Miss Burdick Is Bride of Mr. Kraemer

Miss Ann Marie Burdick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Burdick of Gervais, and Harold Anthony Kraemer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kraemer of Mt. Angel, exchanged vows at a 10 o'clock nuptial high mass in St. Mary's Catholic church in Mt. Angel on Saturday morning, November 10. The occasion marked the twentieth anniversary of the wedding of the bride's parents. The Rev. Fr. Sheffield of St. Louis officiated at the mass and double ring ceremony.

Vincent Hammer and John Schallberger served at the altar. St. Mary's choir sang and Wayne Meusey was the soloist. Miss Helen Keyer of Mt. Angel played the organ.

The wedding dress of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin was made with fitted bodice of lace with net yoke and Victorian collar. Matching lace extended in a cascade of points over the skirt of double nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a crescent bouquet of bouvardia centered with a white orchid. For sentiment, the bride wore a small wreath of flowers from her mother's veil.

The Bride's Attendants
 Preceding the bride were three attendants. Miss Shirley Kraemer, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, Miss Lois Everett of Salem, bridesmaid, and the bride's younger sister, Geradine Burdick as junior bridesmaid.

They wore gowns of crystal-ette, styled alike with long torso bodice, large bow-in-back scoop-neck line and ballerina skirts. The honor attendant wore rose and the bridesmaids were in open blue. Each wore a headdress of crystal-ette flowers to match her dress and they carried cascade arrangements of bronze chrysanthemums.

David Kraemer stood with his brother as best man and groomsmen were Glen Burdick, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Buchholz of Mt. Angel. Ushers were Leo Muller, Salem, cousin of the bride, and LeRoy Fessler, Mt. Angel, cousin of the groom.

The mother of the bride chose a rose pink brocade dress and black and white accessories and the groom's mother wore a navy blue faille with rose and navy accessories. Both wore corsages of pink cymbidium orchids.

At the close of the services, while Mr. Meusey sang the bride and groom placed a small colonial bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Mother.

Reception Follows Rites
 Following the church ceremony, a reception was held in the dining rooms of St. Mary's school. Mrs. William Fessler, godmother of the bride, acted as hostess. Cutting the cake were Mrs. E. F. Ross,

Salem, and Mrs. Ken Stafford, Molalla. Mrs. Del Folk of Klamath Falls poured, assisted by Miss Darlene Ferschweiler of Gervais. Assisting were Mrs. Stan Dauenhauer, Salem, Mrs. Gail Hazen, Kelso, Wash., aunts of the bride, Mrs. Lon Malone, Wash., Mrs. Rob Simmons, Salem, Mrs. Al Zimmerman, Klamath Falls, sister of the groom, Miss Carolyn Haselbacher, Salem, cousin of the bride, Misses Jeanette Griese-nauer, Marlene Steffer and Margie Dauenhauer, Salem, Laura Thomas, Pendleton; Barbara Muller, Independence, and Nancy

Dauenhauer, Amity, all cousins of the bride.

After a wedding trip, the newlyweds will be at home in Mt. Angel. For traveling, the bride donned a black sheath dress with white top coat and pink hat and gloves.

The Marion Lela Norris Wesleyan Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Neil Witting, 2340 S. High St., on Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bert Stoll and Mrs. George Van Handle. Mrs. Myrtle Starkey and Mrs. Lucille Wardle will be in charge of the program.

Don't Look Now...

but... all those strangers we've been seeing in town this week can mean only one thing — it's the Democrats come to case the joint.

Wild West... We would have given a penny for the thoughts of the three Navajo boys watching a pioneer-Indian battle on a store TV set... and the little boy with the cooskin cap helping his mother try on a frilly low-cut evening gown.

Scary... We used to wonder why older women let their lipstick slip and their hair fly, but now we too, hesitate to look in the mirror.

Shades of Grandpa... the holiday edition of a well-known magazine reveals that they're going back to the old look—right shirts for men—and who would have thought it a year ago.

And furthermore... comfortable items are rampant in this season's gift suggestions. There are fleecy lined shoes for everyone and for the big strong outdoors man, electric socks heated by batteries.

Appros, perhaps... a line in the Willamette ploy, Curious Savage that brought the loudest guttaws was "Perhaps the reason they elected him senator was to keep him out of the state"...
