

Benefit Parties, Sales to Aid Many Projects . . .

Statesman's HOME
Panorama
 Women . . . Music . . . Fashions . . . Features

(Sec. 3) Statesman, Salem, Ore., Sunday, Nov. 11, 1956

Sampling . . . the chocolate coated mints to be sold by hundreds of Camp Fire Girls this week are Pattie Tiano, a Blue Bird, and Charlene Taggart, a Camp Fire girl. Looking on is William Schaumberg, district chairman of the sale. Proceeds from the sale will help maintain Camp Kilowan.

(All photos by Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Chairman . . . and co-chairman of the Salem General Hospital Auxiliary's annual silver tea, Mrs. Joseph M. Devers and Mrs. Robert C. Cannon, are pictured (in the upper photo) in the spacious living room, of the Bradley W. Burkland home atop Candalaria Heights, where the tea will be held Thursday afternoon. A soft, mauve-pink carpeting with turquoise accent in the furnishings is the color scheme for the living and dining room.

In the lower photo are Mrs. Burkland, right, and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr., president of the hospital Auxiliary. The interested public is invited to attend the tea between 2 and 6 o'clock.

Annual . . . Pi Beta Phi alumnae Settlement School sale and tea is called for Monday, Nov. 19 at the Merrill D. Ohling residence. Pictured above are Mrs. Ohling, chairman of the event, and Mrs. Kenneth Potts, sales chairman, who are displaying a number of the handwoven articles to be shown. Tea will be served continuously throughout the day and hours are from 11 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.

Mixing . . . the batter for the benefit pancake supper to be given by Bethel 43, Job's Daughters on Monday night at the Scottish Rite Temple are, left to right, Miss Marilyn Colgan, Tom Hueneke, who will serve as the chef for the girls, Miss Imogene Thomas, general chairman, and Miss Carol Robb. Pancakes will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock to all Bethel members and their families and interested friends.

Busy preparing . . . the menu for the annual YMCA-YWCA smorgasbord to be held Wednesday night at the YW are, left to right, two of the committee members, Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mrs. George Rhoten, and Mrs. Oscar Liudahl, general chairman of food arrangements. Hams, turkeys and salads are prepared way in advance in order to accommodate the hundreds who attend the smorgasbord and international program. The public is invited to attend this traditional event. Dinner will be served continuously from 5 to 8 p. m.