zena School Friday at 4 p.m. The Parents Club invites all residents in this community to come. Open house will be held with the children's work on display, and a spelling bee will take place between adults and children of Lincoln and Zena schools.

Gervais—A week earlier meeting date, Nov. 14, due to 14th Thanksgiving holidays has been set by The Clara Jones Missionary Society. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church parlors. Mrs. Robert Harper and Mrs. Jacob Cutsforth will present the program. At the refreshment hour, Mrs. Buford Brown and Mrs. Ward Manning will preside.

Eastern Star Leaders Meet At Lebanon

LEBANON, Nov. 10—Seventy-one members of Willamette Valley Matrons and Patrons association of the Order of Eastern Star met here Thursday evening.

In charge of the business was Mrs. Rose Lovelady, association president, member of St. Mary's chapter, Corvallis. Serving as secretary-treasurer is Eldon Gove. Venus chapter, Donald, whose home is in Salem.

The group was also greeted by representatives of Zenith chapter, Brownsville, and Sweet Home chapter. Plans were made to hold the annual Christmas party, Dec. 13, at Mill City. Assisting Marilyn chapter will be Euclid chapter, Jefferson, and Acacia, Stayton.

Former Police Officer Dead

SILVERTON, Nov. 10—Roy McKenzie, 45, former special Silverton policeman, died this morning in a Silverton hospital after a brief illness.

He was a resident of 421 N. Water St. and lived here 15 months. He was born March 17, 1911 to Bozeman, Mont.

Survivors are his widow, Stella; daughter, Gayle, Silverton; mother, Mrs. Belle Richards, Anacortes, Wash.; sister, Mrs. Betty Carmody, and three brothers in Montana. Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Ekman chapel. The Rev. John Price will officiate and committal will be in Mt. Crest Abbey.

FLIES FROM JAPAN

FOUR CORNERS, Nov. 10—M/Sgt. Leroy Willig flew here from Japan and surprised his mother, Mrs. Fred Beckner, then flew on to Tacoma and surprised his wife and daughters. The Willigs spend the past weekend in the Buckhorn home. He is stationed at Tokyo with the Air Force.

The blood's ability to clot is an intricate and vital mechanism that prevents us from bleeding to death when we are hurt.

Bethel Farm Group Holds Venison Event

BETHEL, Nov. 10—The basement of the new addition to the Bethel School was ready in time for the serving of the annual venison dinner of the Farmers Union this week.

Choice venison, provided by the Bethel hunters, was barbecued and served with the barbecue sauce that is a specialty of J. K. Neufeldt. Roy Marchand was his assistant.

Women of Bethel local under the chairmanship of Mrs. John A. Hain served the dinner.

Side walls were adorned with mounted trophies of the hunters. At the far end of the dining room was a scene in the forest with a mirrored lake, evergreens, brilliant vine maple, ferns, mossy logs. A group of deer was near the water, and a hunter was approaching. Carl Raetz was the artist and Mrs. Gus Schlicker made the hunter's suit. About seventy guests were served.

New members welcomed into the local by State President Harley Libby, were the Rev. and Mrs. Roger C. Swares of Fruitland, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius C. Bateson, and Mrs. Wilber Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Raetz, all of Fruitland.

Ralph A. Wilson and Carl Raetz showed hunting slides.

Davidson New Grange Master

JEFFERSON, Nov. 10—Delmer Davidson is the newly-elected master of Ankeny Grange.

Other officers include overseer, Wayne Johnston; lecturer, Garnet Pilcher; steward, Lloyd Marlatt; assistant steward, Walter Wulff; chaplain, Louise Johnston; treasurer, Jake Gilmour; secretary, Winifred Zehner; gate keeper, Claude Pilcher; Ceres, Galea Winn; Pomona, Maggie Marlatt; Flora, Hattie Gilmour; lady assistant steward, Nancy Davidson.

Composing the executive committee are John Zehner, George Marlatt and Edna Marlatt.

The Grange is planning a harvest dinner November 17 at the Grange hall. Gayle Gilmour will show pictures he took while an international farm exchange student in South America last year.

The Home Ec club of Ankeny Grange will meet at the home of Garnet Pilcher on Thursday, Nov. 15. The club also is planning a baby shower honoring Mrs. Wayne Johnston. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Galea Winn Monday, Nov. 13 at 8 p.m. All friends are invited.

4-H Club News

CLEAR LAKE, Nov. 10—The Mrs. Hugh Roach, has organized Toasters, 4-H cooking club led by and elected officers. Mary Jo McCandlish will serve as president; Diane Fitzjohn is vice-president; and Karen Roach, secretary. Other members are Cheryl Lee, James McCandlish, Judith Wall, Debra Michael, and Judith Landrith.

LABISH CENTER, Nov. 10—Kay Tyler was recently elected president of the Labish Center Onioners 4-H club.

Other officers elected were Chris Hornsby, vice president; Donna Dichen, secretary; Pat Klampe, news reporter; Irene Meyer, song leader; and Dianne Thomas, yell leader. Club leader is Mrs. Villet Hooker.

JEFFERSON, Nov. 10—A new 4-H sewing club, "Whistle while You Sew," was organized this week. Leaders are Mrs. Roy Goin and Mrs. Dick Christman. Officers elected are Joan Hoevet, president; Nancy Wilson, vice president; Marjorie Tillotson, secretary; Sheryl Christman, song leader; Leah Goin, reporter. Other members are Annie Morris, Patricia Jarvie and Linda Kihl.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Nov. 10—The Jolly Sewers 4-H Club of Popcorn School have elected Martha Lippert as president. The group also elected Eileen Gannon vice president; Dolores Dachenhausen, secretary; Linda Gannon, reporter; Irene Wiens and Susan Sheets, song leaders. Mrs. R. E. Gannon is leader and Mrs. Frank Dachenhausen, assistant leader.

BROOKS, Nov. 10—Interest in the 4H program has mounted this year at Brooks, with the organization of eight clubs under the supervision of Sevelon S. Rockwell, principal of Brooks School.

The Wood-working Club will be known as the "Busy Beavers" with Arthur Royston as leader and William Piau the assistant leader. Gary Klenki was elected president.

Other officers elected were Larry Phillips, vice-president; Jack Murphy, secretary; Gary Scorgie, news reporter; Clarence Jensen, song leader; and Larry Robinson, sergeant-at-arms. They meet every other Monday 7-8 p.m. at the school.

Mrs. Emma Barnick is the leader for the Health Club with Jere Yada as president; Cynthia Potts, vice-president; Patricia Busch, secretary; and Karen Clement, song leader. This club meets for health lesson during school and will be known as "Good Citizens Club."

Dinner Planned For Newcomers In Rural Area

SPRING-VALLEY, Nov. 10—The Community Center Association executive board has decided to hold a no-host dinner and party on Saturday, Dec. 1, at 6:30 p.m. at the Community Center in Spring Valley. New families who have come to live in the Lincoln, Zena and Spring-Valley areas in the past two years will be honored.

A program will follow the dinner. Everyone is urged to attend and to notify Mrs. Bruce Howell or Mrs. James Smart of any new families who have recently moved here.

Johnson Rites Set at Stayton

STAYTON, Nov. 10—Final rites for Herman Tilford Johnson, 36, killed when a shotgun accidentally discharged in his truck, will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Weddie Chapel here. Interment will be at Lone Oak Cemetery.

Johnson, a logger, was born April 20, 1920, at Jessieville, Ark. Surviving are his wife, Bernice, and two sons, Jerry and Lonny, all at Stayton; five brothers, Joe and Raymond Johnson at Stayton, Jhue at Mill City, and Henry and Lora at Little Rock, Ark.; also two sisters, Mary Jane Ege, Hot Springs, Ark., and Ella Koehler, St. Louis, Mo.

BERRY FARM SOLD
NORTH HOWELL, Nov. 10—Sale of the 14-acre berry farm of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall in this district has been reported by the Halls. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Jacobs of Great Bend, Kansas. The Jacobs are moving to their new home.

ATTEND MEMORIAL RITES
BROOKS, Nov. 10—Two sisters of Mrs. Vetra Countryman recently attended memorial services held here for Bert Countryman. They were Mrs. Van Loveland, Yakima, Wash., and Mrs. Herbert Andrews, Riverbank, Calif. Also attending was Mr. Van Loveland.

School Plans Open House

LINCOLN, Nov. 10—Lincoln School will hold open house in conjunction with the Parents Club meeting on Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. The 4th, 5th and 8th grade students will handle the program. Mrs. Vesta Loveall, the teacher at Lincoln, has announced that she will keep the school open until 6:30 p.m. so that parents who work may come and see the children's work.

Hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. Bruce Howell. Mrs. James Smart and Mrs. Lloyd Dickenson.

Extension Unit Seats Leader

NORTH HOWELL, Nov. 11—Mrs. Jack Bartlett was installed as chairman of the North Howell Home Extension Unit when that group held a regular meeting. Mrs. Bartlett replaces Mrs. George Mikkelsen who found it impossible to serve.

Mrs. Grace Taylor was named to represent the unit at a legal conference. Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Rex Turner demonstrated the "Art of Pressing"; and luncheon hostesses were Mesdames Andrew Hall, Thomas Bump, E. H. Beals, and Ed Zitewitz.

Gervais Class Play Billed

GERVAIS, Nov. 9—The play "Dino" will be presented by the Junior class of Gervais Union High School, two nights, Nov. 16-17, at the gymnasium.

Don Belleque, Evelyn Ethell, John Cox and Jerry LaMar will play the leading roles. The play is under the direction of Robert E. Lewis and is currently being made into a motion picture.

with Salem
with the Valley
with Oregon

GROWING!

Today's Edition Of The Oregon Statesman Follow The Day-After-Day Trend To New Records Of Public Acceptance

THE STATESMAN'S CIRCULATION IS THE LARGEST IN HISTORY . . .

FOR THESE GOOD REASONS

Carefully-edited and complete news columns—local, state, national, world-wide.

Finest pictorial coverage in the valley, augmented by full facilities of the noted Associated Press Wirephoto network.

Outstanding locally-produced columns by Charles A. Sprague (It Seems to Me); Conrad Prange (Comes the Dawn); Al Lightner (Sportlightner); Around Town (Jeryme English); Our Valley (Charles Ireland); Don't Look Now (Maxine Buren); Ranch Ramblings (Lillie Madsen).

The best features obtainable from national syndicates—Ann Landers (advice); Star Gazer (horoscope); Home of the Week (Associated Press)—and a selection of the finest comics: Blondie, Grin and Bear It, Jimmie Hatlo, Dick Tracy, Gasoline Alley, Mommy, Rip Kirby, Buz Sawyer, Barney Google, Annie Rooney, Mickey Mouse.

Nationally-famous Alsop Bros.

Both national and Northwest Wires of the Associated Press.

Representative advertising of the valley's finest merchants—for real values and savings.

Classified advertising sections which have grown into the finest market place in the valley.

Fair,

Independent,

Complete!

Your HOME Newspaper
Seven Days a Week

The Oregon Statesman

Circulation Dept.
Statesman-Journal
Salem, Oregon
Please Start the Oregon Statesman
 By Mail in Oregon
$1.10 per Month, Daily and Sunday
 By Carrier in All Valley Towns
$1.45 per Month, Daily and Sunday
I enclose Check Cash
Name _____
Address _____